THE PSALMS OF DAVID

IN MEETER.

PSALM I.

That man hath perfect blessedness,
who walketh not astray
In counsel of ungodly men,

nor stands in sinners way;
Nor sitteth in the scozners chair.

But placeth his delight
Upon Gods Law, and meditates
on his Law day and night.

He shall be like a tree that grows
near planted by a river;

Which in his season yields his fruit
and his leaf fadeth never:

And all he doth shall prosper well,

The wicked are not so:
But like they are unto the chaff
which wind drives to and fro.

In judgment therefore shall not stand such as ungodly are:

Nor in the assembly of the just shall wicked men appear.

For whp, the way of godly men unto the Lord is known:

Whereas the way of wicked men shall quite be overhrown.

PSALM II.

Why rage the heathen? and vain things
why do the people mind?

Things of the earth do set themselves,
and Princes are combin'd

To plot against the Lord and his anointed saying thus:

Let us asunder break their bands,
and cast their cords from us:

He that in Heaven sits, shall laugh,
the Lord shall scozn them all:

Then shall he speak to them in wrath:

- in rage he ber them shall.
 6 Yet notwithstanding I have him,
 to be my King appointed;
 And ober Zion my holy hill,
 I have him King anointed.
 7 The sure decree I will declare;
 the Lord hath said to me,
 Thou art mine only Son, this day
 I have begotten thee.
 8 Ask of me, and for heritage
 the heathen I'll make thine;
 And for possession, I to thee
 will give earths utmost line.
 9 Thou shalt as with a weighty rod
 of iron break them all;
 And as a potters sherd, thou shalt
 them dash in pieces small.
 10 Now therefore, Kings be wise, be taught
 ye Judges of the earth.
 11 Serve God in fear, and see that ye
 forgn trembling with your might.
 12 Kiss ye the Son, lest in his ire
 ye perish from the way.
 If once his wrath begin to burn,
 blest all that on him stay.

PSALM III.

- O Lord, how are my foes increas'd
 against me many rise
 2 Many say of my soul, for him
 in God no succour lies.
 3 Yet thou my shield and glory art,
 th'uplifter of mine head,
 4 I cry'd and from his holy hill,
 the Lord me answer made,
 5 I laid me down and slept, I wak'd,
 for God sustained me.
 6 I will not fear tho thousands ten
 set round against me be.
 7 Arise, O Lord, save me, my God,
 for thou my foes hast stroke
 8 All on the cheek-bone, and the teeth
 of wicked men hast broke.

PSALM IV.

- 9 Salvation doth appertain
unto the Lord alone :
10 Thy blessing, Lord, for evermore
the people is upon.

PSALM IV.

- Give ear unto me when I call,
God of my righteousness ;
Have mercy, hear my prayer, thou hast
enlarg'd me in distress.
2 O ye the sons of men, how long
will you love vanities ?
How long my glory turn to shame,
and will you follow lies ?
3 But know, that for himself the Lord
the godly man doth chuse ;
The Lord when I on him do call,
to hear will not refuse.
4 Fear, and sin not, talk with your heart
on bed, and silent be.
5 Offerings present of righteousness,
and in the Lord trust ye.
6 Who will shew us any good ?
is that which many say :
But of thy countenance the light,
Lord, lift on us alway.
7 Upon my heart, bestow'd by thee,
more gladness I have found.
Than they, ev'n then, when corn and wine
did most with them abound.
8 I will both lap me down in peace,
and quiet sleep will take :
Because thou only me to dwell
in safety, Lord, dost make.

PSALM V.

- Give ear unto my words, O Lord,
my meditation weigh.
2 Hear my loud cry, my King, my God,
for I to thee will pray.
3 Lord thou shalt early hear my voice :
I early will direct
My prayer to thee and looking up,
an answer will expect.

- in rage he ber them shall.
 6 Yet notwithstanding I have him,
 to be my King appointed;
 And ober Zion my holy hill,
 I have him King anointed.
 7 The sure decree I will declare;
 the Lord hath said to me,
 Thou art mine only Son, this day.
 I have begotten thee.
 8 Ask of me, and for heritage
 the heathen I'll make thine;
 And for possession, I to thee
 will give earths utmost line.
 9 Thou shalt as with a weighty rod
 of iron break them all,
 And as a potters sheerd, thou shalt
 them dash in pieces small.
 10 Now therefore, Kings be wise, be taught
 ye Judges of the earth.
 11 Serve God in fear, and see that ye
 forgn trembling with your mirrh.
 12 Kiss ye the Son, lest in his ire
 ye perish from the map.
 If once his wrath begin to burn,
 blest all that on him flap.

PSALM III.

- O Lord, how are my foes increas'd
 against me many rise
 2 Many say of my soul, for him
 in God no succour lies.
 3 Yet thou my shield and glorie art,
 th'uplifter of mine head.
 4 I cry'd and from his holy hill,
 the Lord me answer made,
 5 I laid me down and slept, I trust'd,
 for God sustained me
 6 I will not fear tho thousands ten
 set round against me be.
 7 Arise, O Lord, save me, my God,
 for thou my foes hast stroke
 8 All on the cheek-bone, and the teeth
 of wicked men hast broke.

PSALM IV.

- 9 Salvation doth appertain
unto the Lord alone :
10 Thy blessing, Lord, for evermore
the people is upon.

PSALM IV.

- Give ear unto me when I call,
God of my right'ousness ;
Have mercy, hear my prayer, thou hast
enlarg'd me in distress.
2 O ye the sons of men, how long
will you love vanities ?
How long my glory turn to shame,
and will you follow lies ?
3 But know, that for himself the Lord
the godly man doth chuse ;
The Lord when I on him do call,
to hear will not refuse.
4 Fear, and sin not, talk with your heart
on bed, and silent be.
5 Offerings present of righteousness,
and in the Lord trust ye.
6 Who will shew us any good ?
is that which many say :
But of thy countenance the light,
Lord, lift on us alway.
7 Upon my heart, bestow'd by thee,
more gladness I have found,
Than they, ev'n then, when royn and wine
did most with them abound.
8 I will both lay me down in peace,
and quiet sleep will take :
Because thou only me to dwell
in safety, Lord, dost make.

PSALM V.

- Give ear unto my words, O Lord,
my meditation weigh.
2 Hear my loud cry, my King, my God,
for I to thee will pray.
3 Lord thou shalt early hear my voice :
I early will direct
My prayer to thee and looking up,
an answer will expect.

PSALM VI.

- 4 For thou art not a God that doest
in wickedness delight :
Neither shall evil dwell with thee :
nor fools stand in thy sight,
5 All that ill doers are thou hate'st thrust off that spars be :
6 The bloody and deceitful men
abhorred is by thee.
7 But I into thy house will come,
in thine abundant grace :
And I will worship in thy fear toward thy holy place.
8 Because of thine mine enemies,
Lord, in thy righteousness,
Do thou me lead ; do thou thy way
make straight before my face :
9 For in their mouth there is no truth,
their inward part is ill ;
Their throat's an open sepulchre,
their tongue doth flatter still.
10 O God, destroy them, let them be by their own counsel quell'd ;
Them for their many sins cast out,
for they 'gainst thee rebell'd.
11 But let all for that trust in thee,
and still make shouting noise ;
For them thou sav'st : let all that love
thy Name in thee rejoice.
12 For, Lord, unto the righteous man
thou wilt thy blessing yield :
With favour thou wilt compass him about, as with a shield.

PSALM VI.

- 1 Lord, in thy wrath rebuke me not.
Nor in thy hot rage chasten me.
2 Lord, pity me, for I am weak ;
Heal me, for my bones vexed be.
3 My soul is also vexed sore :
But Lord, how long stay wilt thou make ?
4 Return O Lord, my soul set free
Save me for thy mercies sake.
5 Because those that deceased are.

PSALM VII

Of thee shall no remembrance haue;
And who is he that will to thee
Gibe praises lying in the grave:

7 I with my groaning wearp am,
I also, all the night, my bed
Hath caused for to swim, and I
With tears my couch hath watered;

7 Mine eye, consum'd with grief, grows old,
Because of all mine enemies.

8 Hence from me wicked workers all;
For God hath heard my weeping eyes,

9 God hath my supplication heard.

My prayer receiv'd graciouslie:

10 Sham'd, and sore vex'd be all my foes,
Sham'd and back turned suddenly.

Another of the same.

I In thy great indignation,

O Lord, rebuke me not;

For on me lay thy chastising hand
In thy displeasure hot.

2 Lord, I am weak, therefore on me
have mercy, and me spare;

Heal me, O Lord, because thou knowest
my bones much vexed are.

3 My soul is vexed sore, but, Lord,
how long stay wilt thou make?

4 Return, Lord free my soul, and save me, for thy mercies sake.

5 Because of thee in death there shall no more remembrance be:

Of those that in the grave do lie,
who shall give thanks to thee?

6 I with my groaning wearp am,
and all the night my bed

I caused for to swim with tears,
my couch I watered.

7 By reason of my vexing grief,
mine eye consumed is;

It waxes old because of all that be mine enemies.

8 But now depart from me, all ye
that work iniquity;

PSALM VII.

For why the Lord hath heard my voice,
when I did mourn and cry.

9 Unto my supplication
the Lord did hearing give
When I to him my prayer make,
the Lord will it receive.

10 Let all be sham'd and troubled foes,
that enemies are to me :
Let them turn back, and suddenly ashamed let them be.

PSALM VII.

O Lord, my God, in thee do I
my confidence repose :

Save and deliver me from all my persecuting foes.

2 Lest that the enemy my soul
should like a lion tear,
In pieces renting it, while there is no deliverer.

3 O Lord my God, if it be so,
that I committed this :

If it be so that in my hands iniquity there is :

4 If I rewarded ill to him
that was at peace with me :

(Hea. ev'n the man that without cause
my foe was, I did free)

5 Then let the foe pursue and take my soul and my life thrust Down to the earth, and let him lay mine honour in the dust.

6 Rise in thy wrath, Lord, raise thy self,
for my foes raging be :

And to the judgment which thou hast commanded, make for me.

7 So shall the assembly of thy folk about encompass thee :

Thou therefore, for their sakes, return unto thy place on high.

8 The Lord he shall the people judge ;
my judge, Jehovah be.

After my righteousness, and mine

PSALM VII.

Integrity in me.

- 9 Let the wicked's malice end,
but stablish steadfastly
The righteous: for the righteous God
the hearts and reins doth try.
10 In God whorsaves thy upright in heart,
is thy defence and stay.
11 God just men judgeth, God is worthy with ill men ever day.
12 If he do not return again,
then he his sword will whet:
His bow he hath already bent,
and hath it ready set.
13 He also hath for him prepar'd
the instruments of death:
Against the persecutors he his shafts ordained hath.
14 Behold he with iniquity,
doth travel as in brier;
In mischief he conceived hath,
and falsehood shall bring forth.
15 He made a pit and dig'd it deep,
another there to take;
But he is fallen into the ditch
which he himself did make.
16 Upon his own head his mischief
shall be returned home:
His violent dealing also down
on his own pate shall come.
17 According to his righteousness,
the Lord will magnify;
And will sing praise unto the Name
of God that is most high.

PSALM VIII.

How excellent in all the earth,
Lord our Lord, is thy Name,
Who hast thy glory far advanc'd
above the starry frame.
2 From infants and from sucklings mouths,
thou didst strength ordain,
For thy foes cause, that so thou might'st thy avenging so restrain

PSALM IX.

- 3 When I look up unto the heavens,
which thine own fingers fram'd :
Unto the Moon, and to the stars,
which were by thee ordain'd.
- 4 Then say I, what is man, that he remembered is by thee ?
Or what the son of man, that thou so kind to him should be ?
- 5 For thou a little lower hast
him than the Angels made ;
With glory and with dignity
thou crowned hast his head.
- 6 Of thy hand-works thou mad'st him Lord,
all under's feet didst lay.
- 7 All sheep and Oxen, pea, and beasts,
that in the field do stray.
- 8 Fowls of the air, fish of the Sea,
all that pass through the same.
- 9 How excellent in all the earth.
Lord, our Lord, is thy Name.

PSALM IX.

- 1 Lord, thee I'll praise with all my heart,
thy wonders all proclaim :
- 2 In thee, most high, I'll greatly joy,
and sing unto thy Name.
- 3 When back my foes were turn'd, they fell,
and perisht at thy sight :
- 4 For thou maintain'd'st my right and cause,
on thzone sat'st judging right.
- 5 The heathen thou rebuked hast,
the wicked overthrow'n :
- 6 Thou hast put out their names, that they may never more be known.
- 7 O enemy ! now destructions have an end perpetual :
- 8 Thou cities raz'd perisht with them
is their memorial.
- 9 God shall endure for ay: he doth
for judgment set his thzone :
- 10 In righteousness to judge the world,
justice to give each one,
- 11 God also will a refuge be

PSALM IX.

For those that are oppressed,
A refuge will he be, in times of trouble, to distress.

10 And they that know thy Name, in thee
their confidence will place:

For thou hast not forsaken them
that truly seek thy face.

11 O sing ye praises to the Lord,
that dwells in Zion hill,
And all the Nations among,
his deeds record ye still.

12 When he enquireth after blood,
he then remembereth them:
The humble folk he not forgets,
that call upon his Name.

13 Lord pity me, behold the grief which I from foes sustain: E'en thou, who from the gates of death
dost raise me up again.

14 That I in Zion's daughters gates,
may all thy praise advance;
And that I may rejoice alwayes
in thy deliberance.

15 The heathen are sunk in the pit
which they themselves prepar'd;
And in the net which they have hid,
their own feet fast are snar'd.

16 The Lord is by the judgment known,
which he himself hath wrought;
The sinners hands do make the snare,
wherewith themselves are caught.

17 They who are wicked, into hell
each one shall turned be;
And all the Nations that forget,
to seek the Lord most hie.

18 For they that needy are, shall not forgotten be alway:
The expectation of the poor
shall not be lost for ay.

19 Arise, Lord, let not man prevail:
Judge heathens in thy sight.

20 That they may know themselves but men,

PSALM X.
the Nations, Lord, affright.

PSALM X.

Wherefore is it that thou O Lord,
doest stand from us afar?

And wherefore hidest thou thy self,
when times so troublous are?

2 The wicked in his loftiness
doth persecute the poor:

In the devices they have fram'd
let them be taken sure.

3 The wicked of his hearts desire doth talk with boasting great:

He blesteth him that's covetous,
whom yet the Lord doth hate.

4 The wicked through his pride of face,
on God he doth not call,

And in the counsels of his heart,
the Lord is not at all.

5 His wayes at all times grievous are:
thy judgments from his sight

Remov'd are, at all his foes
he puffeth with despite.

6 Within his heart he thus hath said,
I shall not mov'd be;

And no aduersary at all shall ever come to me.

7 His mouth with cursing, fraud, deceit is fill'd abundantly.

And underneath his tongue, there is mischief and vanity;

8 He closeth his in villages,
he slayeth the innocent;

Against the poor that pass him by,
his cruel eyes are bent.

9 He like a lion lurks in his den,
he waits the poor to take;

And when he ozaceth him in his net,
his prey he doth him make.

10 Himself he humblyth very low,
he reoucheth down withal.

That so a multitude of poor
may by his strong ones fall.

PSALM XI.

- 11 He this hath said within his heart;
the Lord hath quite forgot:
He hides his countenance, and he forever sees it not.
- 12 O Lord, to thou arise: O God,
lift up thine hand on him;
Put not the meek afflicted ones,
out of thy memorie.
- 13 Why is it that the wicked man,
thus doth the Lord despise?
Because that God will it require,
he in his heart denies.
- 14 Thou hast it seen, for their mischief
and spite thou wilt repay;
The poor commits himself to thee;
thou art the oppressor's stay.
- 15 The arm break of the wicked man,
and of the evil one:
Do thou seek out his wickedness
until thou findest none.
- 16 The Lord is King through ages all,
even to eternitie:
The heathen people from his land
are perished utterly.
- 17 O Lord, of those that humble art,
thou the desire didst hear:
Thou wilt prepare their heart, and thou
to hear wilt bend thine ear.
- 18 To judge the fatherless and those that are oppressed sore;
That man, that is but sprung of sawd,
may them oppress no more.

PSALM XI.

- I In the Lord do put my trust:
how is it then that ye Say to my soul, Flye as a bird unto your mountain hill:
For lo, the wicked bend their bow:
Their shafts on firing they fir,
That those who upright are in heart,
they perish may hir.
- 2 If the foundations be destroy'd,

PSALM XII.

What hath the righteous done

4 God in his holp Temple is,
in heaven is his Throne:

5 His eyes do see, his eyes lids trip
mens songs: The just he probes:
But his soul hates the wicked man,
and him that violence loves.

6 Snakes, fire, & bymstone, furious storms;
on sinners he shall rain:

This, as the portion of their cup,
doth unto them pertain.

7 Becau' the Lord most righteous, doth in righteousness delight.

And with a pleasant countenance,
beholdeth the upright.

PSALM XII.

Help, Lord because the godly man
doth deeply fade away;

And from among the sons of men
the faithful do decay.

2 Unto his neighbour every one doth utter banter:

They with a double heart do speak,
and lips of flatterer.

3 God shall cut off all flattering lips;
tongues that speak proudly, thus.

4 Wee'l with our tongue prevail our lips are ours: who's Lord o'er us?

5 For poor oppress'd, and for the sighs
of need, rise will I,

Saith God, and him in safety set from such as him despise.

6 The words of God are words most pure;
they be like silver try'd

In earthen furnace seven times, that hath been purifi'd.

7 Lord, thou shalt them preserve and keep forever from this rate.

8 On each side walk the wicked, when wile men are high in place,

PSALM XIII.

How long wilt thou forget me Lord?
shall it for ever be?

Q how long shall it be, that thou wilt hide thy face from me?

2 How long take counsel in my soul,
still sad in heart shall I?

How long exalted over me
shall be mine enemy?

3 O Lord, my God, consider well,
and answer to me make:

mine eyes enlighten, lest the sleep
of death me overtake.

4 Lest that mine enemy should say, against him I prevail'd:

And those that trouble me rejoice
when I am mad'd and fall'd.

5 But I have all my confidence thy mercy set upon;

My heart within me shall rejoice
in thy salvation.

6 I will unto the Lord my God
sing praises thankfully:

Because he hath his bounty shown,
to me abundantly.

PSALM XIV.

That there is not a God, the fool
dorth in his heart conclude;

They are corrupt: their works are vile;
not one of them dorth good.

2 Upon mens sons the Lord from heaven
did cast his eyes abroad:

To see if any understood,
and did seek after God.

3 They altogether filthy are;
they all aside are gone;

And there is none that dorth good pea, sure there is not one.

4 These workers of iniquity,
do they not know at all.

That they my people eat as bread,
and on God do not call.

PSALM XV.

- 5 There fear'd them much, for God is with the whole race of the just,
- 6 Thou shame the counsel of the pooz,
because God is his trust.
- 7 Let Israel's help from Zion come,
when back the Lord shall bring his captives. Jacob shall rejoyce, and Israel shall sing.

PSALM XV.

W^hithin thy tabernacle, Lord,
who shall abide with thee?

And in thy high and holy hill who shall a dweller be?

2 The man that walketh uprightly,
and worketh righteousness
And as he thinketh in his heart,
so doth he truth express.

3 Who doth not slander with his tongue;
nor to his friend doth hurt;
Nor yet against his neighbour doth take up an ill report.

4 In whose eyes vile men are despis'd:
but those that God doth fear
He honoureth, and changeth not,
though to his hurt he swear.

5 His royn puts not to usurp, nor take reward will he Against the guiltless. Who doth thus, shall never moved be.

PSALM XVI.

L^ord keep me, for I trust in thee,

2 To God thus was my speech:
Thou art my Lord, and unto thee
my goodness doth not reach.

3 To saints on earth, to th' excellens
where my delights all plac'd:

4 Their sorrows shall be multiply'd to other gods that haste.

Of their drink-offerings of blood,
I will no offering make;
And neither I their very names
up in my lips will take,

PSALM XVII.

- 5 God is of mine inheritance
and cup the portion :
The lot that fallen is to me,
thou dost maintain alone.
- 6 Unto me happily the lines
in pleasant places fell ;
Vea the inheritance I got,
in beauty doth excel.
- 7 I bless the Lord, because he doth
by counsel me conduct :
And in the seasons of the night,
my reins do me instruct.
- 8 Before me still the Lord I set,
such it is so that he Doth ever stand at my right hand,
I shall not moved be.
- 9 Because of this my heart is glad,
and joy shall be exultant, Ee'n by my glory; and my flesh
in confidence shall rest.
- 10 Because my soul in grave to dwell
shall not be left by thee :
Nor wilt thou give thine help One corruption to see.
- 11 Thou wilt me shew the path of life;
of joyes there is full store
Before thy face ; at thy right hand are pleasures euermore.

PSALM XVII.

- Lord, hear the right, attend my cry :
unto my pray'r give heed,
That both not in hypocrisie
from feigned lips proceed,
- 2 And from before thy presence forth
my sentence do thou send :
Toward these things that equal are ;
do thou thine eyes intend.
- 3 Thou prob'st mine heart, thou visit'st me
by night thou didst me try.
Yet nothing found'st : for that my mouth shall not sin purposely.
- 4 As for mens works, I by the word

PSALM XVII.

that from thy lips doth flow,
Did me preserve out of the paths
wherein destroyers go.

5 Hold up my goings, Lord: me guide,
in those thy paths divine,
So that my foot-steps may not slide
out of these wapes of thine.

7 I called have on thee, O God,
because thou wilt me hear:
That thou may'st hearken to my speech,
to me incline thine ear.

7 Thy wondrous loving-kindness shew,
thou that by thy right hand Sav'st them that in thee trust, from those that up against them stand.

8 As th'apple of the eye me keep;
in thy wings shade me close:

9 From letted oppressors, compassing me round, as deadly foes.

10 In their own fat they are inclos'd:
their mouth speaks softly.

11 Our steps they compass; and to ground down bowing set their eye.

12 He lieth unto a Lion is, that's greedier of his prey:

O: Upon pouncing, which lurking doth in secret places stay.

13 Arise and disappoint my foe,
and cast him down, O Lord:

My soul save from the wicked man,
the man which is thy sword.

14 From men which are, thy hand, O Lord,
from worldly men me save.

Which only in this present life their part and portion have:

Whose belly with thy treasure hid thou fill'st, thy children have

In plenty, of their goods the rest
they to their children leave.

15 But as for me I thine own fate
in righteousness will see;

And with thy likeness, when I wake.

PSALM XVIIII.

I satisfi'd shall be.

PSALM XVIII.

Thou wilt I love, O Lord, my strength.

2 My fortress is the Lord :

My rock, and he that doth to me
deliberance afford ;

My god, my strength, whom I will trust,
a buckler unto me :

The horn of my salvation,
and my high tow'r is he.

3 Upon the Lord, who wrought by his
of praises, will I cry;

And then shall I preserved be safe from mine enemy.

4 Floods of ill men affrighted me death's pangs about me went.

5 Hell's sorrows me environed :
death's snares did me prevent.

6 In my distress I call'd on God,
cry to my God did I ;

He from his temple heard my voice,
to his ears came my cry.

7 The earth as affrighted then did shake, trembling upon it selfed.

His hills foundations moved were,
because he was displeased.

8 Up from his nostrils came a smoke, and from his mouth there came Devouring fire, and coals by it were turned into flame.

9 He also bowed down the heavens,
and thence he did descend :

And thickest clouds of darkness did under his feet attend.

10 And he upon a cherub rode,
and thereon he did fly :

Hea on the swift wings of the wind
his flight was from on hy.

11 He darkness made his secret place :
about him for his rent

Dark waters were, and thickest clouds of th'air's firmaments.

PSALM XVIII.

22 And at the brightness of that light which was before his eye,
His thick clouds past away, hail stones
and coals of fire did flie.

23 The Lord God also in the heavens
did thunder in his ire :
And there the highest gave his voice,
hail stones and coals of fire.

24 Hea he his arrows sent abroad,
and them he scattered :
His lightnings also he shot out,
and them discomfited.

25 The water channels then were seen,
the worlds foundations fast,
At thy rebuke discovered were,
and at thy nostrils blast.

26 And from above the Lord sent down :
and took me from below :
From many waters he me drew ;
which would me overflow.

27 He me relieved from my strong foes,
and such as did me hate
Because he saw that they for me, too strong were and too great.

28 They me prevented in the day of my calamitie ;
But even then the Lord himself
a stay was unto me.

29 He to a place where liberty and room was hath me brought ;
Because he took delight in me,
he my deliverance wrought.

30 According to my righteousness
he did me recompence :

He me repay'd according to my hands pure innocence.

31 For I Gods ways kept, from my God
did not turn wickedlie.

32 His judgments were before me, I his lawes put not from me.

33 Sincere before him was my heart,
with him upright was I :

And

PSALM XLIII.

And watchfully I kept my self
from mine iniquity.

24 After my righteousness, the Lord
hath recompensed me :

After the cleanness of my hands,
appearing in his eye.

25 Thou gracious to the gracious art,
to upright men upright.

26 Pure to the pure, fromard thou art pure, unto the fromard wight.

27 For thou wilt the afflicted save,
in grief that low do ly ;

But wilt bring down the countenance
of them whose looks are hye.

28 The Lord will light my candle so that it shall shine full bright ;

The Lord my God will also make,
my darkness to be light.

29 By thee through troups of men I break,
and them discomfit all :

And by my God assisting me,
I over-leap a wall.

30 As for GOD, perfect is his way
the Lord his way is try'd :

He is a buckler to all those who do on him confide.

31 Who but the Lord is GOD ? but he who is a rock and stay ?

32 It's God that girdeth me with strength, and perfect makes my way.

33 He made my feet swift as the hinds,
set me on my high places.

34 Mine hands to war he taught, my arms break horns of steel in pieces.

35 The shield of thy salvation
thou didst on me bestow,

Thy right hand held me up, and great thy kindness made me grow.

36 And in my way, my steps thou hast enlarged under me

That I go safely, and my feet are kept from sliding free.

PSALEM XVIII.

- 37 Mine enemies I pursued have,
an did them overtake :
Nor did I turn again till I an end of them did make.
- 38 I wounded them, they could not rise,
they at my feet did fall.
- 39 Thou girdest me with strength for war ;
my foes, thou broughtst down all.
- 40 And thou hast giv'n to me the necks
of all mine enemies ;
That I might them destroy and slay,
who did against me rise.
- 41 They cryed out, but there was none
that would or could them save ;
Yea, they did cry unto the Lord,
but he no answer gave.
- 42 Then did I beat them small as dust
before the wind that flies :
And I did cast them out like dirt
upon the street that lies.
- 43 Thou mad'st me free from peoples scife
and heathens head to be :
A people whom I have not known shall service do to me.
- 44 At hearing they shall me obey,
to me they shall submit.
- 45 Strangers for fear shall fade away,
who in close places sit.
- 46 God lives, blest be my Rock : the God
of my health praised be.
- 47 God doth abenge me, and subdues
the people under me.
- 48 He saves me from mine enemies ;
yea thou hast lifted me Above my foes : and from the man of violence set'st me free.
- 49 Therefore to thee will I give thanks
the heathen folk among ;
And to thy Name O Lord I will sing praises in a song.
- 50 He great deliberante gives his King:
his mercy doth extend

PSALM XIX.

To David his anointed One,
and his seed without end.

PSALM XIX.

The heav'n's God's gl'ry do declare:
the sh'pes his hand: mozh's p'each.

2 Day utters speech to day, and night
to night both knowledge teach.

3 There is no speech noz tongue to which their voice doth not extend.

4 Their line is gone thzough all the earth
their mozes to the world's end:

In them he set the Sun a tent,

5 Who bzidegroom-like sozth goes From's chamber, as a strong man doth,
to run his rare resoyce.

6 From heaven's end is his going sozth,
circling to th'end again:

And there is nothing from his heat
that hidden doth remain.

7 God's law is perfect, and converts
the soul in sin that l'pes;

God's testmony is most sure,
and makes the simple wise.

8 The statutes of the Lord are right,
and do resoyce the heart:

The Lord's command is pure, and doth light to the eyes impart.

9 Unspotted is the fear of God,
and doth endure sozever:

The judgments of the Lord are true,
and righteous altogether.

10 They moze than gold, yea much fine gold to be desired are.

Then honey, honey from the comb
that droppeth sweeter far.

11 Mozeover they thy servant warn how he his life should frame;

A great reward p'ovided is for them that keep the same.

12 Who can his erroze understand?

O cleanse thou me with in

From secret faulcs. Thy servant keep

PSALM XX.

from all presumptuous sin

And do not suffer them so have dominion over me :

Then righteous and innocent
I from much sin shall be.

14 The words which from my mouth proceed
the thoughts sent from my heart

Accept, O Lord, for thou my strength and my Redeemer art.

PSALM XX.

Yehovah hear thee in the day
when trouble he doth send :

And let the Name of Jacob's God thee from all ill defend,

2 O let him help send from above,
out of his Sanctuaries :

From Zion his own help Will,
let him give strength to thee.

3 Let him remember all thy gifts,
accept thy sacrifice :

4 Grant thee thine heart's wish, and fulfill thy thoughts and counsel wise.

5 In thy salvation we will joy :
in our God's Name we will Display our banners, and the LORD thy prayers all fulfill.

6 How know I, God his King doth save :
he from his holy heaven

Will hear him, with the saving strength,
by his right hand that's given.

7 In chariots some put confidence,
some horses trust upon :

But we remember still the Name of our LORD GOD alone.

8 We'll rise, and upright stand, when they are bowed down and fall.

9 Deliber LORD, and let the King us hear when we do call.

PSALM XXI.

The King in thy great strength, O Lord, shall verp joyful be :

In thy salvation rejoyce

PSALM XXI.

- how vehemently shall he :
- 2 Thou hast bestowed upon him
all that his heart would have.
And thou from him didst not withhold what ere his lips did crave.
- 3 For thou with blessings him prevent'st
of goodness manifold :
- And thou hast set upon his head
a crown of purest gold.
- 4 When he desired life of thee,
thou life to him didst give ;
Eben such a length of daies, that he
for evermore should live.
- 5 In that salvation wrought by thee
his glory is made great.
Honour and comely majesty
thou hast upon him set.
- 6 Because that thou for evermore
most blessed hast him made:
And thou hast with thy countenance
made him exceeding glad.
- 7 Because the King upon the LORD
his confidence doth lay :
And though the grace of the most High,
shall not be mov'd away.
- 8 Thine hand shall all those men find out that enemies are to thee :
Eben thy right hand shall find out those of thee that haters be.
- 9 Like fire eben thou shalt them make,
when kindled is thine ire :
God shall them swallow in his wrath,
devour them shall the fire.
- 10 Their fruit from earth thou shalt destroy,
their seed men from among.
- 11 For they beyond their might, 'gainst thee
did plot mischief and wrong.
- 12 Thou therefore shalt make them turn back when thou thy shafts shalt place Upon thy strings, made ready all to flie against their face
- 13 In thy great power and strength, O LORD
be thou exalted he :

PSALM XXII.

So shall we sing with joyful hearts,
thy power praise shall we.

PSALM XXII.

My God, my God, why hast thou me forsaken? Why so far

Art thou from helping me, and from my words that roaring are?

2 All day, my God, to thee I cry,
yet am not heard by thee:

And in the season of the night,
I cannot silent be.

3 But thou art help, thou that dost inhabit Israel's praise,

4 Our fathers hop'd in thee, they hop'd,
and thou didst them release.

5 When unto thee they sent their cry,
to them deliverance came:

Because they put their trust in thee,
they were not put to shame.

6 But as for me, a worm I am,
and as no man am pris'd.

Reproach of men I am, and by the people am despis'd.

7 All that me see, laugh me to scorn;
shoot out the lips do they;

They nod and shake their heads at me,
and mocking thus do say:

8 This man did trust in God, that he would free him by his might;

Let him deliver him, for he had in him such delight.

9 But thou art he out of the womb that didst me safely take.

When I was on my mother's breasts thou me to hope didst make.

10 And I was cast upon thy care,
e'en from the womb till now:

And from my mother's belly, Lord,
my God and guide art thou.

11 Be not far off, for grief is near,
and none to help is found.

12 Bulls many compass me: strong bulls of Bashan me surround.

PSALM XXII

- 13 Their mouths they op'ned wide on mee
upon me gape did they,
Like to a lyon ravening,
and roaring for his prey.
14 Like water I'm pour'd out, my bones
all out of joint do part:
Amidst my bowels, as the wax,
so melted is my heart.
15 My strength is like a posserd dyp'd:
my tongue it cleaveth fast Unto my jaws, and to the dust
of death thou brought me hast.
16 For dogs have compass me about:
the wicked that did meet
In their assembly me inclos'd:
they pierc'd my hands and feet.
17 All my bones may tell: they do upon me look and stare.
18 Upon my vesture looke they cast,
and cloathes among them share.
19 But be not far, O Lord, my strength;
haste to give help to me.
20 From sword my soul, from pots' r of dogs
my darling set thou free.
21 Out of the roaring lyon's mouth
do thou me shield and save:
For from the horns of unicorns,
an ear to me thou gave.
22 I will shew forth thy Name unto those that my brethren are;
Amidst the Congregation,
thy praise I will declare.
23 Praise ye the Lord who do him fear, him glorifie all ye
The seed of Jacob; fear him all that Israel's children be.
24 For he despis'd not, nor abhor'd
th' afflicted's misery;
Nor from him hid his face, but heard
when he to him hid cry.
25 Within the Congregation great,
my praise shall be of mee.
My bows befoze them that him fear,

PSALM XXII.

shall be perform'd by me.

26 The meek shall eat, and shall be fill'd ;
they also praise shall give Unto the Lord, that do him seek ;
your heart shall ever live.

27 All ends of th'earth remember shall,
and turn the Lord unto :
All kindreds of the Nations
to him shall homage do.

28 Because the Kingdom to the LORD, doth appertain as his ;
Likewise among the Nations
the Governour he is.

29 Earth's fat ones eat, and worship shall,
all who to dust descend Shall bow to him ; none of them can his soul from death defend.

30 A seed shall service do to him,
unto the Lord it shall,
Be for a generation
reckin'd in ages all.

31 They shall come, and they shall declare his truth and right'ousness, Unto a people yet unborn,
and that he hath done this.

PSALM XXIII.

The Lord's my shepherd, I'll not want.

2 He makes me down to lie
In pastures green: he leadeth me
the quiet waters by.

3 My soul he doth restore again;
and me to walk doth make Within the paths of right'ousness, ev'n for his own Name sake.

4 Be it though I walk in death's dark ball,
yet will I fear none ill:
For thou art with me, and thy rod and staff me comfort still.

5 My table thou hast furnished
in presence of my foes:
My head thou dost with oil anoint,
and my cup overflows.

6 Goodness and mercy all my life,

PSALM XXIV

shall surely follow me :
And in God's house for evermore,
my dwelling place shall be.

PSALM XXIV

- The earth belongs unto the Lord
and all that it contains ;
The world that is inhabited,
and all that there remains.
3 For the foundation thereof
he on the seas did lay :
And he hath it established
upon the floods to stay.
3 Who is the man that shall ascend into the hill of God ?
Or who within his holy place
shall have a firm abode ?
4 Whose hands are clean, whose heart is pure ;
and unto vanity,
Who hath not lifted up his soul,
nor sworn deceitfully :
5 He from th' Eternal shall receive the blessing him upon ;
And righteousness ev'n from the God
of his salvation.
6 This is the generation
that after him enquire ;
O Jacob, who do seek thy face
with their whole hearts desire ;
7 Ye gates lift up your heads on high,
ye doores that last for ever,
Be lifted up, that so the King
of glory enter may.
8 But who of glory is the King ?
the mighty Lord is this ;
Ev'n that same Lord, that great in might,
and strong in battle is.
9 Ye gates, lift up your heads, ye doores, doores that do last for ever ;
Be lifted up, that so the King
of glory enter may.
10 But who is he that is the King of glory ? Who is this ?
The Lord of hosts, and none but he,

PSALM XXV.

the King of glory is.

PSALM XXV.

To thee I lift my soul:

1 O Lord I trust in thee:

My God, let me not be ashamed,
my foes triumph o'er me.

3 Let none that wait on thee,
be put to shame at all;

But those that without cause transgress,
let shame upon them fall.

4 Shew me thy ways, O Lord;
thy paths, O teach thou me,

5 And do thou lead me in thy truth,
therein my teacher be;

For thou art G O D that dost
to me salvation send:

And I upon thee all the day expecting do attend.

6 Thy tender mercies, LORD,

I pray thee to remember,
And loving-kindnesses; for they have been of old forever.

7 My sins and faults of youth,
do thou, O LORD, forget.

After thy mercy think on me,
and for thy goodness great.

8 G O D good and upright is;
the way hee'll sinners show

9 The meek in judgment he will guide, and make his paths to know.

10 The whole paths of the Lord,
are truth and mercy sure

To those that do his Covenant keep,
and testimonies pure.

11 Now for thine own Name's sake,

O LORD I thee intreat,
To pardon mine iniquity,
for it is very great.

12 What man is he that fears
the LORD, and doth him serve, Him shall he teach the way that he shall choose, and still observe.

13 His soul shall dwell at ease,

and

PSALM XXV.

and his posteritie
Shall flourish still, and of the earth inheritors shall be.

14 With those that fear him, is the secret of the LORD:
The knowledge of his Covenant,
he will to them afford.

15 Mine eyes upon the LORD
continually are set:

For it is he that shall bring forth
my feet out of the net.

16 Turn unto me thy face,
and to me mercy show;
Because that I am desolate,
and am brought very low.

17 My heart's griefs are increased,
me from distress relieve.

18 See mine affliction and my pain,
and all my sins forgive.

19 Consider thou my foes,
because they many are,
And that a cruel hatred is,
which they against me bear.

20 O do thou keep my soul,
do thou deliver me:

And let me never be ashamed,
because I trust in thee.

21 Let uprightness and truth
keep me, who thee attend.

22 Redemption, LORD, to Israel,
from all his troubles send.

Another of the same.

To thee I lift my soul, O LORD:

2 My GOD, I trust in thee:

Let me not be ashamed, let not
my foes triumph o'er me.

3 Hea, let thou none ashamed be,
that do on thee attend:

Ashamed let them be, O Lord,
who without cause offend.

4 Thy ways, Lord, shew; teach me thy paths.
lead me in truth, teach me:

5 For of my safety thou art God,

PSALM XXV

- all day I wait on thee.
6 Thy mercies that most tender are,
do thou O Lord, remember;
And loving kindnesse, for they
have been of old forever.
- 7 Let not the errors of my youth,
nor sins remembred be:
In mercy, for thy goodness sake,
O Lord, remember me.
- 8 The Lord is good, and gracious,
he upright is also:
He therefore sinners will instruct in ways that they should go.
- 9 The meek and lowly he will guide
in judgment just alway:
To meek and poor afflicted ones
hee'll clearely teach his way.
- 10 The whole paths of the Lord our God,
are truth and mercy sure,
As sure as keep his covenant,
and testimonies pure.
- 11 Now for thine own name's sake, O Lord,
I humbly thee intreat,
To pardon mine iniquities,
for it is very great.
- 12 What man fears God & him shall he teach
the way that he shall choose.
- 13 His soul shall dwell at ease, his seed
the earth as heirs shall use.
- 14 The secret of the Lord is with such as do fear his Name;
And he his help covenant,
will manifest to them,
- 15 Towards the Lord my waking eyes
continually are set:
For he it is that shall bring forth
my feet out of the net.
- 16 O turn thee unto me, O God,
have mercy me upon:
Because I sorrow am,
and in affliction.
- 17 Enlarg'd the griefs are of my heart;
me from distress relieve.

PSALM XXVI.

- 18 See mine affliction, and my pain,
and all my sins forgive.
- 19 Consider thou mine enemies,
because they many are,
And it a cruel hatred is,
which they against me bear.
- 20 O do thou keep my soul, O LORD,
do thou deliver me:
Let not me be ashamed, for I do put my trust in thee.
- 21 O let integrity and truth
keep me, who thee attend;
- 22 Redemption, LORD, to Israel,
from all his troubles send.
- PSALM XXVI.
- Judge me, O Lord, for I have walked
in mine integrity.
I trusted also in the LORD,
slide therefore shall not I.
- 2 Examine me and do me prove,
try heart and reins, O LORD;
- 3 For thy love is before mine eyes,
thy truth's paths I have tried.
- 4 With persons vain I have not sat;
nor with dissemblers gone.
- 5 The assembly of ill men I hate;
to sit with such I shun.
- 6 Mine hands in innocence, O LORD;
Thine wash and purify;
So to thine help I tar go,
and compass it will I.
- 7 That I with voice of thanksgiving,
may publish and declare,
And tell of all thy mighty works,
that great and wonderful are.
- 8 The habitation of thy house,
LORD, I have loved well:
Hence, in that place I do delight,
where both thine honoz dwell.
- 9 With firmness adhere not my soul,
and such as blood would spill:
- 10 Whose hands mischievous plots, right hands
conspiring battles do fill.

PSALM XXVII.

11 But as for me I will walk on
in mine integrity :
Do thou redeem me, and, O LORD,
be merciful to me.

12 My foot upon an even place doth stand with steadfastness :
Within the Congregation
thy Eternal I will bless.

PSALM XXVII.

THE LORD'S my light, and saving health,
who shall make me dismay'd ;

My life's strength is the LORD, of whom then shall I be afraid ?

2 Whereas mine enemies and foes
most wicked persons all,

Do eat my flesh against me rose,
they stumbled and did fall.

3 Against me though an host encamp,
my heart yet fearless is.

Though war against me rise, I will be confident in this.

4 One thing I of the LORD desir'd,
and will seek to obtain.

That all days of my life I may within God's house remain.

That I the beauty of the LORD
behold and may admire ;

And that I in his holy Place
may reverently enquire.

5 For he in his pavilion shall me hide in evil days :

In secret of his tent me hide
and on a rock me raise.

6 And now when at this present time mine head shall lifted be

Above all those that are my foes,
and round encompass me :

Therefore unto his Tabernacle thy sacrifices bring

Offerings : Thy sing ; ye I to God will praises sing.

7 O LORD, give ear unto my voice
when I do cry to thee.

PSALM XXVII

Hpon me also mercie haue,
and do thou answer me.

8 When thou didst say, seek ye my face,
then unto thee reply

Thus did my heart, Above all things,
thy face, Lord, seek will I.

9 Far from me hide not thou thy face,
put not away from thee

Thy servant in thy wrath: thou hast an helper been to me.

10 God of my salvation,
leave me not, nor forsake.

10 Though mine enemies both should leave the Lord will me up take,

11 O Lord, instruct me in thy way,
to me a leader be

In a plain path, because of those that hatred bear to me.

12 Give me not to mine enemies will;
for witnesses that lie

Against me risen are, and such as beary out cruelty.

13 I fainted had, unless that I believed had to see

The Lord's own goodness in the land of them that living be.

14 Wait on the Lord, and be thou strong,
and he shall strength affoord

Unto thine heart: yea do thou wait,
I say upon the Lord.

PSALM XXVIII.

TO thee I'll cry, O Lord, my rock,
hold not thy peace to me;

Left like those that to pit descend,
Thy silence be

2 The voice hear of my humble prayer,
when unto thee I cry:

When to thy help I call

I lift mine hands on high.

3 With ill men draw me not away,
that work iniquity:

That speak peace to their friends, whilst in their hearts they mischiefs lay.

PSALM XXIX.

4 Give them according to their deeds,
and illa endeavored:

And as their handy-works deserve,
to them be rendered.

5 God shall not build, but them destroy,
who would not understand

The Lord's own works, nor did regard the doing of his hand.

6 Forever blessed be the LORD,
for graciously he heard

The voice of my petitions, and prayers did regard.

7 The Lord's my strength & shield, my heart upon him did rely:

And I am helped: hence my heart
doth joy exceedingly.

And with my song I will him praise,
their strength is GOD alone;

8 He also is the saving strength of his anointed One.

9 O thine own people do thou save,
bless thine inheritance:

Them also do thou feed and them
for evermore advance.

PSALM XXIX.

GIVE ye unto the Lord ye songs
that of the mighty be,

All strength and glory to the LORD,
with cheerfulness give ye.

2 Unto the LORD the glory give,
that to his Name is due;

And in the beauty of holiness,
unto Jehovah bow.

3 The Lord's voice on the waters is:
the GOD of majesty

Doth thunder, and on multitudes of waters sitteth he.

4 A pow'rful voice it is that comes out from the LORD most high.

The voice of that great LORD is full of glorious majesty.

5 The voice of the Eternal doth asunder Cedars tear:

PSALM XXX.

Præ God the Lord both Cedars break
that Lebanon both beat.

6 He makes them like a calf to skip,
eb'n that great Lebanon:

And like to a young Unicorn,
the mountain Sirion.

7 God's bope divides the flames of fire,
the desert it both shake.

8 The Lord both made the wilderness
of Madag all to quake;

9 God's bope both make the bindes to talke,
it makes the forest bare:

And in his temple every one
his gloze both declare.

10 The Lord sits on the floods: the Lord sits King, and ever shall.

11 The Lord will give his people strength and with peace ble'ss them all:

PSALM XXX.

LORD, I will thee extol; for thou hast lifted me on high;

And over me, thou to rejoyce
mad'st not mine enemy.

2 O thou who art the Lord my God,
I in distress to thee,

With loud cry'st lifted up my voice,
and thou hast healed me.

3 O Lord, my soul thou hast brought by and rescu'd from the grave:

That I to pit should not go down,
alibe thou did me save.

4 O ye that are his holy ones,
sing praise unto the LORD:

And give unto him thanks, when pow
his holiness record.

5 For but a moment lasts his wrath:
life in his favour I see.

Weeping may for a night endure,
at morn both joy arise.

6 In my prosperie I said,
that nothing shall me move;

7 O Lord thou hast my mountain made to stand strong by thy love;

PSALM XXXI.

But when that thou, O gracious GOD,
didst hide thy face from me,
Then quickly was my prosperous state
turn'd unto miserie.

8 Wherefore unto the LORD my cry
I caused to ascend :

My humble supplication;
I to the Lord did send.

9 What profit is there in my blood,
when I go down to pit ?

Shall unto thee the dust give praise ?
thy truth declare shall it ?

10 Hear, Lord, have mercy, help me, Lord :
thou turned hast my sadness

11 To dancing ; yea my sackcloth loosed,
and girded me with gladness.

12 That sing thy praise my glory may,
and never silent be :

O LORD, my GOD, for evermore,
I will give thanks to thee.

PSALM XXXI.

I In thee, O LORD, I put my trust,
I ham'd let me never be :

According to thy righteousness,
do thou deliver me.

2 Bow down thine ear to me, with speed
send me deliverance.

To save me my strong Rock be thou,
and my house of defence.

3 Because thou art my Rock, and thee
I for my fortress take :

Therefore do thou me lead and guide,
ev'n for thine own Name's sake :

4 And since thou art my strength, therefore pull me out of the net,

Which they in subtilty for me
so privily have set.

5 Into thine hands I do commit my spirit : for thou art he.

O thou Jehovah ; GOD of truth,
that hast redeemed me :

6 Those that do lying vanities regard, I have abhor'd ;

PSALM XXXI.

But as for me, my confidence is fixed on the LORD.

7 I'll in thy mercy gladly say,
for thou my miseries considered hast: thou hast my soul known in adversities.

8 And thou hast not inclosed me
within the enemies hand:
And by thee have my feet been made in a large room to stand.

9 O Lord, upon me mercy have,
for trouble is on me;
Mine eyes, my belly, and my soul,
with grief consumed be.

10 Because my life with grief is spent:
my tears with sighs and groans:
My strength doth fail: and for my sin consumed are my bones.

11 I was a scorn to all my foes,
and to my friends a fear:
And specially reproach of those that were my neighbours near.
When they me saw, they from me fled;
y^en so I am forgot;

12 As men are out of mind, when dead;
I'm like a broken pot.

13 For slanders I of many heard:
fear compass me, while they Against me did consult and plot,
to take my life away.

14 But as for me, O Lord, my trust,
upon thee I did lay:
And I to thee, Thou art my God,
did confidently say.

15 My times are wholly in thine hand,
do thou deliver me
From their hands, that mine enemies and persecutors be.

16 Thy countenance to shine, do thou upon thy servant make.
Hear me give satisfaction,
for thy great mercies sake.

7 Let me not be ashamed, O LORD.

PSALM XXXII.

For on thee call'd I have.

Let wicked men be sham'd, let them
be silent in the grave.

18 To silence put the lying lips,
that grievous things do lay:
And hard rebuffs, in pride and scorn
on righteous men do lay.

19 How great's the goodness thou for them
that fear thee, keep'st in store;
And wrought'st for them that trust in thee,
the song of men before?

20 In secret of thy presence thou shalt hide them from man's pride:
From strife of tongues, thou closely shalt,
as in a rent, them hide.

21 All praise and thanks be to the Lord,
for he hath magnify'd
His marvellous love to me, within a Clasp for life.

22 For from thine eyes hid I am,
(I in my haste had said)

My hope yet heard'st thou, when to thee with eyes my moan I made.

23 O love the Lord all ye his Saints,
because the Lord doth guard
The faithful, and he plentifully proud doers doth reward.

24 Be of good courage, and he strength unto your heart shall send;
All ye whose hope and confidence
doth on the Lord depend.

PSALM XXXII.

O Blessed is the man, to whom is freely pardoned

All the transgressions he hath done,
whose sins are covered.

2 Blessed is the man to whom the Lord
imputeth not his sin;

And in whose spirit there is no guile,
nor fraud is found therein.

3 Whenas I did refrain my speech,
and silent was my tongue,

My bones then waxed old, because

PSALM XXXII.

- I roared all day long.
 4 For upon me both day and night,
 thine hand did heauy lie;
 So that my moisture turned is in summers drought thereby.
 5 I thereupon haue unto thee
 my sin acknowledged;
 And likewise mine iniquity,
 I haue not covered.
 I will confesse unto the LORD
 my trespasses, said I:
 And of my sin thou freely didst
 forgive my iniquity.
 6 For this shall euer godly one
 his prayer make to thee;
 In such a time he shall thee seek,
 as found thou mayest be:
 Surely when floods of waters great
 do swell up: & the bzim,
 They shall not overcome his soul
 nor once come near to him.
 7 Thou art a hiding place, thou shalt from trouble keep me free:
 Thou with songs of deliverance,
 about shalt compass me.
 8 I will instruct thee and thee teach,
 the way that thou shalt go,
 And with mine eye upon thee set,
 I will direction shew.
 9 Then be not like the horse or mule,
 which do not understand:
 Whose mouth, lest they come near to thee,
 a bzible must command, 10 Unto the man that wicked is,
 his sorrow shall abound:
 But him that trusteth in the LORD,
 mercy shall compass round.
 11 Be righteous in the LORD be glad,
 in him do ye reioyce.
 All ye that upright are in heart,
 for ye lift up your voice.

PSALM XXXII

- Ye Righteous in the Lord reioyce;
it cometh is and right,
That upright men with thankful voyce should praise the Lord of might.
- 2 Praise God with harp: and unto him
sing with the psalterie:
Upon a ten-string'd instrument:
make ye sweet melodie.
- 3 A new song to him sing, and play
with loud noise skilfullp.
- 4 For right is God's word, all his works are done in veritie.
- 5 To judgment and to righteousness,
a love he beareth still:
The loving-kindness of the Lord,
the earth throughout doth fill.
- 6 The heavens by the word of God,
did their beginning take:
And by the breathing of his mouth
he all their hosts did make.
- 7 The waters of the seas he bringeth
together as an heap;
And in store-houses as it were,
he layeth up the deep.
- 8 Let earth and all that live therein;
with reverence fear the Lord.
Let all the world's inhabitants adore him with one accord.
- 9 For he did speak the word, and done
it was, without delay;
Established it firmly stood,
whatever he did say.
- 10 God doth the counsel bring to nought
which Heathen folk do take;
And what the people do devise,
of none effect doth make.
- 11 O, but the counsel of the Lord
doth stand forever sure;
And of his heart the purposes,
from age to age endure.
- 12 That Nation blessed is, whose God Jehovah is: and those

PSALM XXXIV.

Blessed people are, whom for his heritage he chose.

13 The Lord from heaven sees, and beholdeth
all sons of men full well.

14 He vieth all from his dwelling place,
that in the earth do dwell.

15 He forms their hearts alike; and all their doings he obserueth.

16 Great hosta save not a king: much strength
no mighty man preserveth.

17 An horse for preservation,
is a deceitful thing;

And by the greatness of his strength,
can no deliberance bring.

18 Behold, on those that do him fear,
the Lord doth set his eye:

Ev'n those who on his mercy do with confidence rely.

19 From death to free their soul, in death life unto them to yield.

20 Our soul doth wait upon the Lord,
he is our help and shield.

21 Sith in his holy Name we trust,
our heart shall joyful be

22 Lord, let thy mercy be on us, as we do hope in thee.

PSALM XXXIV.

GOD will I bless all times: his praise
my mouth shall still express.

2 My soul shall boast in God: the meek shall hear with joyfulness.

3 Extol the Lord with me: let us
exalt his name together.

4 I sought the Lord, he heard, and did me from all fears deliver.

5 They look'd to him, and lightned were;
not shamed were their faces.

6 The poor man cry'd God heard, & sav'd him from all his distresses.

7 The Angel of the Lord encampeth, and round encompasseth

All those about that do him fear, and them delivereth.

PSALM XXXIV.

- 8 Taste and see that God is good:
who trust in him is blest.
- 9 Fear God his Saints: none that him fear shall be with want oppressed.
- 10 The sponges poung map hungry be,
and they map lack their food;
But they that trust seek the Lord,
shall not lack any good.
- 11 O children, hither do ye come,
and unto me give ear:
I shall pou teach to understand,
how ye the Lord should fear.
- 12 What man is he that life desires,
to see good would live long:
- 13 Thy lips refrain from speaking guile,
and from ill words thy tongue.
- 14 Depart from ill, do good, seek peate, pursue it earnestly.
- 15 Gods eyes are on the just, his ears
are open to their cry.
- 16 The face of God is set against
those that do wickedly.
That he map quite out from the earth
cut off their memory.
- 17 The righteous cry unto the LORD,
he unto them gives ear:
And they out of their troubles all by him delivered are.
- 18 The LORD is ever nigh to them
that he of broken spirit:
To them he safety doth afford,
that are in heart contrite.
- 19 The troubles that afflict the just,
in number many be:
But yet at length out of them all the LORD doth set them free.
- 20 He carefullly his bones doth keep,
whatsoever can befall;
That not so much as one of them
can broke be at all.
- 21 All shall the wicked slay, laid waste shall be, who hate the just.
- 22 The Lord redeems his servants souls:

PSALM XXXV.

neuer perissh that him trust.

PSALM XXXV.

Plead. Lord, with those that plead, and fight with those that fight with me.

1 Of shield and buckler take thou hold :
stand up mine help to be.

2 Draw also out the spear, and be against them stop the way

That me pursue ; unto my soul
I'm thy salvation, say.

3 Let them confounded be and sham'd,
that for my soul have sought.

Who plot my hurt, turn'd back be they,
and to confusion brought.

4 Let them be like unto the chaff,
that flies befoze the wind :

And let the Angel of the LORD
pursue them hard behind.

5 With darkness cover thou their way,
and let it slippery prove ;

pursue them from above.

6 For without cause have they for me
their net hid in a pit ;

They also have without a cause,
for my soul digged it.

7 Let ruin seize him unawares,
his net be hid withall ;

Himself let catch, and in the same destruction let him fall.

8 My soul in God shall joy, and glad in his salvation be,

9 And all my bones shall say, O LORD,
who is like unto thee ?

Which dost the poor set free from him
that is for him too strong :

The poor and needy from the man that spoils and hath him wrong.

10 False witnesses rose ; to rap charge things I not knew they laid :

11 They to the spoiling of my soul,
me ill for good repaid.

12 But as for me, when they were sick,

PSALM XXXV.

- in sack-cloth sad I mourn'd:
My humbled soul did fast, my prayer into my bosom turn'd.
- 14 My self I did behaue, as he had been my friend or brother:
I heauily bow'd down, as one that mourneth for his mother.
- 15 But in my trouble they reioy'd,
gathering themselves together;
Yea, abjects vile together did themselves against me gather:
I knew it not, they did me rear,
and quiet would not be.
- 16 With mocking hypocrites, at feasts
they gnasht their teeth at me
- 17 How long, Lord, look'st thou on? from those destructions they intend Rescue my soul, from Lyons pouncing
my darling do defend.
- 18 I will give thanks to thee, O Lord,
within thy Assembly great:
And where much people gathered are,
thy praises forth will set.
- 19 Let not my wongful enemies
proudly reioyce o'er me:
For who me hate without a cause,
let them wink with the eye.
- 20 For peace they do not speak at all,
but crafty plots prepare Against all those within the land, that meek and quiet are.
- 21 With mouths set wide, they 'gainst me said
Ha, ha! our eye doth see.
- 22 Lord, thou hast seen, hold not thy peace:
Lord, be not far from me.
- 23 Stir up thy self: walk that thou mayst judgment to me afford;
Euen to my cause, O thou that art
my only God, and Lord.
- 24 O Lord my God, do thou me judge
after thy righteousness:
And let them not their joy 'gainst me triumphantly express.

PSALM XXXVI.

25. Ho; let them say within their hearts,
As, we would have it thus.

Ho; suffer them to say, that he,
is swallow'd up by us.

26. Sham'd and confounded be they all,
that at my hurt are glad:

Let those against me that do boast,
with shame and scorn be glad.

27. Let them that love my righteous cause be glad, shout, and not cease

To say, the LORD be magnifi'd,
who loves his servants peace.

28. Thy righteousness shall also be declared by my tongue:

The praises that belong to thee,
shall speak it all day long.

PSALM XXXVI.

The wicked man's transgression,
within my heart thus says;

Undoubtedly the fear of GOD,
is not before his eyes.

2. Because himself he flattereth
in his own blinded eye;

Until the hatefulnes be found
of his iniquity.

3. Words from his mouth proceeding, are fraud and iniquity:

He to be wise, and to do good,
hath left off utterly.

4. He mischief spring in his bed,
most cunningly doth plot:

He sets himself in ways not good,
ill he abhorreth nor.

5. Thy mercy, Lord, is in the heaven:
thy truth doth reach the clouds.

6. Thy justice is like mountains great:
thy judgments deep as floods.

Lord, thou preservest men and beast,
how precious is thy grace!

7. Therefore in shadow of thy wings,
men's songs their trust shall place.

8. They with the fanners of thy house,
shall be well satisfie'd:

PSALM XXXVII.

From ribers of thy pleasures thou wilt drinke to thine pꝛobide.

9 Because of life the fountain pure remains alone with thee :

And in that purest light of thine,
we clearely light shall see.

10 Thy loving-kindness unto them
continue, that thee knowe :

And still on men upright in heart,
thy right'ousness bestow.

11 Let not the foot of cruel pride come and against me stand ;

And let me not removed be,
Lord, by the wicked's hand.

12 There fall'n are they and ruined,
that wrought iniquities :

Cast down they are, and never shall be able to arise.

PSALM XXXVII.

For evil doers fret thou not thy self unquietly :

For do thou envy bear to those that wrought iniquity.

2 For, when like unto the grass,
soon be cut down shall they :

And like the green and tender herb,
they wither shall away.

3 Set thou thy trust upon the Lord,
and be thou doing good :

And so thou in the land shalt dwell,
and verily have food.

4 Delight thy self in God, hee'll give thine hearts desire to thee,

5 Thy way to God commit, him trust,
in bying to pass shall be.

6 And like unto the light he shall thy right'ousness display :

And he thy judgment shall bying forth,
like noon-tide of the day.

7 Rest in the Lord and patiently wait for him : do not fret

For him who pꝛosp'ring in his way, success in sin doth get,

PSALM XXXVII.

8 Do thou from anger rease, and wrath
see thou forsake also:

Fret not thy self in any wise,
that evil thou should do.

9 For those that evil doers are,
shall be cut off and fall:

But those that wait upon the Lord,
the earth inherit shall.

10 For yet a little while, and then the wicked shall not be:

His place thou shalt consider well,
but it thou shalt not see.

11 But by inheritance the earth
the meek ones shall possess:

They also shall delight themselves
in an abundant peace.

12 The wicked plots against the just,
and at him whets his reech.

13 The Lord shall laugh at him, because his day he coming seeth.

14 The wicked have drawn out the sword and bent their bow to slay

The poor and needy, and to kill men of an upright way.

15 But their own sword which they have drawn,
shall enter their own heart;

Their bows which they have bent shall break,
and into pieces part.

16 A little that a just man hath,
is more and better far,

Than is the wealth of many such as lewd and wicked are.

17 For sinners arms shall broken be:
but God the just sustains.

18 God knows the just man's days, and still their heritage remains.

19 They shall not be ashamed, when they
the evil time do see:

And when the days of famine are,
they satisfied shall be.

20 But wicked men, and foes of God,
as fat of lambs decay:

They shall consume, yea unto smoke

PSALM XXXVII.

they shall consume away.

21 The wicked bozrums, but the same again he doth not pay:

Whereas the righteous mercie shewes,
and gives his own away.

22 For such as blessed be of him
the earth inherit shall:

And they that cursed are of him,
shall be destroyed all.

23 A good man's foot-steps by the Lord,
are ordered aright:

And in the way wherein he walkes,
he greatly doth delight.

24 Although he fall, yet shall he not be cast down utterly:

Because the Lord with his own hand,
upholds him mightily.

25 I have been young, and now am old,
yet have I never seen

The just man left, nor that his seed for bread have beggars been.

26 He's ever merciful, and lends:
his seed is blest therefore.

27 Depart from evil, and do good,
and dwell for evermore.

28 For God loves judgment, and his saints
leaves not in any case;

They are kept ever: but cut off
shall be the sinners race.

29 The just inherit shall the land,
and ever in it dwell.

30 The just man's mouth doth wisdom speak,
his tongue doth judgment tell;

31 In's heart the law is of his God,
his steps slide not away.

32 The wicked man doth watch the just,
and seeketh him to slay.

33 Yet him the LORD will not forsake,
nor leave him in his hands:

The righteous will he not condemn,
when he in judgment stands.

34 Wait on the Lord, and keep his way,
and thou shalt be exalted.

PSALM XXXVII.

Th'earth to inherit, when cut off
the wicked thou shalt see.

35 I saw the wicked great in power,
spread like a green bay tree:

36 He pass, pea was not, him I sought,
but found he could not be.

37 Mark thou the perfect, and behold
the man of uprightness;

Because that surely of this man,
the latter end is peace.

38 But those men that transgressors are,
shall be destroy'd together;

The latter end of wicked men,
shall be cut off forever.

39 But the salvation of the just,
is from the LORD above:

He in the time of their distress,
their stay and strength both prove.

40 The LORD shall help, and them deliver,
he shall them free, and save

From wicked men, because in him their confidence they have.

PSALM XXXVIII.

I thy great indignation,

O LORD, rebuke me not:

For on me lay thy chastening hand
in thy displeasure hot.

2 For in me fast thine arrows stick,
thine hand doth press me sore.

3 And in my flesh there is no health,
nor soundness any more.

This grief I have because thy wrath
is sort against me gone:

And in my bones there is no rest,
for sin that I have done.

4 Because gone up above my head,
my great transgressions be;

And as a weighty burden, they too heavy are for me.

My wounds do stink, and are corrupt:
my soul makes it so,

6 I troubled am, and much bow'd down;
all day I mourning go.

PSALM XXXVIII.

- 5 For a disease that loathsome is,
so fills my loins with pain,
That in my weak and wearie flesh
no soundness doth remain.
- 6 So feeble and infirm am I,
and broken am so sore,
That through disquiet of my heart,
I have been made to roar.
- 7 O LORD, all that I do desire,
is still before thine eye:
And of my heart, the secret groans,
not hidden are from thee.
- 8 My heart doth pant incessantly,
my strength doth quite decay:
As for mine eyes, their worried light is from me gone away.
- 9 My lovers and my friends do stand
at distance from my sore:
And those do stand aloof, that were
kins-men, and kind before.
- 10 Yea, they that seek my life, lay snares:
who seek to do me wrong;
Speak things mischievous, and deceitful
imagin all day long.
- 11 But as one deaf, that heareth not,
I suffer'd all to pass:
I as a dumb man did become,
whose mouth not open'd was.
- 12 As one that hears not, in whose mouth
are no reproofs at all.
- 13 For LORD, I hope in thee, my GOD:
thou'lt hear me when I call.
- 14 For I said, Hear me, lest they should
rejoyce o'er me with pride:
And o'er me magnifie themselves,
whenas my foot doth slide.
- 15 For I am near to halt, my grief
is still before mine eye.
- 16 For I'll declare my sin, and grieve
for mine iniquity.
- 17 O LORD, mine enemies' help are,
and strong are they beside:
And they that hate me wrongfully.

PSALM XXXIX.

are greatly multiply'd.

10 And they for good that render ill;
an en'mies me withstood:
Yea, ev'n for this, because that I do follow what is good.

11 Forsake me not, O Lord, my GOD;
far from me never be.

12 O LORD, thou my salvation art;
haste to give help to me.

PSALM XXXIX.

I Said, I will look to my ways,
lest with my tongue I sin:

In sight of wicked men my mouth with my bzible I'll keep in.

1 With silence, I as dumb became;
I did my self restrain

From speaking good, but then the more increased was my pain.

3 My heart within me waxed hot,
and while I musing was,
The fire did burn, and from my tongue
these words I did let pass,

4 Mine end and measure of my days,
O LORD, unto me shew,
What is the same; that I thereby
my frailty well may know.

5 O thou my days an hand-breadth mad'st
mine age is in thine eye
As nothing: sure, each man at best,
is whollip vanis.

6 Sure, each man walks in a vain shew;
they vex themselves in vain:
He heaps up wealth, and doth not know
to whom it shall pertain.

7 And now O Lord, what wait I for?
my hope is fixt on thee.

8 Free me from all my trespasses:
the fools scorn make not me.

9 Dumb was I, op'ning not my mouth,
because this work was thine.

10 Thy stroke take from me: by the blow
of thine hand I do pine.

11 When with rebukes thou dost correct

PSALM XL.

man, for iniquity;

Thou wastest his beauty like a moth:
sure each man's vanity.

12 Attend my cry, Lord; at my tears and pray'rs not silent be:

I sojourn as my fathers all and stranger am with thee.

13 O spare thou me, that I my strength recover may again;

Before from hence I do depart,
and here no more I remain.

PSALM XL

I waited for the LORD, my GOD,
and patiently did bear:

At length to me he did incline,
my voice and cry to hear

2 He took me from a fearful pit,
and from the miry clay:

And on a rock he set my feet,
establishing my way.

3 He put a new song in my mouth,
our GOD to magnify:

Many shall see it, and shall fear,
and on the LORD rely.

4 Blessed is the man whose trust
upon the Lord relies:

Respecting not the proud, nor such as turn aside to lies.

5 O Lord, my God full many are the wonders thou hast done:

Thy gracious thoughts to us-ward far above all thoughts are gone,

In order none can reckon them
to thee: if them declare,

And speak of them I would, they more than can be numbered are.

6 No sacrifice nor offering,
didst thou at all desire:

Thine eyes thou lov'dst; sin offering thou,
and burnt did not require.

7 Then to the Lord these were my words,
I come, behold, and see:

Within the volume of thy book

PSALM XL

It written is of me :

- 8 To do thy will I take delight,
O thou, my GOD, that art :
Hea. that most holy law of thine
I have within my heart.
- 9 Within the Congregation great,
I righteousness did preach:
Lo, thou dost know, O LORD, that I refrained not my speech.
- 10 I never did within my heart
conceal thy righteousness :
I thy salvation have declar'd,
and shewn thy faithfulness,
Thy kindness which most loving is,
concealed have not I;
For from the Congregation great have hid thy verity.
- 11 Thy tender mercies, LORD from me
O do thou not restrain :
Thy loving-kindness, and thy truth,
let them me still maintain.
- 12 For ill's past reck'ning compass me,
and mine iniquities,
Such hold upon me taken have
I cannot lift mine eyes.
- Thy more than hairs are on my head,
thence is my heart dismay'd ;
- 13 Be pleased LORD, to rescue me :
LORD, hasten to mine aid :
- 14 Sham'd and confounded be they all
that seek my soul to kill :
Hea. let them backward driven be,
and sham'd that wish me ill.
- 15 For a reward of this their shame,
confounded let them be,
That in this manner scoffing say,
Aha, aha, to me.
- 16 In thee let all be glad and joy,
who seeking thee abide,
Who thy salvation love, say still,
the Lord be magnify'd.
- 17 I'm poor and needy, yet the Lord
of me a care doth take.

PSALM XLII.

Thou art my help and Saviour :
my God, no tarrying make.

PSALM XLII.

Blessed is he that wisely doth
the poore man's case consider ;
For when the time of trouble is,
the Lord will him deliver.

2 God will him keep, yea save albes ;
on earth he blest shall live ;

And to his enemies desire,
thou wilt him not up-give.

3 God will give strength when he on bed
of languishing doth mourn :

And in his sickness soze, O LORD,
thou all his bed wilt turn.

4 I said, O LORD, do thou extend thy mercy unto me.

O do thou heal my soul ; for why ?
I have offended thee.

5 Those that to me are enemies,
of me do evil say :

When shall he die, that so his name
may perish quite away ?

6 To see me, if he comes, he speaks vain words ; but then his heart heaps mischief to it, which he tells when forth he doth depart.

7 My haters joyntly whispering, 'gainst me my hurt devise.

8 Mischief, say they, cleaves fast to him,
he lyes and shall not rise.

9 Yea, ev'n mine own familiar friend,
on whom I did rely ;

Who ate my bread, ev'n he his heel
against me lifted up.

10 But LORD, be merciful to me,
and up again me raise.

That I may justly them requite,
according to their ways.

11 By this I know, that certainly
I favour'd am by thee ;

Because my hateful enemy
triumphs not over me.

PSALM XLII.

1. But as for me thou me uphold'st
in mine integrity :

And me before thy countenance
thou sett'st continually,

2. The LORD, the GOD of Israel, be blest forever then ;
from age to age eternally,
Amen, pea, and Amen.

PSALM XLII.

L Ike as the Hart for water brooks,
in thirst doth pant and bzap.

So pants my longing soul, O GOD,
that come to thee I map.

2 My soul for GOD, the living GOD, doth thirst, when shall I near Unto thy countenance approach,
and in God's sight appear.

3 My tears have unto me been meat,
both in the night and day :

While unto me continually,
where is thy God ? they say.

4 My soul is poured out in me,
when this I think upon ;
Because that with the multitude,
I heretofore had gone.

With them into God's house I went,
with voice of joy and praise ;

Pea, with the multitude, that kept the solemn holp dapes.

5 O why art thou cast down, my soul ?
why in me so dismayd ?

Trust God, for I shall praise him yet,
his count'nance is mine aid.

6 My God, my soul's cast down in me ;
thee therefore mind I will

From Jordan's land, the Hermonites, and ev'n from Mizar hill.

7 At the noise of thy water spouts, deep unto deep doth call.

Thy speaking waves pass over me,
pea, and thy billows all.

8 His loving-kindness per the LORD's command will in the day,

PSALM XLIII.

His songs with me by night; to God,
by whom I live, I'll praise.

9 And I will say to God my Rock,
why me forgett'st thou so?

Why for my foes oppression,
thus mourning do I go?

10 'Tis as a sword within my bones,
when my foes me upbraid:

Ev'n when by them, Where is thy God?
His dapple to me said.

11 O why art thou cast down, my soul?
why thus with grief oppress'd,

Hast thou disquieted in me?
in God still hope and rest.

For yet I know I shall him praise,
who graciously to me,

The health is of my countenance;
yea, mine own God is he.

PSALM XLIII.

Judge me, O God, and plead my cause,
against this ungodly Nation:

From the unjust and crafty man,
O be thou my salvation.

2 For thou the God art of my strength,
why trust'st thou me thee so?

For thy enemies oppression,
why do I mourning go?

3 O send thy light forth, and thy truth,
let them be guides to me:

And bring me to thine holy Hill,
ev'n where thy dwellings be.

4 Then will I to God's Altar go,
to God my chiefest joy:

Yea God, my God, thy Name to praise
my harp I will implore.

5 Why art thou then cast down, my soul?
what should discourage thee?

And why with heaving thoughts art thou disquieted in me?

Still trust in God, for him to praise,
good cause I yet shall have:

He of my countenance is the health:
my God that doth me save.

- O GOD, we with our ears have heard,
our fathers have us told,
What wozks thou in their dayes hast done,
eb'n in the dayes of old.
- 2 Thy hand did dzybe the heathen out,
and plant them in their place,
Thou didst afflict the Nations;
but them thou didst increase.
- 3 For neither got their swozd the land;
noz did their arm them save:
But thy right hand, arm, rouncenance;
for thou them favour gave.
- 4 Thou art my King: for Jacob, LORD,
deliberances command.
- 5 Thzough thee we shall push down our foes,
that do against us stand.
- We thzough thy name shall tread down those that risen 'gainst us have.
- 6 For in my bow I shall not trust,
noz shall my swozd me save.
- 7 But from our foes thou hast us sab'd,
our haters put to shame.
- 8 In God we all the day do boast,
and eber pzaise thy Name.
- 9 But now we are cast off by thee,
and us thou puttst to shame:
And wt en our armies do go forth,
thou go'st not with the same.
- 10 Thou mak'st us from the enemy
faint-hearted to turn back:
And they who hate us, for themselves
our spoils awap do take.
- 11 Like sheep for meat thou gabeft us:
'mong Heathen cast we be.
- 12 Thou didst for nought thy people sell,
their pzice ericht not thee.
- 13 Thou mak'st us a reproach to be unto our neighbours near:
Derision. and a scorn to them that round about us are.
- 14 A by-wozd also thou dost us
among the Heathen make;
The people in contempt and soite,

PSALM XLV.

- at us their heads do shake.
 25 Before me my confusion continually abides:
 And of my bashful countenance,
 the shame me ever hides.
 26 For voice of him that doth reproach,
 and speaketh blasphemy:
 By reason of th' avenging foe,
 and cruel enemy.
 27 All this is come on us, yet we have not forgotten thee,
 For false in thy Covenant
 behav'd our selves have we.
 28 Back from thy way our heart not turn'd,
 our steps no straying made.
 29 Though us thou b'eat'st in dragons place,
 and cover'st with scaly's shade.
 30 If we God's name forget, or stretch
 to a strange God our hands, 31 Shall not God search this out, for he hearts secrets understands?
 32 Hea, for thy sake we're kill'd all day:
 counted as slaughter sheep.
 33 Rise, O LORD, cast us not ever off:
 awake, wip dost thou sleep:
 34 Wherefore hidest thou thy face,
 forget'st our case distress?
 35 And our oppression? for our soul
 is to the dust down prest.
 Our helpe also on the earth
 fast cleaving, hold doth take.
 36 Rise for our help, and us redeem,
 ev'n for thy mercies sake.

PSALM XLV.

- My heart brings forth a goodly thing:
 my words that I endite, Concern the King: my tongue's a pen
 of one that swift doth write.
 2 Thou fairer art than sons of men:
 into thy lips is grace
 Of grace infused: God therefore thee
 hath blest forevermore.
 3 O thou that art the mighty one,

PSALM XLV.

- thy sword gird on thy thigh :
 On with thy glorie excellent,
 and with thy majestie,
 4 For meekness, truth and righteousness,
 in state ride prosperouslie :
 And thy right hand shall thee instruct in things that fearful be.
 5 Thine arrows sharply pierce the hearts of thy enemies of the king :
 And under thy subjection
 the people down to bring,
 6 Forever and forever is.
 O God, thy throne of might ;
 The scepter of thy kingdom is a scepter that is right.
 7 Thou lovest right, and hatest ill :
 for God thy God most hie.
 Above thy fellows, path with thy oyle
 of joy anointed thee.
 8 Of Siloes, Myrrhe and Cassia,
 a smell thy garments had,
 Out of thy ivory palaces,
 whereby they made thee glad ;
 9 Among thy women honourable,
 Kings daughters were at hand :
 Upon thy right hand did the Queen in gold of Opher stand.
 10 O daughter hearken and regard,
 and do thine ear incline :
 Likewise forget thy father's house,
 and people that are thine.
 11 Then of the king desired shall be thy beauty vehemently ;
 Because he is thy Lord do thou him worship reverently.
 12 The daughter there of Tyre shall be with gifts and offerings great.
 Those of the people that are rich thy favour shall inreat.
 13 Behold the Daughter of the King,
 all glorious is within ;
 And with embzoideries of gold,
 her garments wrought have bin.

PSALM XLV.

14 She shall be brought unto the King,
in robes with needle wrought;
Her fellows virgins following,
shall unto thee be brought.

15 They shall be brought with gladness great,
and mirth on every side,
Into the palace of the King,
and there they shall abide.

16 Instead of those thy fathers bear,
thy children thou mayest take,
And in all places of the earth,
them noble Princes make.

17 Thy Name remembred I will make through ages all to be:
The people therefore evermore
shall praises give to thee.

Another of the same.

My heart inditing is,
good matter in a song:
I speak the things that I have made,
which to the King belong.
My tongue shall be as quick,
his honor to indite,
As is the pen of any Scribe,
that useth fast to write.

2 Thou'rt fairest of all men,
grace in thy lips doth flow;
And therefore blessings evermore
on thee doth GOD bestow.

3 Thy sword gird on thy thigh,
thou that art most of might:
Appear in dreadful majesty,
and in thy glory bright.

4 For meekness, truth and right,
ride prosperously in state:
And thy right hand shall reach to thee,
things terrible and great.

5 Thy shafts shall pierce their hearts,
that foes are to the King;
Whereby into subjection,
the people thou shalt bring.

6 Thy royal seat, GOD,
forever shall remain;

PSALM XLV.

The scepter of thy Kingdom both all righteousness maintain

7 Thou lovest right, and hatest ill;
for GOD, thy GOD most ble.
Above thy fellows, early with thy oil
of joy anointed thee.

8 Of Mirrh and spices sweet,
a smell thy garments had:
Out of thy ivory palaces
whereby they made thee glad.

9 And in thy glorious train.
Kings daughters waiting stand;
And thy fair Queen in Purple gold:
both stand at thy right hand.

10 O daughter, take good heed,
incline, and give good ear:
Thou must forget thy kindred all,
and fathers' house most dear.

11 Thy beauty to the King, shall then delightful be:
And do thou humbly worship him,
because thy LORD is he:

12 The daughter then of Tire,
there with a gift shall be:
And all the wealthie of the land shall make their sute to thee.

13 The daughter of the King
all glorious is within;
And with embzoideries of gold,
her garments wrought have bin.

14 She cometh to the King
in robes of needle wrought;
The virgins that do follow her,
shall with her be brought.

15 They shall be brought with joy and mirth on ev'ry side
Into the palace of the King,
and there they shall abide.

16 And in thy father's stead,
thy children thou mayst take;
And in all places of the earth,
them noble Princes make.

17 I will shew forth thy Name

PSALM XLVI.

to generations all :
Therefore thy people evermore
to thee give praises shall.

PSALM XLVI.

GOD is our refuge and our strength,
in straits a present aid:

1 Therefore although the earth remove,
we will not be afraid:

Although hills amidst the sea be cast,
though waters roaring make,

3 And troubled be: yea, though the hills
by swelling seas do shake.

4 A river is, whose streams do glad
the City of our GOD:

The holy Place, wherein the LORD
most high hath his abode,

5 GOD in the midst of her doth dwell, nothing shall her remove:

The LORD to her an helper will,
and that right earily prove.

6 The Heathen rag'd tumultuously,
the kingdoms moved were:

The LORD GOD uttered his voice,
the earth did melt for fear.

7 The LORD of hosts upon our side,
doth constantly remain:

The GOD of Jacob's our refuge,
us safely to maintain.

8 Come and behold what wondrous works have by the LORD been wrought;

Come see what desolations
he on the earth hath brought.

9 Unto the end of all the earth
wars into peace he turns:

The bow he breaks, the spear he cures,
in fire the chariot burns.

10 Be still, and know that I am GOD;
among the Heathen I will be exalted; I on earth will be exalted up.

11 Our God, who is the LORD of hosts,
is still upon our side:

The GOD of Jacob our refuge,

PSALM XLVII.

Soberber will abide.

PSALM XLVII.

All people clap your hands to GO,
with voice of triumph shout.

1 For dreadfull is the LO most high, great King the earth throughout,

2 The heathen people under us,
he surely shall subdue:

And he shall make the Nations
under our feet to bow.

3 The lot of our inheritance, chose out for us shall be;

Of Jacob whom he loved well;
eb'n the excellencie.

4 God is with shouts gone up, the LO;
with trumpets sounding his:

5 Sing praise to God, sing praise, sing praise;
praise to our King sing ye:

6 For God is King of all the earth:
with knowledge praise express.

7 God rules the Nations, God sits on his throne of holiness.

8 The Princes of the people are assembled willingly:

Eb'n of the God of Abraham,
they who the people be.

For whp the shields that do defend,
the earth, are only his:

They to the Lord belong, yea he exalted greatly is.

PSALM XLVIII.

Great is the LO, and greatly he is to be praised still;

Within the City of our God,
upon his holy Hill,

1 Mount Zion stands most beautiful
the top of all the land:

The City of the mighty King
on her north side doth stand.

2 The Lord within her palaces, is for a refuge known.

3 For so, the Kings that gather'd were together by have gone.

PSALM XLIX.

- 5 But when they did behold the same,
they wond'ring would not stay:
But being troubled at the sight,
they thence did haste away.
- 6 Great terror there took hold on them,
they were poss't with fear:
Their grief came like a woman's pain,
when she a child doth bear.
- 7 Thou T'arshish ships with east wind break'st,
as we have heard it told:
- 8 So in the City of the LORD
our eyes did it behold.
- In our God's City, which his hand forever stablish will;
- 9 We of thy loving-kindness thought,
LORD, in thy Temple still.
- 10 O LORD, according to thy Name,
through all the earth's thy praise;
And thy right hand, O LORD, is full of righteousness alwayes.
- 11 Because thy judgments are made known,
let Zion's mount rejoyce:
Of Judah, let the daughters all,
send forth a cheerful voice.
- 12 Walk about Zion, and go round;
the high tow'rs thereof tell:
- 13 Consider ye her palaces,
and mark her bulwarks well,
That ye may tell posterity;
for this God doth abide
- 14 Our God for evermore: he will eb'n unto death us guide.

PSALM XLIX.

- Hear this all people, and gibe ear
all in the world that dwell:
- 2 Both low and high both rich and poore;
my mouth shall wisdom tell.
- 3 My heart shall knowledge meditate,
I will incline mine ear
- 4 To parables, and on the harp
my sayings dark declare.
- 5 Amidst those dapes that evil be,
whyp should I, fearing, doubt;

PSALM XLIX.

- When of my heels th' iniquity shall compass me about ?
6 Whoe're they be that in their wealth
their confidence do pitch,
And boast themselves, because they are become exceeding rich :
7 Yet none of these his brother can redeem by any man ;
Nor can he unto God for him sufficient ransom pay.
8 (Their souls redemption precious is,
and it can never be) 9 That still he should for ever live,
and not corruption see.
10 For why, he seeth that wise men die,
and brutish fools also do perish ; and their wealth, when dead,
to others they let go.
11 Their inward thought is, that their house and dwelling places shall stand through all ages, they their lands
by their own names do call, 12 But yet in honour shall not man abide continually ;
But passing hence, may be compar'd unto the beasts that dye.
13 Thus brutish folly plainly is their wisdom, and their way ;
Yet their posterity approve
what they do fondly say.
14 Like sheep they in the grave are laid,
and death shall them devour :
And in the morning, upright men shall over them have power.
Their beauty from their dwelling shall consume within the grave.
15 But from hell's hand God will me free ;
for he shall me receive.
16 Be thou not then afraid, when one enriched thou dost see ;
Nor when the glory of his house adorned is on thee.
17 For he shall carry nothing hence

when

PSALM L.

when death his days doth end;
Nor shall his glozp after him,
into the grave descend.

18 Although he his own soul did bless whilst he on earth did live,
And when thou to thy self dost well (men will thee praises give)

19 He to his fathers race shall go,
they never shall see light.

20 Man honoꝝ'd wanting knowledge is like beasts that perish quire.

PSALM L.

The mighty GOD, the LORD,
hath spoken, and did call
The earth, from rising of the Sun,
to where he hath his fall,

2 From out of Sion hill, whitch of excellency
And beauty the perfection is;
GOD shined gloriously.

3 Our GOD shall surely come;
keep silence shall not be.
Besoze him fire shall waste; great storms shall round about him be.

4 Unto the heavens clear,
he from above shall call;
And to the earth likewise, that he may judge his people all.

5 Together let my Saints unto me gath'ed be;
Those that by sacrifice have made a Covenant with me,

6 And then the heavens shall his right'ousness declare.
Because the LORD himself is he
by whom men judged are.

7 My people, Israel, hear,
speak will I from on high:
Against thee I will resistie:
God, ev'n thy God am I.

8 I for thy sacrifice
no blame will on thee lay;
Nor for burnt offerings, which to me

PSALM L.

thou offeredst eb'ry day

9 I'll take no calf, nor goats,
from house or fold of thine :

10 For beasts of forests, cattle all
on thou and hills are mine,

11 The fowls on mountains high,
are all to me well known :

And beasts which in the fields do lie,
ev'n they are all mine own.

12 Then if I hungry were,
I would not tell it thee ;

Because the world, and fulness all thereof belongs to me.

13 Will I eat flesh of bulls,
or goats blood drink will I ?

14 Thanks offer thou to God, and pay thy vows to the most high.

15 And call upon me, when in trouble thou shalt be :

I will deliver thee : and thou
my Name shalt glorifie.

16 But to the wicked man,

God saith, Map lams and truth

Should'st thou declare ; how dar'st thou take my God's name in thy mouth.

17 Sith thou instruction have'st,
which should thy ways direct :

And sith my words behind thy back thou casts, and dost reject.

18 When thou a thief didst see,
with him thou didst consent ;

And with the vile adulterers partaker on thou went.

19 Thou giv'st thy mouth to sin,
thy tongue deceit doth frame :

20 Thou sit'st, and gapest thy brother speak'st,
thy mother's son dost shame.

21 Because I silence kept,

while thou these things hast wrought ;

That I was altogether like thy self, hath been thy thought.

Yet I will thee reprove,

and set before thine eyes

PSALM L.

they never shall see light.

like beasts that perish quite.

PSALM L.

THe mighty GOD, the LORD,
hath spoken, and did call
The earth, from rising of the Sun,
to where he hath his fall,

which of excellency
And beaur the perfection is;
GOD shined glorioufly.

- Yet I will thee reprove,
 and set before thine eyes

PSALM L.

In order ranked thy misdeeds,
and thine iniquities.

21 How ye that GOD forget,
this carefully consider:

Lest I in pieces tear you all,
and none can you deliver.

22 Whoso doth offer praise, me glorifies; and I will shew him GOD's salvation that orders right his way.

Another of the same.

I We mighty GOD, the Lord hath spoke,
and call'd the earth upon;
Ev'n from the rising of the Sun,
unto his going down.

2 From out of Sion, his own hill,
where the perfection by
Of beauty is, from thence the LORD
hath shined gloriously.

3 Our GOD shall come, and shall no more
be silent, but speak out:
Before him fire shall mass, great flames shall compass him about.

4 He to the heavens from above,
and to the earth below,
shall call, that he his judgment may before his people shew.

5 Let all my Saints together be unto me gathered;
Those that by sacrifice with me
a Covenant have made.

6 And when the heavens shall declare his righteousness abroad:
Because the Lord himself doth come,
none else is Judge but GOD.

7 Hear, O my people, and I'll speak,
O Israel by name:
Against thee I will testify.
GOD, ev'n thy GOD I am.

8 I, for thy sacrifices few,
reprove thee never will,
Nor for burnt-offerings to have been before me offered still.

PSALM L.

- 9 I'll take no bullock, nor hee-goats
from house, nor folds of thine :
- 10 For beasts of forests, carrel all on thousand hills are mine.
- 11 The fowls are all to me well known that mountains high do pleid ;
And I do challenge as mine own,
the wild beasts of the field.
- 12 If I were hungry, I would not to thee for need complain ;
For earth, and all its fulness, doth
to me of right pertain.
- 13 That I to eat the flesh of bulls
take pleasure, dost thou think ?
Or that I need to quench my thirst,
the blood of goats to drink ?
- 14 Nay, rather unto me thy G O D,
thanksgiving offer thou :
To the most High perform thy word,
and fulfil pay thy vow.
- 15 And in the day of trouble great,
see that thou call on me ;
I will deliver thee, and thou
my Name shalt glorifie.
- 16 But God unto the wicked saith,
why should'st thou mention make
Of my commands ? how dar'st thou in thy mouth my Con'nant take ?
- 17 Sith it is so that thou dost hate
all good instruction :
And st'st thou cast'st behind thy back,
and slights my words each one.
- 18 When thou a thief didst see, then straight thou soynt'st with him in sin ;
And with the vile adulterers,
thou hast partaker bin.
- 19 Thy mouth to evil thou dost give,
thy tongue deceit doth frame :
- 20 Thou st'st, and 'gainst thy brother speak'st
thy mother's son to shame.
- 21 These things thou wickedly hast done,
and I have silent bin :
Thou thought that I was like thy self,

PSALM LI.

and did approue thy sin:
But I will sharply thee reprove.
And I will order right,
Thy sins and thy transgressions
in presence of thy sight.

- 21 Consider this and be afraid,
lest thou forget the Lord:
Lest I in pieces tear thou all,
when none can help afford.
22 Who offereth praise, me glorifies:
I will shew God's salvation
To him that ordereth aright
his life and conversation.

PSALM LI.

After thy loving-kindness, Lord,
have mercy upon me:
For thy compassions great blot out
all mine iniquities.

- 2 Me cleanse from sin, and thoroughly wash
from mine iniquity.
3 For my transgressions, I confess,
my sin I ever see.
4 'Gainst thee, thee only have I sinn'd,
in thy sight done this ill,
That when thou speak'st thou may'st be just
and clear in judging still.
5 Behold, I in iniquity, was form'd the womb within;
My mother also me conceiv'd
in guiltiness and sin.
6 Behold thou to the inward parts
with truth delighted art;
And wisdom thou shalt make me know
within the hidden part.
7 Do thou with hyssop sprinkle me,
I shall be cleansed so;
Plea, wash thou me, and then I shall be whiter than the snow.
8 Of gladness and of joyfulness,
make me to hear the voice
That so these very bones which thou hast broken, may rejoice.
9 All mine iniquities blot out,

PSALM LII.

thy face hide from my sin.

10 Create a clean heart: Lord, renew a right sp'rit me within.

11 Cast me not from thy sight, nor take thy holy Sp'rit away.

12 Restore me thy salvation's joy;
with thy free Sp'rit me fill,

13 Then will I reach thy ways unto those that transgressors be;
And those that sinners are, shall then be turned unto thee.

14 O LORD, of my salvation O LORD, me from blood-guiltiness Set free: then shall my tongue aloud
sing of thy righteousness.

15 My closed lips, O LORD, by thee
let them be opened:
Then shall thy praises by my mouth abroad be published.

16 For thou desirest not sacrifice,
else would I give it thee;
Nor wilt thou with burnt-offerings
at all delighted be.

17 A broken spirit is to O LORD
a pleasing sacrifice:

A broken and a contrite heart,
LORD, thou wilt not despise.

18 Show kindness and do good, O Lord,
to Zion thine own Hill;
The walls of thy Jerusalem build up of thy good will.

19 Then righteous offerings shall thee please,
and offerings burnt, which they,
With whole burnt offerings and with calves,
shall on thine Altar lay.

PSALM LII.

What dost thou boast, O mighty man,
of mischief and of ill?

The goodness of Almighty O LORD, endureth ever still.

1 Thy tongue mischievous calumnies
deviseth subtilty.

Like to a razor sharp to cut.

PSALM. LIII.

working deceitfullp.

- 3 Till more than good and more than truth
thou lovest to speak wrong ;
- 4 Thou lovest all debouring words ,
O thou deceitful tongue.
- 5 So GOD shall thee destroy for ap .
remove thee , pluck thee out Quite from thy house , out of the land of life he shall thee root.
- 6 The righteous shall it see , and fear ,
and laugh at him they shall :
- 7 Lo , this the man is that did not make GOD his strength at all :
But he in his abundant wealth ,
his confidence did place ;
And he took strength unto himself ,
from his own wickedness .
- 8 But I am in the house of GOD ,
like to an olive green ;
My confidence for ever hath upon God's mercy been .
- 9 And I for ever will thee praise ,
because thou hast done this :
I on thy Name will wait , for good before thy Saints it is .

PSALM LIII.

- That there is not a GOD the fool
both in his heart conclude :
They are corrupt ; their works are vile ;
not one of them both good .
- 2 The LORD upon the sons of men ,
from heav'n did cast his eyes :
To see if any one there was that sought God , and was wise .
 - 3 They altogether filthy are ,
they all are backward gone ;
And there is none that both good ,
no , not so much as one .
 - 4 These workers of iniquity ,
do they not know at all ,
That they my people eat as bread ,
and on God do not call .
 - 5 Ee'n there they were afraid , and stood

PSALM LIV. LV.

With trembling all dismayd;
Whereas there was no cause at all,
Why they should be afraid:
For GOD his bones that they besieged,
Hath scatter'd all abroad:
Thou hast confounded them: for they Despised are of GOD.

6 Let Israels help from Zion come,
When back the LORD shall bring
His captives. Jacob shall rejoice,
And Israel shall sing.

PSALM LIV.

Save me, O GOD, by thy great Name;
And judge me by thy strength.

2 My prayer hear, O GOD, give ear
Unto my words at length.

3 For they that strangers are to me
Do up against me rise;

Oppressors seek my soul, and God
Set not before their eyes.

4 The LORD, my God, my helper is;
So, therefore I am bold:

He taketh part with every one,
That doth my soul uphold.

5 Unto mine enemies he shall Mischief and ill repay,

O for thy truth's sake, cut them off,
And sweep them clean away.

6 I will a sacrifice to thee
Give, with free willingness:

Thy Name, O LORD, because it's good,
With praise I will confess:

7 For he hath me delivered
From all adversities;

And his desire mine eye hath seen
Upon mine enemies.

PSALM LV.

LORD, hear my prayer: hide not thy self
From my intreating voice.

2 Attend, and hear me; in my plaint
I mourn, and make a noise.

3 Because of th' enemies voice, and for Loud mens oppression great,

PSALM LV.

On me they cast iniquity,
and they in wrath me hate.

4 Soze pain'd within me is my heart,
death's terrozs on me fall.

5 On me comes trembling, fear and dread
o'rewhelmed me withal.

6 O that I like a dove had wings,
said I, then would I flee

Far hence, that I might find a place where I in rest might be.

7 No then far off I wander would,
and in the desert flap;

8 From windy storm and tempest, I would haste to scape away.

9 O LORD, on them destruction bring,
and do their tongues divide;

For in the Cirp violence,
and strife I have espy'd.

10 They day and night upon the walls
do go about it round:

There mischief is. and sorrow there
in midst of it is found:

11 Abundant wickedness there is within her inward part;

And from her streets, deceitfulness
and guile do not depart.

12 He was no foe that me reproach'd,
then that endure I could:

For hater that did 'gainst me boast,
for him me hide I would.

13 But thou man, my mine equal, guide,
and mine acquaintance most:

14 Whose joy'd sweet counsels, to God's house
in company we past

15 Let death upon them seize, and down
let them go quick to hell;

For wickedness hath much abound
among them where they dwell

16 I'll call on God. God will me save;
I'll pray, and make a noise.

17 Strengthening, morning, and at noon,
and he shall hear my voice.

18 He hath my soul delivered,

PSALM LVI.

that it in peace might be :
from battel that against me was.
for many were with me .

9 The LORD shall hear , and them afflict ;
of old who hath abode :
because they never changes have ,
therefore they fear not God .

10 'Gainst those that were at peace with him
he hath put forth his hand :

The Covenant that he had made ,
by breaking he prophane'd .

11 More smooth than butter were his words ,
while in his heart was war ;
his speeches were more soft than oyl ,
and perdition swords they are .

12 Cast thou thy burden on the LORD ,
and he shall thee sustain :

Yea , he shall cause the righteous man
unmoued to remain .

13 But thou , O Lord , my God , those men
in justice shalt o'rethow ,
And in destruction's dungeon dark
at last shalt lay them low .

The bloody and deceitful men
shall not liue half their daies ;

But upon thee with confidence
I will depend alwaies .

PSALM LVI.

Shew mercy , LORD , to me : for man
would swallow me out-right ;

He me oppresseth , while he doth against me dayly fight .

They dayly would me swallow up
that hate me spitefully ;

For they be many that do fight against me , O most High .

3 When I'm afraid , I'll trust in thee ;
in God I'll praise his Word :

4 I will not fear what flesh can do ,
my trust is in thee , Lord .

5 Each day they ragest my words ; their thoughts
'gainst me are all for til .

6 They meet , then lurch , they mark my steps , waiting

PSALM LVII.

waiti'g my soul to kill.

7 But shall they by iniquity escape thy judgment so?

GOD, with indignation, down
do thou the people throw.

8 My wand'ings all, what they have been thou know'st, their number took;
Into thy bottle put my tears;
are they not in thy book?

9 My foes shall, when I cry, turn back:
I know't; God is for me.

10 In God his Word I'll praise, his Word
in God shall praised be.

11 In God I trust, I will not fear
what man can do to me.

12 Thy bows upon me are, GOD,
I'll render praise to thee.

13 Wilt thou not, who from death me sav'd,
my feet from falls keep free:
To walk before God in the light of those that living be?

PSALM LVII.

Be merciful to me, GOD;
thy mercy unto me

Do thou extend, because my soul
doth put her trust in thee:

Yea, in the shadow of thy wings,
my refuge I will place;

Until these sad calamities
do wholly over-pass.

2 My cry I will cause to ascend unto the LORD most high:

To God who doth all things for me perform most perfectly.

3 From heav'n he shall send down, and me from his reproach defend.

What would devour me: God his truth and mercy forth shall send.

4 My soul among fierce Lions is:
I fire-brands live among:

Mens sons, whose teeth are spears and darts,
a sharp sword is their tongue.

Be thou exalted very high,

PSALM LVIII.

above the heav'n's, GOD; Let thou thy glory be advanc'd
 o'er all the earth abroad.

My soul's bow'd down, for they a net
 have laid my steps to snare:
 Into the pit which they have digg'd
 for me, they fallen are.

My heart is fixt, my heart is fixt,
GOD, I'll sing and praise.

My glory make, make psalter, harp;
 my self I'll early raise.

I'll praise thee 'mong the people, Lord:
 'mong Nations sing will I:

For great to heav'n thy mercy is,
 thy truth is to the sky.

LORD, exalted be thy Name,
 above the heav'n's to stand

So thou thy glory far advance above both sea and land.

PSALM LVIII.

Do ye G Congregation,
 indeed speak righteousness;

O ye that are the sons of men:
 Judge ye with uprightness?

Hea, ev'n within your very hearts
 ye wickedness have done:

And ye the violence of your hands
 do weigh the earth upon.

The wicked men estranged are,
 ev'n from the very womb.

They speaking lies do strap, as soon
 as to the world they come.

Unto a serpent's poison like,
 their poison both appear;

Hea, they are like the adder deaf,
 that closely stops her ear:

That so she may not hear the voice
 of one that charm her would;

No not though he most cunning were,
 and charm most wisely could.

Their teeth, GOD, within their mouth break thou in pieces small;

The great teeth break thou out, O Lord,

PSALM LIX.

of the young Lyons all.

- 7 Let them like waters melt away,
which downward still do flow,
In pieces cut his arrows all.
When he shall bend his bow.
- 8 Like to a snail that melts away,
let each of them be gone:
Like momens birch untimely, that they never see the Son.
- 9 He shall them take away, before your pots the thorns can find,
Both living, and in furp great,
as with a stormy wind:
- 10 The righteous when he vengeance sees
he shall be joyful then:
- 11 The righteous one shall wash his feet
in blood of wicked men.
- 12 So men shall say, the righteous man
reward shall never miss;
And verily upon the earth,
a God to judge there is.

PSALM LIX.

- M God deliver me from those that are mine enemies:
And do thou me defend from those that up against me rise.
- 2 Do thou deliver me from them
that mock iniquity:
And give me safety from the men
of bloody cruelty.
 - 3 For lo, they for my soul lay wait:
the mighty do combine Against me, Lord, not for my fault,
nor any sin of mine.
 - 4 They run, and without fault in me,
themselves do reape make:
Awake to meet me with thy help,
and do thou notice take.
 - 5 Awake therefore, Lord God of hosts,
thou God of Israel:
To visit wrathen all: spare none
that wickedly rebel.
 - 6 At evening they go to and fro:

PSALM LIX.

they make great noise and sound,
Like to a dog, and often walk
about the City round.

7 Behold, they belch out with their mouth
and in their lips are swords:

For they do say thus, Who is he that now doth hear our words?

8 But thou, O Lord, shalt laugh at them;
and all the Heavens mock.

9 While hee's in pow'r, I'll wait on thee;
for God is my high Rock.

10 He of my mercy that is God, betimes shall me prevent:

Upon mine enemies, God shall let me see mine hearts content.

11 Them slay not, lest my folk forget;
but scatter them abroad,

By thy strong pow'r: and bring them down;
O thou, our shield and God.

12 For their mouths sin, and for the words
that from their lips do flie:

Let them be taken in their pride,
because thy curse and lie.

13 In wrath consume them, them consume;
that so they may not be:

And that in Jacob God doth rule
to th'earth's ends, let them see.

14 At evening let thou them return,
making great noise and sound,

Like to a dog, and often walk
about the City round.

15 And let them wander up and down,
in seeking food to eat;

And let them grudge, when they shall not be satisfi'd with meat.

16 But of thy pow'r I'll sing aloud.
at morn thy mercy praise:

For thou to me my refuge wast,
and to m'e in troublous daies.

17 O LORD, that art my strength, I will
sing praises unto thee:

For God is my defence, a God
of mercy unto me.

PSALM LX.

- O Lord, thou hast rejected us,
and scattered us abroad:
Thou surely hast displeased been:
return to us O God.
- 2 The earth to tremble thou hast made,
therein didst breaches make:
O thou thereof the breaches heal,
because the land doth shake.
- 3 Unto thy people thou hard things
hast shew'd, and on them sent:
And thou hast caused us to drink
wine of astonishment,
- 4 And yet a banner thou hast given
to them who thee do fear:
That it by them, because of truth,
displeased may appear:
- 5 That thy beloved people may,
delivered be from thralldom:
Save with the pow'r of thy right hand
and hear me when I call.
- 6 God in his holiness hath spoke,
Herein I will take pleasure:
Theechem I will divide, and forth
will Succoth halley measure.
- 7 Gilead I claim as mine by right,
Manasseth mine shall be;
Ephraim is of mine head the strength,
Judah gives laws for me.
- 8 Moab's my washing pot, my shoe
I'll tread over Edom, throned;
And over Palestina's land,
I will in triumph go.
- 9 O Who is he that will bring me to the Cup forrisp'd?
O Who is he that to the land
of Edom will me guide?
- 10 O God, which hadst us cast off,
this thing wilt thou not do?
Thy name, O God, which didst not forth with our armies go.
- 11 Help us from trouble: for the help
is vain which man supplies.
- 12 Through O God we'll do great acts: he shall stand

PSALM LXI. LXII.

tread down our enemies.

PSALM LXII.

O God give ear unto my cry,
unto my prayer attend.

2 From th' utmost corner of the land,
my cry to thee I'll send

What time my heart is overwhelm'd,
and in perplexity;

Do thou me lead unto the Rock,
that higher is than I.

3 For thou hast for my refuge been a shelter by thy power.

And for defence against my foes,
thou hast been a strong tower.

4 Within thy tabernacle I forever will abide:

And under cover of thy wings,
with confidence me hide.

5 For thou, the vows that I did make,
O Lord, my God, didst hear:

Thou hast giv'n me the heritage of those thy Name that fear.

6 A life prolong'd for many days, thou to the King shalt give:

Like many generations be the years which he shall live.

7 He in God's presence his abode for evermore shall have.

8 Do thou truth and mercy both prepare that may him save.

9 And so will I perpetual sing praise unto thy Name:

That having made my vows, I may each day perform the same.

PSALM LXII.

My soul with expectation
depends on God indeed:

My strength and my salvation both from him alone proceed.

2 He only my salvation is,
and my strong Rock is he:

He only is my sure defence
much more than I shall be;

PSALM LXIII.

3 How long wilt thou be against a man plot mischief? thou shalt all be slain: thou art as a tottering fence shall be, and bowing wall.

4 They only plot to cast him down
from his excellency:

They joy in lies, with mouth they bless,
but they curse inwardly.

5 My soul wait thou with patience
upon thy God alone:

On him dependeth all my hope,
and expectation.

6 He only my salvation is,
and my strong Rock is he:
only is my sure defence:

I shall not moved be.

7 In God my glory placed is,
and my salvation sure:

In God the Rock is of my strength,
my refuge most secure,

8 Ye people, place your confidence
in him continually:

Before him pour ye out your hearts,
God is our refuge by.

6 Surely mean men are vanity,
and great men are a lie:

In ballance laid, they wholly are more light than vanity.

10 Trust ye not in oppression,
in robbery be not vain;

On wealth set not your hearts, whenas increased is your gain.

11 God hath it spoken once to me,
yea, this I heard again,

That power to Almighty God alone doth appertain.

12 Yea, mercy also unto thee
belongs, O Lord alone;

For thou according to his work
rewardest every one.

PSALM LXIII.

O Lord, thee my God, I'll early seek:
my soul doth thirst for thee:

PSALM LXIV.

My flesh longs in a dry parcht land,
wherein no waters be.

2 That I thy power may behold,
and brightnes of thy face,

As I have seen thee heretofore,
within thy holy Place.

3 Since better is thy love than life,
my lips thee praise shall give,

4 I in thy name will lift my hand,
and bless thee while I live.

5 E'en as with marrow and with fat,
my soul shall filled be;

Then shall my mouth with joyful lips,
sing praises unto thee.

6 When I do thee upon my bed,
remember with delight;

And when on thee I meditate,
in watches of the night.

7 In shadow of thy wings I'll sop,
for thou mine help hast been.

8 My soul thee follows hard, and me
thy right hand doth sustain.

9 Who seek my soul to spill, shall sink down to earth's lowest room.

10 They by the sword shall be cut off, and fores prey become.

11 Yet shall the King in GOD rejoice;
and each one glori shall,

That swear by him: but sloth shall be the mouth of liars all.

PSALM LXIV.

When I to thee my prayer make;

LORD, to my voice give ear;

My life save from the enemy,
of whom I stand in fear.

2 Me from their secret counsel hide;
who do live wickedly:

From insurrection of those men
that work iniquity.

3 Who do their tongues with malice wet;
and make them cut like swords:

In whose dent bows are arrows set.
E'en sharp and bitter words,

4 That

PSALM LXV.

- 4 That they map at the perfect man
in secret aim their shot ;
But a sudden they dare at him
to shoot, and fear is not.
- 5 An ill incourage they themselves,
and their snares close to lay ;
Together conference they have,
who shall them see ? they say.
- 6 They have searcht out iniquity,
a perfect search they keep.
Of each of them the inward thought,
and very heart is deep.
- 7 God shall an arrow shoot at them,
and wound them suddenly
- 8 So their own tongue shall them confound :
all who them see shall sp.
- 9 And on all men a fear shall fall :
God's works they shall declare :
For they shall wisely notice take,
what these his doings are.
- 10 In God the righteous shall rejoyce,
and trust upon his might ;
Hea they shall greatly glory all in heart, that are upright.

PSALM LXV.

- Praise waits for thee in Zion, Lord,
to thee vows pay'd shall be,
- 2 O thou that hearest art of prayer,
all flesh shall come to thee.
 - 3 Iniquities I must confess,
prevail against me do :
But as for our transgressions,
them purge away shalt thou.
 - 4 Blest is the man whom thou dost choose ;
and mak'st approach : o : per :
That he within thy courts, O LORD,
may still a dweller be.
We surely shall be satisfy'd
with thy abundant grace ;
And with the goodness of thy house,
ev'n of thy help Diace.
 - 5 O LORD of our salvation,
thou in thy righteousness,

PSALM LXVI.

By fearful moths unto our pray'rs,
thyne answer dost expels.

Wherefoze the ends of all the earth,
and those afar that be

Hpon the sea, their confidence,
O LORD, will place in thee.

6 Who being girt with power sets fast,
by his great strength the giles

7 Who noise of seas, noise of their waves, and peoples tumult stills.

8 Those in the utmost parts that dwell,
are at thy signs afraid.

Thy out-goings of the morn and ev'n,
by thee are joyful made.

9 The earth thou visit'st, watering it,
thou mak'st it rich to grow

With God's full flood: thou eke prepar'st
when thou prohib'st it so.

10 Her riggs thou makest plentifully,
her furrows fertile,

With thy showers thou dost her mollifie
her sowing by thee is blest:

11 So thou the year most liberally
dost with thy goodness crown;

And all thy paths abundantly
on us drop fatness down.

12 Thy joy upon the pastures wide,
they do in delectation:

The little hills on every side rejoice right pleasantly.

13 With flocks the pastures clothed be the vales which eke are clad:

And now they shout and sing to thee,
for thou hast made them glad.

PSALM LXVI.

ALL lands to God in joyful sounds,
aloft your voices raise.

2 Sing forth the sound of his Name,
and glorious make his praise.

3 Say unto God: How terrible in strength are thy works

Thy great power's top forts to thee shall be constrain'd to bow,

PS'ALM LXVI.

- 4 All on the earth shall worship thee ;
they shall thy praise proclaim
In songs : they shall sing cheerfully unto thy holy Name.
- 5 Come , and the works that God hath wrought
with admiration see :
In's working to the sons of men.
most terrible is he.
- 6 Into dry land the sea he turn'd ,
and they a passage had ;
E'en marching through the flood on foot ;
there we in him were glad.
- 7 He ruleth ever by his power ,
his eyes the Nations see :
O let not the rebellious ones ,
lift up themselves on him.
- 8 Ye people , bless our GOD : aloud
the voice speak of his praise.
- 9 Our soul in life who safe preserves ,
our foot from sliding stapes.
- 10 For thou didst probe and try us , Lord ,
as men do silver try ,
- 11 Brought'st us into the net , and mad'st
bands on our loins to lie.
- 12 Thou hast caus'd men ride o're our heads ;
and though that we did pass Through fire and waters , yet thou brought'st us to a wealthy place.
- 13 I'll bring burnt offerings to thy house ,
to thee my votive I'll pay ,
- 14 Which my lips utter'd , my mouth spake
when trouble on me lay.
- 15 Burnt-sacrifices of fat rams ,
with incense I will bring Of bullocks and of goats , I will present an offering ,
- 16 All that fear GOD , come here , I'll tell what he did for my soul.
- 17 I will with my mouth unto him cry'd ,
my tongue did him extol.
- 18 If in my heart I sin regard ,
the LORD me will not hear :
- 19 But surely GOD me heard , and so

PSALM LXVII.

my prayers voice gave ear.

10 O let the LORD, our gracious GOD;
forever blessed be;

Who turned not my prayer from him
nor per his grace from me.

PSALM LXVII.

LORD, bless and pierce us,
shine on us with thy face:

1 That thy earth thy way, and Nations all;
may know thy saving grace.

2 Let people praise thee, LORD,
let people all thee praise:

3 O let the Nations be glad,
in songs their voices raise,

Thou'lt justly people judge,
on earth rule Nations all,

4 Let people praise thee. Lord, let them praise thee, both great and small.

5 The earth her fruit shall yield,
our GOD shall blessing send.

6 God shall us bless, men shall him fear unto earth's utmost end.

Another of the same.

LORD, unto us be merciful,
do thou us also bless:

And graciously cause shine on us
the brightness of his face.

1 That so thy way upon the earth
to all men may be known:

Also among the Nations all thy saving health be shown.

2 O let the people praise thee, LORD,
let people all thee praise;

3 O let the Nations be glad,
and sing for joy alway.

For right thou shalt people judge,
and Nations rule on earth.

4 Let people praise thee, LORD, let all the folk praise thee with mirth.

5 When shall the earth yield her increase:

GOD our GOD, bless us shall,
GOD shall us bless, and of the earth,

the ends shall fear him all.

PSALM

PSALM LXVIII.

- 1 Let GOD arise, and scattered
Let all his en'mies be;
And let all those that do him hate,
before his presence flee.
- 2 As smoke is driven, so drive thou them;
as fire melts wax away.
Before God's face let wicked men
so perish and decay.
- 3 But let the righteous be glad,
let him before God's sight
Be very joyful; yea, let them rejoice with all their might.
- 4 To God sing, to his Name sing praise,
exult him with your voice,
That rides on heaven by his Name I A H:
before his face rejoice;
- 5 Because the LO RD a father is unto the fatherless:
God is the widows Judge within his place of holiness.
- 6 GOD doth the solitary set in families, and from bands
The chain'd doth free; our rebels do inhabit parched lands
- 7 GOD, what time thou didst go forth
before thy people's face,
And when through the great wilderness,
thy glorious marching was:
- 8 Then at God's presence shook the earth,
then drops from heaven fell;
This Sinai shook before the Lord,
the God of Israel.
- 9 GOD, thou to thine heritage
didst send a plentiful rain; Whereby thou, when it weari was,
didst it refresh again.
- 10 Thy Congregation then did make their habitation there.
Of thine own goodness for the poor,
GOD thou didst prepare.
- 11 The LO RD himself did give the word,
the word abroad did spread:
Great was the company of them

PSALM L XVIII.

the same was published.

- 11 Things of great armies foiled were,
and forc'd to flee away;
And women who remain'd at home,
did distribute the prey.
- 12 Though ye have lyen among the pots;
like doves ye shall appeare;
Whose wings with silver and with gold,
whose feathers covered are.
- 13 When there sh' Almighty scattered things like Salmon's snow 'twas white.
- 14 God's hill is like to Bashan hill,
like Bashan hill for height.
- 15 Why do ye leap, ye mountains high;
his is the hill where GOD Desires to dwell: yea, GOD in it for ay will make abode.
- 16 Gods chariots twenty thousand are,
thousands of Angels strong:
In's holp Plate God is, as in mount Sinai them among.
- 17 Thou hast, O LORD, most glorious,
ascended up on hy;
And in triumph victorious led captiue, captiue.
- Thou hast receiv'd gifts for men,
for such as did rebel:
Yea, ev'n for them, that GOD the Lord
in midst of them might dwell.
- 18 Bless'd be the LORD, who is to us,
of our salvation GOD:
Who daily with his benefits
us plenteously doth load.
- 19 He of salvation is the GOD,
who is our God most strong,
And unto God the LORD, from death
the issues do belong
- 20 But surely God shall wound the head
of those that are his foes:
The hairy scalp of him that still on in his trespass goes.
- 21 God said, my people I will bring again from Bashan hill:

Yea,

PSALM LXVIII.

Hea, from the seas deuouring deeps,
them bzing again I will,

23 That in the blood of enemies thy foot imbrued may be;
And of thy dogs dip in the same,
the tongues thou mayest see.

24 Thy goings thy have seen, O GOD,
the steps of Majesty.
Of my GOD, and my mighty King,
within the Sanctuary.

25 Before went singers, players next
on instruments took way;
And them among the damsels were,
that did on timbrels play.

26 Within the Congregations
bless GOD with one accord:
From Isra'ls fountain do ye bless and praise the mighty LORD.

27 With their Prince little Benjamin Princes and counsel there

Of Judah were: there Zebulon's and Naphtali's Princes were,

28 Thy God commands thy strength, make strong what thou wroughtst for us, Lord.

29 For thy house at Jerusalem,
Kings shall thee gifts afford.

30 The spear-men hast, the multitude of bulls which fiercely look:
Those calves which people have forth sent,
O LORD our GOD, rebuke,
Till every one submit himself,
and silver pieces bring:

The people that delight in war,
disperse. O GOD and King.

31 Those that be Princes great, shall then come out of Egypt's lands:

And Ethiopia to GOD
shall soon stretch out her hands.

32 All ye Kingdoms of the earth,
sing praises to this King:

For he is Lord that ruleth all,
unto him praises sing.

33 To him that rides on heav'n of heav'n;
which

PSALM LXIX.

which he of old did found ;
Lo, he sends out his voyce , a voyce
in might that doth abound.

34 Strength unto God do ye ascribe ;
for his excellency

Is over Israel : his strength is in the clouds most hy.

35 Thou'rt from thy temple dreadful, Lord, Isra'ls own GOD is he ;
Who givest his people strength and power ,
O let GOD be blessed be.

PSALM LXIX.

Save me O GOD , because the floods
do so environ me ,

That ev'n unto my very soul
come in the waters be.

2 I downward in deep mire do sink ,
where standing there is none :

I am into deep waters come ,
where floods have o're me gone.

3 I weary with my crying am ,
my throat is also dzy'd :

Mine eyes do fail , while for my God ,
I waiting do abide.

4 Those men that do without a cause
bear hatred unto me ,

Then are the hairs upon mine head ,
in number more they be.

They that would me destroy , and are mine enemies wrongfully ,

Are mighty : so what I took not ,
to render I've receiv'd.

5 Lord , thou my folly know'st , my sins
not cover'd are from thee.

6 Let none that wait on thee be sham'd ,
LORD , God of hosts , for me.

O LORD : the God of Israel ,
let none who search do make ,

And seek thee , be at any time confounded for my sake.

7 For I have born reproach for thee ,
my face is hid with shame :

8 To brethren strange , to mothers sons ,

PSALM LXIX.

an alien I became.

- 9 Because the zeal did eat me up,
watch to thy house I bared;
And the reproaches cast at thee,
upon me alien are.
- 10 My tears and fasts t' afflict my soul,
were turned to my shame.
- 11 When sackcloth I did wear, to them
a proverb I became.
- 12 The men that in the gate do sit,
against me evil spake:
They also that bile drunkards were;
of me their song did make.
- 13 But in an acceptable time,
my prayer, LORD, is to thee:
In truth of thy salvation, LORD,
and mercy great, hear me.
- 14 Deliver me out of the myre,
from sinking do me keep:
Free me from those that do me hate,
and from the waters deep.
- 15 Let not the flood on me prebail,
whose waters overflow:
Nor deep me swallow, nor the pit
her mouth upon me close.
- 16 Hear me O LORD, because thy love
and kindness is most good, Turn unto me according to thy mercies multitude.
- 17 Nor from thy servant hide thy face;
I'm troubled; soon attend!
- 18 Draw near my soul, and it redeem;
me from my foes defend.
- 19 To thee is my reproach well known,
my shame and my disgrace:
Those that mine adversaries be,
are all before thy face.
- 20 Reproach hath broke my heart, I'm full of grief: I look'd for one To pity me, but none I found;
comforters found I none.
- 21 They also bitter gall did give unto me for my meat:

PSA L XLIX.

They gave me vinegar to drinke
whenas my thirst was great.

22 Before them let their table provide a snare, and do thou make their melfare and prospering
a trap themselves to take.

23 Let thou their eyes so darkned be,
that sight may them forsake;
And let their loins be made by thee,
continually to shake.

24 Thy fury pour thou out on them,
and indignation;
And let thy wrathful anger LORD,
fast hold take them upon.

25 All wast and desolare let be their habitation:
And in their tabernacles all,
inhabitants be none.

26 Because him they do persecute,
whom thou didst smite before;
They talk unto the grief of those whom thou hast wounded sore.

27 Add thou iniquity unto their former wickedness:
And do not let them come at all
unto thy righteousness:

28 Out of the book of life let them be raz'd, and blotted quite;
Among the just and righteous,
let not their Names be writ.

29 But now become exceeding poor and sorrowful am I;
By thy salvation, O my GOD,
let me be set on high.

30 The Name of GOD I with a song
most chearfully will praise:
And I, in giving thanks to him,
his Name shall highly raise.

31 This to the LORD a sacrifice;
more gracious shall prove.

Than bullock, or, or any beast
that hath both horn and hoof.

32 When this the humble men shall see

PSALM LXX.

It joy to them shall give :

¶ All ye that do seek the LORD,
your heart shall ever live.

33 For God the pooz hears, and will not his prisoners contemn.

34 Let heav'n and earth and seas him praise,
and all that move in them.

35 For GOD will Judah's Cities build,
and he will Zion save;

That they may dwell therein, and it
in sure possession have.

36 And they that are his servants seed,
inherit shall the same;

So shall they have their dwelling there,
that love his blessed Name.

PSALM LXX.

LORD, haste me to deliver;
with speed, LORD, succor me.

2 Let them that for my soul do seek,
sham'd and confounded be.

Turn'd back be they and sham'd,
that in my hurt delight.

3 Turn'd back be they, Ha, ha, that say,
their shaming to requite.

4 In thee let all be glad,
and joy, that seek for thee :

Let them who thy salvation love,
say still, God praised be.

5 I pooz and needp am;
come, Lord, and make no stay :

My help thou and delib'rer art.

¶ LORD, make no delay.

Another of the same.

Make haste, GOD, me to preserve,
with speed, Lord, succor me :

2 Let them that for my soul do seek,
sham'd and confounded be.

Let them be turned back and sham'd
that in my hurt delight.

3 Turn'd back be they Ha, ha, that say,
their shaming to requite.

4 LORD, in thee let all be glad,
and joy that seek for thee :

PSALM LXXI.

Let them who thy salvation love,
say still. God praised be.

1 But I both poor and needy am:
come, Lord, and make no stay:

Thy help thou and deliverer art:

O Lord, make no delay.

PSALM LXXI.

O Lord, my hope and confidence,
is plac'd in thee alone:

Then let thy servant never be put to confusion.

2 And let me in thy righteousness,
from thee deliverance have:

Cause me escape, incline thine ear unto me, and me save.

3 Be thou my dwelling Rock, to which I ever may resort:

Thou gav'st commandment me to save,
for thou'rt my rock and fort.

4 Free me, my God, from wicked hands,
hands cruel and unjust:

5 For thou, O Lord God, art my hope,
and from my youth my trust.

6 Thou from the womb didst hold me up:
thou art the same that me

Out of my mother's bowels took;
I ever will praise thee.

7 As many I a wonder am;
but thou'rt my refuge strong.

8 Fill'd let my mouth be with thy praise and honor all day long.

9 O do not cast me off, whenas
old age doth overtake me;

And when my strength decayed is,
then do not thou forsake me.

10 For those that are mine enemies,
against me speak with hate:

And they together counsel take that for my soul lay wait.

11 They said, God leaves him; him pursue and take; none will him save.

12 Be thou not far from me, my God:
thy speedy help I crave.

PSALM LXXI.

- 13 Confound, consume them, that hate
my soul are enemies:
Cloath'd be they with reproach and shame
that do my hurt devise.
- 14 But I with expectation
will hope continual:
And yet with praises more and more,
I will thee magnifie.
- 15 Thy justice and salvation,
my mouth abroad shall show;
Ev'n all the day; for I thereof,
the numbers do not know.
- 16 And I will constantly go on in strength of GOD the LORD;
And thine own righteousness, ev'n thine alone I will record.
- 17 For even from my pouth, O GOD,
by thee I have been taught;
And hitherto I have declar'd
the wonders thou hast wrought.
- 18 And now, Lord, leave me not, when I
old and gray-headed grow;
Till to this age thy strength and pow'r,
to all to come I show.
- 19 And thy most perfect righteousness,
O LORD, is very high,
Who hast so great things done: O God,
who is like unto thee?
- 20 Thou, Lord, who great adversities,
and soze, to me didst show, Shalt quicken, and bring me again
from depths of earth below.
- 21 My greatness and my pow'r thou wilt increase, and far extend:
On every side, against all grief,
thou wilt me comfort send.
- 22 Thee, ev'n thy truth, I'll also praise
my God with psalterie:
Thou help One of Israel,
with harp I'll sing to thee.
- 23 My lips shall much rejoice in thee,
when I thy praises sound:
My soul which thou redeemed hast.

PSALM LXXII.

in joy shall much abound.

- 24 My tongue thy justice shall proclaim continuing all day long :
For they confounded are and sham'd that seek to do me wrong.

PSALM. LXXII.

O LORD, thy judgments give the King ;
his son thy righteousness ;

- 1 With right he shall thy people judge ,
thy poor with uprightness
3 The lofty mountains shall bring forth unto the people peace ;
Likewise the little hills the same shall do by righteousness.

- 4 The peoples poor ones he shall judge ;
the needies children save :
And those shall be in pieces break ,
who them oppress'd have.

- 5 They shall thee fear while Sun and Moon
do last through ages all.

- 6 Like rain on mown grass he shall drop ,
or snows on earth that fall.

- 7 The just shall flourish in his days ,
and prosper in his reign :
He shall , while both the Moon endure abundant peace maintain.

- 8 His large and great dominion shall from-sea to sea extend :

- It from the river shall reach forth
unto earth's utmost end.

- 9 They in the wilderness that dwell ,
bow down before him must :
And they that are his enemies ,
shall lick the very dust.

- 10 The Kings of Tarshish, and the Isles ,
to him shall presents bring :
And unto him shall offer gifts.
Sheba's and Seba's King.

- 11 Yea, all the mighty Kings on earth,
before him down shall fall :
And all the Nations of the World , do service to him shall.

- 12 For he the needies shall preserve :

PSALM LXXIII.

When he to him doth call;
The pooz also, and him that hath no help of man at all.

13 The pooz man and the indigent
in mercy he shall spare:

He shall preserve albe the souls,
of those that needp are 14 Both from deceit and violence,

their soul he shall set free:

And in his sight right precious,
and dear their blood shall be.

15 Hea he shall live, and gib'n to him
shall be of Sheba's gold;

For him still shall they pray, and he shall dayly be extol'd.

16 Of cozn, an handful in the earth,
on tops of mountains hie,

With prosp'rous fruit shall shake like trees on Lebanon that be.

The City shall be flourishing,
her citizens abound

In number shall, like to the grass that grows upon the ground.

17 His Name forever shall endure,
last like the Sun it shall:

Men shall be blest in him, and blest
all Nations shall him call.

18 How blessed be the Lord, our God,
the God of Israel:

For he alone doth monzous works,
in glory that excel.

19 And blessed be his glorious Name,
to all eternitie:

The whole earth let his glory fill,
Amen, so let it be.

PSALM LXXIII.

Yet God is good to Israel,
to each pooz-hearted one.

But as for me, my steps near slipt,
my feet were almost gone.

For I enbious was, and grubg'd
the foolish folk to see.

When I perceiv'd the wicked soz

PSALM LXXIII.

enjoy prosperite.

- 4 For still their strength continueth firme
their death of bands is free :
- 5 They are not toil'd as other men ,
nor plagu'd as others be.
- 6 Therefore their pride, like to a chain ,
them compasseth about :
And as a garment , violence
doth cover them throughout.
- 7 Their eyes stand out with fat, they have more than their hearts could wish.
- 8 They are corrupt , their talk of wrong ,
both lewd and loose is.
- 9 They set their mouth against the heav'n
in their blasphemous talk ,
And their reproaching tongue throughout
the earth at large doth walk.
- 10 His people oftentimes for this look back and turn about ;
Sith waters of so full a cup to these are poured out
- 11 And thus they say , How can it be that G O D these things doth know ?
Or can there in the highest be knowledge of things below ?
- 12 Behold , these are the wicked ones ,
yet prosper at their will :
In worldly things they do increase ,
in wealth and riches still.
- 13 I verily have done in vain
my heart to purify :
To no effect in innocence
washed my hands have I.
- 14 For daily , and all day throughout ,
great plagues I suffered have :
Each every morning I of new did chastisement receive.
- 15 If in this manner foolishly
to speak I would intend ,
Thy citizens generation ,
behold , I should offend.
- 16 When I this thought to know it was too hard a thing for me.

PSALM LXXIII.

- 17 Unto God's Sanctuary I went :
then I their end did see.
- 18 Assuredly thou didst them set a slippery place upon ;
Them suddenly thou castedst down :
into destruction.
- 19 How in a moment suddenly to ruin brought are they ,
With fearful terrors uttering .
they are consum'd away :
- 20 Ev'n like unto a dream , when one
from sleeping doth arise :
So thou , O Lord , when thou awak'st their image shalt despise.
- 21 Thus grieved was my heart in me ,
and me my reins opprest .
- 22 So rude was I , and ignorant ,
and in thy sight a beast .
- 23 Nevertheless continually ,
O LORD , I am with thee :
Thou dost me hold by my right hand ,
and still upholdest me .
- 24 Thou with thy counsel while I live ,
wilt me conduct and guide ;
And to thy glory afterward ,
receive me to abide .
- 25 Whom have I in the heavens high
but thee , O LORD , alone ;
And in the earth whom I desire beside thee , there is none .
- 26 My flesh and heart doth faint and fail ;
but GOD doth sail me never :
For of my heart GOD is the strength , and portion forever .
- 27 For lo , they that are far from thee ,
forever perish shall :
Them that a mocking from thee go ,
thou hast destroyed all .
- 28 But surely it is good for me ,
that I dream near to God :
In God I trust , that all thy works
I may declare abroad .

PSALM LXXIV.

- O God, why hast thou cast us off?
is it for evermore?
Against thy pasture sheep, why doth thine anger smoke so sore?
2 Call to thy remembrance
thy Congregation,
Which thou hast purchased of old;
still think the same upon.
The rod of thine inheritance,
which thou redeemed hast:
This Zion Hill, wherein thou hadst
thy dwelling in times past.
3 To these long desolations
thy feet lift, do not tarry,
For all the ill thy foes have done
within thy Sanctuary.
4 Amidst thy Congregations
thine enemies do roar:
Their ensigns they set up, for signs
of triumph, thee before.
5 A man was famous, and was had in estimation.
Rejoycing as he lifted up his ar thick trees upon.
6 But all at once with axes nois,
and hammers they go to,
And down the carved work thereof
they break, and quite undo.
7 They fired have thy Sanctuary;
and have defil'd the same.
By casting down upon the ground,
the place where dwelt thy Name.
8 Thus said they in their hearts, Let us destroy them out of hand:
They burnt up all the Synagogues
of God within the land.
9 Our signs we do not now behold,
there is not us among A Prophet more, nor any one that knows the time how long.
10 How long, Lord, shall the enemy
thus in reproach exclaim;
And shall the adversary thus

PSALM LXXIV.

- alwaies blaspheme thy Name ?
 11 Thy hand, ev'n thy right hand of might,
 why dost thou thus draw back ?
 O from thy bosom pluck it out,
 for our deliverance sake.
- 12 For certainly G O D is my King ;
 ev'n from the times of old,
 working in midst of all the earth
 salvation manifold.
- 13 The sea by thy great pow'r to part asunder thou didst make :
 And thou the dragons heads, O L O R D,
 within the waters brake.
- 14 The Leviathan's head thou brake
 in pieces, and didst give him to be meat unto the folk in wilderness that live.
- 15 Thou clabe the fountain and the flood,
 which did with streams abound ;
 Thou dyp'dst the mighty waters up unto the very ground.
- 16 Thine only is the day, O L o r d ;
 thine also is the night ;
 And thou alone prepared hast
 the Sun and shining light.
- 17 By thee the borders of the earth
 were sealed every where :
 The Summer and the Winter both
 by thee created were :
- 18 That th'enemy reproached hath
 O keep it in record ;
 And that the foolish people have blasphem'd thy Name, O L o r d.
- 19 Unto the multitude do not thy ruttles soul deliver ;
 The Congregation of thy peoꝑe,
 do not forget forever.
- 20 Unto thy Cov'nant have respect, for earth's dark places be full of the habitations
 of horrid cruelty.
- 21 O let not those that be oppꝑꝑꝑ
 return again with shame :

PSALM LXXV.

Let those that poore and neede are,
give praise unto thy Name.

11 Do thou, O God, arise and plead
the cause that is thine own, Remember how thou art reproacht
still by the foolish one.

12 Do not forget the voice of those that are thine enemies:

Of those the tumult euer grows
that do against thee rise.

PSALM LXXV.

To thee, O God, do we give thanks,
we do give thanks to thee:

Because thy wondrous works declare thy great Name near to be.

2 I purpose, when I shall receive the Congregation,

That I shall judgment uprightly render to every one.

3 Dissolved is the land, with all that in the same do dwell:

But I the pillars thereof do bear up, and stablish still.

4 I to the foolish people said,
do not deal foolishly:

And unto those that wicked are,
lift not your horn on high.

5 Lift not your horn on high, nor speak with stubborn neck: But know,

6 That not from East, nor West, nor South promotion doth flow,

7 But God is Judge: he puts down one;
and sets another up.

8 For in the hand of God most high
of red wine is a cup:

Its full of mixture, he pours forth;
and makes the wicked all

Dying out the bitter dregs thereof;
pea and they drink them shall.

9 But I forever will declare,
I Jacob's God will praise;

10 All horns of lewd men I'll cut off;
but just mens horns will raise.

PSALM LXXVI

1 In Judah's land GOD is well known,
his Name's in Israel great.

2 In Salem is his Tabernacle,
in Zion is his seat.

3 There arrows of the bow he brake,
the shield, the sword, the war.

4 More glorious thou than hills of prey, more excellent art far.

5 Those that were stout of heart are spoil'd,
they slept their sleep our-right:

And none of those their hands did find,
that were the men of might.

6 When thy rebuke, O Jacob's God,
had forth against them past;

Their horses and their chariots both,
were in a deep sleep cast.

7 Thou, Lord, ev'n thou art he that should be fear'd: and who is he

That may stand up before thy sight
if once thou angry be?

8 From heav'n thou judgment caus'd be heard,
the earth was still with fear:

9 When God to judgment rose to save all meek on earth that were.

10 Surely the deep travail of man unto thy praise redounds:

Thou to the remnant of his travail,
wilt set restraining bounds.

11 Down to the Lord pour God, and pray,
all ye that near him be;

Bring gifts and presents unto him;
for to be fear'd is he.

12 By him the sp'rits shall be cut off
of those that Princes are:

Unto the things that are on earth,
he fearful both appear.

PSALM LXXVII.

Unto the Lord I with my voice,
I unto God did cry;

Ev'n with my voice, and unto me
his ear he did apply.

3 I in my trouble sought the Lord;
my voice by night did run,

PSALM LXXVII.

And ceased not; my grieved soul
did consolation find.

3 I to remembrance God did call,
yet trouble did remain:

And overwhelm'd my spirit was,
till I did soze complain.

4 Mine eyes debarr'd from rest and sleep
thou makest still to wake:

My trouble is so great, that I unable am to speak.

5 The daies of old to mind I call'd, and oft did think upon

The times and ages that are past,
full many years agoe.

6 By night my song I call to mind;
and commune with my heart:

My sp'rit did carefullp inquire,
how I might ease my smart.

7 For ever will the Lord cast off,
and gracious be no more:

8 For ever is his mercp gone?
falls his word evermore?

9 As't true that to be gracious,
the LORD forgotten hath?

And that his tender mercies he hath shut up in his wrath?

10 Then did I say, that surely this is mine infirmity:

I'll mind the years of the right hand
of him that is most hy.

11 Hea, I remember will the works performed by the LORD:

The wonders done of old by thee,
I surely will record.

12 I also will of all thy works
my meditation make;

And of thy doings to discourse,
great pleasure I will take.

13 O GOD, thy way most holy is
within thy Sanctuary:

And what God is so great in pow'r,
as is our God most hy?

14 Thou art the God that wonders dost

PSALM LXXVIII.

By thy right hand most strong :
The mighty pow'r thou hast declar'd
the Nations among.

15 To thine own people with thine arm
thou didst redemption bring :

To Jacob's sons ; and to the Tribes
of Joseph that do spring.

16 The waters, Lord, perceiv'd thee ;
the waters saw thee well :

And they for fear aside did flee ;
the depths on trembling fell.

17 The clouds in water forth were pour'd,
sound loudly did the ship :

And swift through the world abroad
thine arrows fierce did fly,

18 Thy thunders voice amongst the heavens,
a mighty noise did make :

By lightnings lightned was the World,
th'earth tremble did and shake.

19 Thy way is in the sea, and in the waters great thy path :

Yet are thy footsteps hid. G L O R I A,
none knowledge thereof hath.

20 Thy people thou didst safely lead,
like to a flock of sheep :

By Moses hand and Aaron's thou didst them conduct and keep.

PSALM LXXVIII.

Attend, my people, to my Law,
thereto give thou an ear ;

The words that from my mouth proceed attentively to hear.

2 My mouth shall speak a parable,
and sayings dark of old :

3 The same which we have heard and known and us our fathers told.

4 We also will them not conceal
from their posterity,

Them to the generation
to come declare will we.

The praises of the L O R D our G O D,
and his Almighty strength,

The wondrous works that he hath done,

PSALM LXXVIII.

we will shew forth at singing.

- 5 His testimony and his Law
in Israel he did place ;
And charg'd our fathers it to shew
to their succeeding race :
- 6 That so the race which was to come ,
might well them learn and know :
And sons unborn who should arise ,
might to their song them show .
- 7 That they might set their hope in God ,
and suffer not to fall
His mighty works out of their mind ,
but keep his precepts all .
- 8 And might not like their fathers be a stiff rebellious race ;
A race not right in heart with God ,
whose spirit not steadfast was .
- 9 The sons of Ephraim , who now bore
no other arms did lack ,
Whenas the day of battle was ,
they faintly turned back .
- 10 They broke God's covenant , and refus'd
in his commands to go ;
- 11 His works and wonders they forgot ,
which he to them did show .
- 12 Things marvellous he brought to pass ;
their fathers them beheld ,
Within the land of Egypt done ,
pea ed'n in Zoan's field .
- 13 By him divided was the sea ,
he caus'd them through to pass ;
And made the water so to stand
as like an heap it was .
- 14 With cloud by day , with light of fire ;
all night he did them guide .
- 15 In desert , Rock he clave , and drink ,
as from great depths , suppl'd :
- 16 He from the Rock brought streams , like floods
made waters to run down .
- 17 Yet sinning more , in desert they provok'd the Highest One ,
- 18 For in their heart they tempted God ,
speaking with mistrust .

PSALM LXXVIII.

They greedily did meat require,
to satisfy their lust,

19 Against the Lord himself they spoke,
and murmuring said thus:

A table in the wilderness
can God prepare for us?

20 Behold he smote the Rock, and thence came streams and waters great:

But can he give his people bread,
and send them flesh to eat?

21 The Lord did hear, and waxed wroth,
so kindled was a flame

'Gainst Jacob and 'gainst Israel up indignation came.

22 For they believ'd not God, nor trust
in his salvation had;

23 The floods above he did command,
and heav'n's doozs open made:

24 And Manna rain'd on them, and gave them corn of heav'n to eat.

25 Man Angels food did eat, to them
he to the full sent meat.

26 And in the heav'n he did cause
an Eastern wind to blow:

And by his power he let out
the Southern wind to go:

27 Then flesh as thick as oust, he made
to rain down them among:

And feather'd fowls, like as the sand,
whirly up'th the shoze along.

28 At his command amidst their camp
these shew'rs of flesh down fell,

All round about the tabernacles
and tents where they did dwell.

29 So did they eat abundantly,
and had of meat their fill;

For he did give to them what was their own desire and will.

30 They from their lust had not estrang'd their heart and their desire;

But while the meat was in their mouth,
which they did so require,

31 God's wrath upon them came, and fell

PSALM LXXVIII.

- the fattest of them all,
So that the choise of Israel
o'rethzown by death did fall.
- 31 Yet notwithstanding of all this,
they sinned still the moze;
And though he had great wonders wrought
belieb'd him not theresoze.
- 32 Wherefoze their dayes in vanity
he did consume and waste?
And by his wrath their weighed peares;
away in trouble past.
- 33 But when he slew them, then they did
to seek him shew desire: Yea, they return'd, and after GOD
right early did inquire.
- 34 And that the Lord had been their Rock;
they did remember then:
Euen that the high Almighty GOD
had their Redeemer been.
- 35 Yet with their mouth they flattered him
and spake but fainedly;
And they unto the GOD of truth,
with their false tongues did ly.
- 36 For though their words were good, their hearts
with him was not sincere:
Hypocrites and perfidious
they in his reb'ance were.
- 37 But full of pity he forgave
their sin, them did not slay; Nor stir'd up all his wrath, but oft his anger turn'd away.
- 38 For that they were but fading flesh
to mind he did recall;
A mind that passeth soon away,
and not returning at all.
- 39 How often did they him provoke within the wilderness?
And in the desert did him grieve
with their rebelliousness?
- 40 Yea turning back they tempted GOD,
and limits set upon him, who in midst of Israel is the only holy One.

PSALM LXXVIII.

- 42 Egypt did not call to mind his pow'r,
nor yet the day when he Delivered them out of the hand of their fierce enemy.
- 43 How great signs in Egypt's land
he openly had wrought;
What miracles in Joan's field,
his hand to pass had wrought.
- 44 How lakes and rivers every where
he turned into blood,
So that no man nor beast could drink
of standing lake or flood.
- 45 He brought among them swarms of flies
which did them soze annoy:
And divers kinds of filthy frogs
he sent them to destroy.
- 46 He to the caterpillar gave
the fruits of all their soil:
Their labours he delivered up unto the locusts spoil.
- 47 Their vines with hail, their sycomozes,
he with the frost did blast.
- 48 Their beasts to hail he gave, their flocks
hot thunder-bolts did waste.
- 49 Pierce burning wrath he on them cast,
and indignation strong;
And trouble soze, by sending forth ill angels them among.
- 50 He to his wrath made way: their soul
from death he did not save;
But over to the pestilence
the lives of them he gave.
- 51 In Egypt land the first-born all
he smote down every where:
Among the tents of Ham, ev'n those chief of their strength that were.
- 52 But his own people like to sheep,
thence to go forth he made;
And he amidst the wilderness,
them as a flock did lead.
- 53 And he them safely on did lead,
so that they did not fear:
Whereas their enemies, by the sea,

PSALM LXXVIII.

quite overwhelmed were.

54 To borders of his Sanctuary
the LORD his people led :

Ev'n to the Mount which his right hand
for them had purchased.

55 The Nations of Canaan,
by his Almighty hand,

Before their face he did expel
out of their native land :

Which for inheritance to them
by line he did divide ;

And made the tribes of Israel,
within their tents abide.

56 Yet GOD most high they did provoke,
and tempted ever still ;

And to observe his testimonies,
did not incline their will.

57 But like their fathers, turned back ;
and dealt unfaithfully ;

Wise they turned like a bow
that shoots deceitfully.

58 For they to anger did provoke him with their places high :

And with their graven Images mobs'd him to jealousy.

59 When God heard this, he waxed wroth and much loath'd Israel then :

60 So Shiloh's tent he left, the tent
which he had plac'd with men.

61 And he his strength delibered
into captivity :

He left his glory in the hand
of his proud enemy.

62 His people also he gave o'er unto the sword's fierce rage :

So for his wrath inflamed was against his heritage.

63 The fire consum'd their choice young men ;
their maidens no marriage had.

64 And when their Priests fell by the sword,
their wives no mourning made

65 But then the LORD arose, as one that doth from sleep awake ;

PSALM LXXIX.

And like a grant that by wine refresh, a shout doth make.

66 Upon his enemies hinder parts,
he made his stroke to fall :
And so upon them he did put a shame perpetual.

67 Mozeober, he the tabernacle
of Joseph did refuse :
The mighty tribe of Ephraim
he would in no wise choose.

68 But he did choose Iehudah's tribe
to be the rest above ;
And of mount Zion he made choise,
which he so much did love :

69 And he his Sanctuary buist,
like to a Palace by ;
Like to the earth which he did found to perpetuise.

70 Of David that his servant was,
he also choise did make ;
And even from the folds of sheep,
was pleased him to take.

71 From walking on the ewes with young,
he brought him soz to feed
Israel, his inheritance,
his people, Jacob's seed.

72 So after the integritie
of his heart he them fed ;
And by the good skill of his hands,
them hiself governed.

PSALM LXXIX.

GOD, the Heathen entered have thine heritage, by them Defiled is thy house : on heaps they laid Ierusalem.

2 The bodies of thy servants they have cast soz to be meat

To ravenous fowls : thy dear saints flesh
they give to beasts to eat,

3 Their blood about Ierusalem,
like water they have shed ;
And there was none to bury them,
when they were slain and dead.

PSALM LXXIX.

- 4 Unto our neighbours a reproach
most base become are we :
5 scorn and laughing-stock to them that round about us be.
- 6 How long, LORD, shall thine anger last ;
wilt thou still keep the same ?
And shall thy fervent jealousy
burn like unto a flame ?
- 6 On heathens pour thy fury forth
that have thee never known ;
And on those Kingdoms which thy Name
have never call'd upon.
- 7 For those are they which Jacob have devoured cruelly :
And they his habitation
have caused waste to be.
- 8 Against us mind not former sins,
thy tender mercies shew :
Let them prevent us speedily,
for we're brought very low.
- 9 For thy Name's glory, help us, LORD ;
who hast our Saviour been :
Deliver us for thy Name's sake,
O purge away our sin.
- 10 Whp say the Heathen, where's their God ?
let him to them be known,
When those who shed thy servants blood
are in our sight o'rethron.
- 11 O let the prisoners sighs ascend
before thy sight on high :
Preserve those in thy mighty pow'r,
that are design'd to die.
- 12 And to our neighbours bosom cause
it seven fold rendred be :
E'en the reproach where-with they have,
O LORD, reproach'd thee.
- 13 So we thy folk and pasture sheep,
shall give thee thanks alwayes :
And unto generations all,
we will shew forth thy praise.

PSALM LXXX

Hear Israel's shepherd, like a flock,
thou that dost Joseph guide :

PSALM LXXX,

Shine forth, O thou, that dost between the Cherubims abide.

2 In Ephraim's, and Benjamin's,
and in Manasse's sight;

O come for our salvation,
sit up: by strength and might.

3 Turn us again, O LORD, our GOD,
and upon us boughsafe

To make thy countenance to shine,
and so we shall be safe.

4 O LORD of hosts, Almighty GOD,
how long shalt kindled be

Thy wrath against the prayer made by thine own folk to thee?

5 Thou tears of sorrow givest to them
instead of bread to eat:

Yea, tears instead of drink thou givest
to them in measure great.

6 Thou makest us a wife unto our neighbours round about:

Our enemies among themselves,
at us do laugh and flout.

7 Turn us again, O GOD of hosts,
and upon us boughsafe

To make thy countenance to shine,
and so we shall be safe.

8 A vine from Egypt brought thou hast,
by thine out-stretched hand:

And thou the branches out didst cast,
to plant it in their land.

9 Before it thou a room didst make,
where it might grow and stand:

Thou causedst it deep root to take,
and it did fill the land.

10 The mountains hail'd were with its shade,
as with a robering:

Like goodly Cedars were the boughs,
whith out from it did spring.

11 Upon the one hand to the sea,
her boughs she did out send;

On th'other side, unto the flood her branches did extend.

12 Whyp hast thou then thus broken down,

PSALM LXXXI.

and tane her hedge away?
that all passengers do pluck,
and make of her a prey.

The Bear who from the forest comes:
both waste it at his pleasure;
the wild beasts of the field also rebour it out of measure.

O GOD of Hosts, we thee beseech return unto thine:
look down from heav'n in love, behold,
and visit this thy vine.

This vineyard which thine own right hand
hast planted us among;

and that same branch which for thy self thou hast made to be strong.

Burnt up it is with flaming fire,
it also is cut down:

they utterly are perished,
whenas thy face hath frowned.

O let thy hand be still upon
the man of thy right hand;

the son of man whom for thy self,
thou madest strong to stand.

So henceforth we will not go back,
nor turn from thee at all:

thou quicken us, and we upon thy Name will call.

Turn us again, Lord GOD of hosts,

and upon us have mercy

make thy countenance to shine,

and so we shall be safe.

PSALM LXXXI.

Sing loud to GOD, our strength; with joy
to Jacob's God do sing.

Take up a Psalm, the pleasant harp, timbrel and psalter bring.

Blow trumpets at new Moon, what day
your feast appointed is:

for charge to Israel, and a law of Jacob's God was this.

To Joseph this a testimony
he made, when Egypt land

he travell'd through, where speech I heard

PSALM LXXI.

- I did not understand.
 6 His shoulder I from burdens took ;
 his hands from pots did free.
 7 Thou didst in trouble on me call ,
 and I delivered thee.
 In secret place of thundering ,
 I did thee answer make :
 And at the streams of Meribah
 of thee a proof did take.
 8 O thou , my people give an ear ,
 I'll testifie to thee :
 O thee , O Israel , if thou wilt but hearken unto me.
 9 In midst of thee there shall not be any strange God at all ;
 For unto any God unknown ,
 thou bowing down shalt fall.
 10 I am the LORD thy GOD , which did from Egypt land thee guide ;
 I'll fill thy mouth abundantly ,
 do thou it open wide.
 11 But per my people to my voice
 would not attentive be ;
 And ev'n my chosen Israel ,
 he would have none of me.
 12 So to the lust of their own hearts ,
 I them delivered :
 And then in counsels of their own ,
 they vainly wandered.
 13 O that my people had me heard ,
 I ra'l my wayes had chose !
 14 I had their enemies soon subdu'd ,
 my hand turn'd on their foes.
 15 The haters of the LORD , to him
 submission should have gain'd ;
 But as for them , their time should have
 for evermore remain'd.
 16 We should have also fed them with the finest of the wheat ;
 Of honey from the rock thy fill ,
 I should have made thee eat.

PSALM LXXXII.

- 1 In God's Assembly, G O D doth stand,
he judgeth Gods among.
2 How long, accepting persons vile,
will ye give judgment wrong?
3 Defend the poor and fatherless,
to poor oppress do right:
4 The poor and needy ones set free,
rid them from ill mens might.
5 They know not, nor will understand,
in darkness they walk on:
6 All the foundations of the earth,
out of their course are gone.
7 I said, that you are Gods, and are sons of the Highest all.
8 But ye shall die like men, and as one of the Princes fall.
9 O God, do thou raise up thy self
the earth to judgment call:
10 For thou art thine inheritance, shalt take the Nations all.

PSALM LXXXIII.

- 1 Keep not, O God, we thee intreat,
Keep not silence now:
2 Do thou not hold thy peace, G O D,
and still no more be thou.
3 For lo, thine enemies a noise
tumultuously have made:
4 And they that haters are of thee,
have lifted up the head.
5 Against thy chosen people they do crafty counsel take:
6 And they against thy hidden ones,
do consultations make.
7 Come let us cut them off, said they,
from being a Nation;
8 That of the name of Israel may
no more be mention.
9 For with joint heart they plot, in league against thee they combine;
10 The tents of Edom, Ishmaelites, Moab's and Agar's line.
11 Gebal and Ammon, Amalek, Philistins, those of Tyre:

PSALM LXXXIV.

- 8 And Assur topn'd with them, to help;
Nor's childzen, they conspire.
9 Do to them as to Midian, Tabin at Hison Grand:
10 And Sisera, which at Endor fell,
as dung to fat the land.
11 Like Perez and like Zeeb make their Noble-men to fall:
Like Zabab and Zalmunna like,
make thou their Princes all: 12 Who said. For our possession let us God's houses take.
13 May God, them like a wheel, as they besore the wind, them make.
14 As fire consumes a wood, as flame
doth mountains set on fire; 15 Chase and affright them with the storm and tempest of thine ire.
16 Their faces fill with shame, O Lord,
that they may seek thy Name.
17 Let them confounded be, and vex,
and perish in their shame, 18 That men may know, that thou, to whom alone doth happen rain
The Name Jehovah, dost most high o'er all the earth remain.

PSALM LXXXIV.

- How lovely is thy dwelling-plate,
O LORD of hosts, to me!
The tabernacles of thy grace
how pleasant, LORD, they be!
2 My thirsty soul longs vehemently for thee, faints thy Courts to see:
My very heart and flesh cry out,
O living GOD, for thee.
3 Behold, the sparrow findeth out an house wherein to rest,
The swallow also for her self hath purchased a nest:
E'en thine own Altars, where she safe
her young ones forth may bring,
O thou Almighty, Lord of hosts,
who art my God and King.

PSALM LXXV.

- 4 Blest are they in thy house that dwell,
they ever give thee praise.
- 5 Blest is the man whose strength thou art,
in whose heart are thy ways.
- 6 Who passing thozom Bara's dyt vale,
therein do dig up wells;
Also the rain that falleth down,
the pools with water fill.
- 7 So they from strength unwearied go still forward unto strength, Until in Zion they appear before the Lord at length.
- 8 Lord God of hosts, my prayer hear;
O Jacob's God give ear;
- 9 See God, our shield, look on the face of thine Anointed dear.
- 10 For in thy courts one day exceeds a thousand: rather in thy God's house will I keep a dooz;
than dwell in tents of sin.
- 11 For God the Lord's a sun and shield;
hee'l grace and glory give:
And will withhold no good from them
that uprightly do live.
- 12 O thou that art the Lord of hosts,
that man is truly blest,
Who by assured confidence
on thee alone doth rest.

PSALM LXXV.

- O LORD thou hast been favourable]
to thy beloved land;
Jacob's cap. i. b. p. thou hast recall'd with mighty hand.
- 1 Thou pardoned thy people hast
all their iniquities:
Thou all their trespasses and sins
hast covered from thine eyes.
 - 2 Thou took'st off all thine ire, and turn'dst
from thy wrath's fury.
 - 3 Turn us, God of our health, and cause
thy wrath 'gainst us to cease.
 - 4 Shall thy displeasure thus endure against us without end?

PSALM LXXXVI.

Wilt then to generations all,
thine anger forth extend?

6 That in thee may thy people joy;
wilt thou not us rebuke?

7 Shew us thy mercy, LORD, to us
do thy salvation give.

8 We hear what God the Lord will speak;
to his folk hee'll speak peace:

And to his Saints; but let them not return to foolishness.

9 To them that fear him, surely near
is his salvation;

That glory in our land may have her habitation.

10 Truth meet with mercy, righteousness and peace kiss'd mutually.

11 Truth springs from earth, and righteousness looks down from heaven up.

12 Hea, what is good the Lord shall give;
our land shall yield increase.

13 Justice, to set us in his steps,
shall go before his face.

PSALM LXXXVI.

O Lord, do thou bow down thine ear;
and hear me graciously;

Because I fore afflicted am,
and am in poverty.

2 Because I'm holy, let my soul
by thee preferred be:

O thou, my God, thy servant save,
that puts his trust in thee.

3 Sith unto thee I daily cry,
be merciful to me.

4 Respite thy servant's soul: for Lord,
I lift my soul to thee.

5 For thou art gracious, O LORD,
and ready to forgive:

And rich in mercy all that call upon thee to relieve.

6 Hear, LORD, my prayer, unto the voice
of my request attend:

7 In troublous times we call on thee:
for thou wilt answer send.

PSALM LXXXVI.

8 Lord, there is none among the Gods
that may with thee compare?
And like the works which thou hast done
not any work is there.

9 All Nations whom thou mad'st shall come and worship reverently,
Before thy face; and they O Lord,
thy Name shall glorifie.

10 Because thy deeds exceeding great,
and works thou art are done,
Which are to be admir'd, and thou art God thy self alone

11 Teach me thy way, and in thy truth;
O Lord, then walk till I.
Unite my heart, that I thy Name
may fear continually.

12 O Lord my God, with all my heart,
to thee I will give praise:
And I the glory will ascribe unto thy Name alwayes.

13 Because thy mercy toward me,
in greatness doth excel:
And thou deliveredst my soul,
out from the lowest hell.

14 O God, the proud against me rise;
and violent men beate me.
That for my soul have fought; and thee,
before them have not set.

15 But thou art full of pity, Lord,
a God most gracious:
Long suffering, and in thy truth
and mercy plenteous.

16 O turn to me thy countenance, and mercy on me have:
Thy servant strengthen, and the son of thine own hand make save.

17 Shew me a sign for good that they which do me hate may see
And be asham'd because thou, Lord didst help and comfort me.

PSALM LXXXVII.

UPON the hills of holiness
he his foundation set.

PSALM LXXXVII.

GOD, more than Jacob's dwellings all,
delights in Zion's gates.

3 Things glorious are said of thee,
thou City of the LORD.

4 Rahab and Babel, I to those that know me, will record.

Behold, ev'n Tyre, and with it
the land of Palestine;

And likewise Ethiopia,
this man, was born therein.

5 And it of Zion shall be said,
this man, and that man there was born, and he that is most W'gh himself shall stablish her.

6 When God the people writes, hee'l count
that this man born was there,

7 There be that sing and play; and all my well-springs in thee are.

PSALM LXXXVIII.

LORD GOD, my Saviour, day and night,
before thee cry'd have I.

2 Before thee let my prayer come,
give ear unto my cry.

3 For troubles great do fill my soul:
my life draws nigh the grave.

4 I'm counted with those that go down to pit, and no strength have.

5 Ev'n free among the dead, like them
that slain in grave do ly:

Cut off from thy hand, whom no more thou hast in memory.

6 Thou hast me laid in lowest pit,
in deeps, and darksome caves,

7 Thy wrath lyes hard on me, thou hast
me peest with all thy waxes.

8 Thou hast put far from me my friends,
thou mad'st them to abhor me:

And I am low shut up, that I find no evasion for me.

9 By reason of affliction
mine eye mourns dolefully:

So thee, LORD, do I call, and stretch
my hands continually.

PSALM LXXXIX.

- 10 Wilt thou shew wonders to the dead ?
shall they rise, and thee bless ?
11 Shall in the grave thy love be told ?
in death thy faithfulness ?
12 Shall thy great wonders in the dark,
or shall thy righteousness,
be known to any in the land
of deep forgetfulness ?
13 But, Lord, to thee I cry'd, my people
at morning present shall thee.
14 Ohy, Lord, dost thou cast off my soul,
and hid'st thy face from me ?
15 Distress'd am I, and from my youth
I ready am to die.
Thy terrors I have born, and am distracted fearfully.
16 The dreadful fierceness of thy wrath
quite over me doth go ;
Thy terrors great have run me off,
they did pursue me so.
17 For round about me every day,
like water they did rot :
And gathering together they have compassed my soul.
18 My friends thou hast put far from me ;
and him that did me love :
And those that mine acquaintance were ;
to darkness didst remove.

PSALM LXXXIX.

- GOD's mercies I will ever sing ;
and with my mouth I shall Thy faithfulness make to be known
to generations all.
1 For mercy shall be built, said I,
forever to endure ;
Thy faithfulness even in the heav'n
thou wilt establish sure.
2 I with my chosen One have made a covenant graciously ;
And to my servant whom I lov'd,
to David, sworn have I :
4 That I thy seed establish shall,
forever to remain.

PSALM LXXXIX

And to all generations all,

thy throne build and maintain.

5 The praises of thy wonders, LORD,
the heavens shall express:

And in the Congregation
of Saints, thy faithfulness:

6 For who in heaven with the LORD,
may once himself compare?

Who is like GOD among the sons of those that mighty are?

7 Great fear in meeting of the Saints,
is due unto the Lord:

And he of all about him, should
with reverence be ador'd:

8 O thou that art the Lord of hosts,
what Lord in mightiness

Is like to thee, who compass round
art with thy faithfulness?

9 Go'n in the raging of the sea,
thou over it dost reign;

And when the waves thereof do swell
thou stillest them again.

10 Rahab in pieces thou didst break;
like one that slaughtered is;

And with thy mighty arm thou hast
dispers'd thy enemies.

11 The heav'ns are thine, thou for thine own
the earth dost also take.

The world and fulness of the same.
thy pow'r did found and make.

12 The North and South from thee alone their first beginning had:

Both Libanus mount, and Hermon hill,
shall in thy Name be glad.

13 Thou hast an arm that's full of pow'r, thy hand is great in might;

And thy right hand exceedingly exalted is in sight.

14 Justice and judgment of thy throne
are made the dwelling place:

Mercy accompany'd with truth,
shall go before thy face.

15 O greatly blest the people are

PSALM LXXXIX.

- the joyful sound that know:
 In brightness of thy face, G L O R I O U S, they ever on shall go.
- 15 They in thy Name shall all the day
 rejoice exceedingly;
 And in thy righteousness shall they exalted be for euer.
- 17 Because the glory of thine strength
 doth only stand in thee,
 And in thy favour shall our horn
 and power exalted be.
- 18 For God is our defence, and he
 to us doth safely bring:
 The help One of Israel,
 is our almighty King.
- 19 In vision to thy help One,
 thou said'st, I help upon
 A strong One laid, out of the folk
 I raised a chosen One,
- 20 Euen David, I have found him out
 a servant unto me:
 And with my help oft, my King
 anointed him to be.
- 21 With whom my hand shall stablished be,
 mine arm shall make him strong.
- 22 On him the foe shall not exact,
 nor son of mischief wrong.
- 23 I will beat down before his face,
 all his malicious foes:
 I will them greatly plague who do with hatred him oppose,
- 24 My mercy and my faithfulness
 with him per still shall be:
 And in my Name his horn and power men shall exalted see.
- 25 His hand and power shall reach as far:
 He's set it in the sea:
 And his right hand established,
 shall in the waters be.
- 26 Thou art my Father, he shall cry,
 Thou art my G O D alone.
 And he shall say, Thou art the Rock
 of my salvation.

PSALM LXXXIX.

- 27 I'll make him my first borne, more high
than Kings of any land.
- 28 My love I'll ever keep for him,
my Cov'nant fast shall stand.
- 29 His seed I by my pow'r will make
forever to endure:
And as the days of heav'n his throne
shall stable be and sure.
- 30 But if his children shall forsake
my laws, and go a stray,
And in my judgments shall not walk,
but wander from my way.
- 31 If they my laws break, and do not keep my commandments;
- 32 I'll visit then their faults with rods,
their sins with chastisements.
- 33 Yet I'll not take my love from him,
nor false my promise make.
- 34 My Cov'nant I'll not break, nor change
what with my mouth I spake.
- 35 Once by my Holiness I swore to David: I'll not lie;
- 36 His seed and throne shall as the Sun,
before me last for ay.
- 37 It like the Moon, shall ever be establish'd steadfastly;
And like to that which in the heav'n doth witness faithfully.
- 38 But thou displeased, hast cast off,
thou didst abhor and loath;
With him that thine Anointed is,
thou hast been very wroth.
- 39 Thou hast thy servants covenant made void and quite cast by:
Thou hast prophan'd his Crown, while he cast on the ground doth lie.
- 40 Thou all his hedges hast broke down,
his strong holds down hast torn.
- 41 He to all passers by a spoil,
to neighbours is a scorn.
- 42 Thou hast set up his foes right hand,
mad'st all his enemies glad:
- 43 Turn'd his sword's edge, and him to stand

PSALM LXXIX. XC.

in battell hast not made.

44 His glorie thou hast made to cease,
his throne to ground down cast:

45 Shortned his dayes of youth, and him with shame thou covered hast.

46 How long, Lord, wilt thou hide thy self forever in thine ire?

And shall thy indignation
burn like unto a fire?

47 Remember, Lord how short a time
I shall on earth remain:

Wherefore is it so, that thou hast made all men in vain?

48 What man is he that lieth here
and death shall never see?

From the power of the grave,
what man his soul shall free?

49 Thy former loving-kindnesses,

O Lord, where be they now?

Those which in truth and faithfulness
to David sworn hast thou.

50 Mind, Lord, thy servants sad reproach;
how I in bosom bear,

The scorings of the people all,
who strong and mighty are.

51 Wherewith thy raging enemies
reproacht, O Lord, think on:

Wherewith they have reproacht the Holy of thine anointed One.

52 All blessing to the Lord our God;
let be ascribed then;

For evermore so let it be;

Amen; pea, and Amen.

PSALM XC.

[O Lord, thou hast been our dwelling-place in generations all.

1 Before thou ever hadst brought forth
the mountains great or small:

Ere ever thou hadst form'd the earth,
and all the world abroad:

Ev'n thou from everlasting art to everlasting God.

2 Thou dost unto destruction

PSALM XC

- man that is mortal turn ;
 And unto them thou say'st again
 ye sons of men, return.
- 4 Because a thousand years appera
 no more before thy sight
 Than yesterday, when it is past, or than a watch by night.
- 5 As with an overflowing flood,
 thou carriest them away :
 They like asleep are ; like the grass that grows at noon are they ;
- 6 At noon it flourisheth and grows,
 cut down at ev'n both fade.
- 7 For by thine anger we consume ;
 thy wrath makes us afraid.
- 8 Our sins thou and iniquities
 dost in thy presence place.
 And sett'st our secret faults before
 the brightness of thy face.
- 9 For in thine anger all our days
 do pass un'to an end :
 And as a tale that hath been told,
 so we our years do spend.
- 10 Threescore and ten years do sum up
 our days and years we see ;
 Or if by reason of more strength,
 in some fourscore they be :
- Yet both the strength of such old men,
 but grief and labour prede ;
 For it is soon cut off, and we slip hence, and soon remove.
- 11 Who knows the power of thy wrath,
 according to thy fear :
- 12 So is thy wrath : O LORD, teach thou us
 our end in mind to bear :
 And so to count our days that we
 our hearts may still apply,
 To learn thy wisdom, and thy truth,
 that we may live thereby.
- 13 Turn yet again to us, O LORD,
 how long thus shall it be !
 Let it repent thee, now for those that servants are to thee,

PSALM XCII

14 O with thy tender mercies, LORD
us early satisfie:

So we rejoyce shall all our dayes,
and still be glad in thee.

15 According as the dayes have been wherein we grief have had.

And tears wherein we ill have seen,
so do thou make us glad.

16 O let thy work and pow'r appear thy servants face before:

And shew unto their children dear,
thy glorie evermore.

17 And let the beauty of the LORD
our GOD, be us upon:

Our handys=works establish thou establish them each one.

PSALM XCI.

HE that doth in the secret place
of the most High reside;

Under the shade of him that is thy Almighty shall abide.

2 I of the LORD, my GOD, will say,
he is my refuge still:

He is my fortress, and my GOD;
and in him trust I will.

3 Assuredly he shall thee save,
and give deliverance

From subtile fowlers snare, and from the noysome pestilence.

4 His fathers shall thee hide: thy trust under his wings shall be.

His faithfulness shall be a shield
and buckler unto thee.

5 Thou shalt not need to be afraid
for terrors of the night:

Nor for the arrow that doth flye
by day while it is light.

6 Nor for the pestilence that walketh
in darkness secretly;

Nor for destruction that doth waste
at noon day openly.

7 A thousand at thy side shall fall;
on thy right hand shall be

PSALM XCII

Dead: yet unto thee
 thou shalt once come nigh.
 Thou with thine eyes shalt look,
 and a beholder be;
 And thou therein the just reward
 of wicked men shalt see.

9 Because the Lord who constantly
 my refuge is alone:
 Ev'n the most High, is made by thee
 thy habitation.

10 No plague shall near thy dwelling come;
 no ill shall thee befall;

11 For thee to keep in all thy wayes,
 his Angels charge he shall.

12 They in their hands shall bear thee up,
 still waiting thee upon,
 Lest thou at any time shouldst dash
 thy foot against a stone.

13 Upon the adder thou shalt tread,
 and on the Lyon strong:
 Thy feet on dragons trample shall,
 and on the Lyons young.

14 Because on me he set his love,
 I'll save and set him free:
 Because my great Name he hath known,
 I will him set on high.

15 Hee'll call on me, I'll answer him
 I will be with him still,
 I'll trouble to deliver him,
 and honor him I will.

16 With length of dayes unto his mind,
 I will him satisfie:
 I also my salvation
 will cause his eyes to see.

PSALM XCII

To render thanks unto the Lord;
 It is a comely thing:
 And to thy Name, O thou most High,
 due praise aloud to sing.

2 Thy loving-kindness to whom forth,
 when shines the morning light:
 And to declare thy faithfulness,
 with pleasure every night.

PSALM XCII.

- 3 On a ten-stringed instrument,
upon the psalterie :
And on the harp with solemn sound,
and grave sweet melodie
4 For thou, LORD, by thy mighty works, hast made my heart right glad ;
And I will triumph in the works
which by thine hands were made.
How great LORD, are thy works : each thought of thine a deep it is :
6 A brutish man it knoweth not ;
fools understand not this.
7 When those that lewd and wicked are ;
syring quickl^y up like grass,
And workers of iniquity
do flourish all apace ;
It is that they for ever may destroyed be and slain :
8 But thou, O LORD, art the most high ;
for ever to remain .
9 For lo , thine enemies , O LORD ;
thine enemies perish shall :
The workers of iniquity
shall be dispersed all.
10 But thou shalt like unto the DOVE
of thy Ark : thou shalt stand upon high ; thou with fresh oil anoint me also shalt.
11 Mine eye shall also my desire see on mine enemies ;
Mine ear shall of the wicked hear :
that do against me rise.
12 But like the Palm-tree flourishing shall be the righteous one :
We shall like to the Cedar grow ,
that is in Lebanon.
13 Those that within the house of GO
are planted by his grace,
They shall grow up , and flourish all in our God's help Place.
14 And in old age , when others fade ;
they fruit still forth shall bring :
They shall be fat , and full of sap

PSALM XCIII.

and as he flourisheth.

- 15 To them that upright is the LORD,
he is a rock to me :
And he from all unrighteousness,
is altogether free.

PSALM XCIII.

The LORD both reign, and cloth'd is he
with majesty most bright :

His works do show him cloth'd to be,
and girt about with might :

The world is also stablished,
that it cannot depart.

2 Thy throne is firm of old, and thou from everlasting art.

3 The floods, O LORD, have lifted up,
they lifted up their voice ;

The floods have lifted up their waves,
and made a mighty noise.

4 But yet the LORD that is on high,
is more of might by far,

Than noise of many waters is,
or great sea billows are.

5 Thy testimonies every one,
in faithfulness excel :

And holiness for ever LORD,
thy house becometh well.

PSALM XCIV.

O LORD God, unto whom alone
all vengeance both belong ;

O mighty God, who vengeance own'st,
saine forth, avenging wrong.

2 Lift up thy self thou of the earth
the sovereign Judge that art ;

And unto those that are so proud,
a due reward impart.

3 How long, O mighty God, shall they who lewd and wicked be ;

How long shall they who wicked are,
thus triumph haughtily ?

4 How long shall things most hard by them be uttered and told ?

And all that work iniquity,

so boast themselves be hold :

PSALM XCIV.

- 5 Thy folk they break in pieces, LORD,
thine heritage oppress.
- 6 The wisdom they, and stranger slay,
and kill the fatherless.
- 7 But say they, God it shall not see,
nor GOD of Jacob know.
He brutish people understand:
fools, when wise will be grown?
- 8 The LORD did plant the ear of man;
and hear then shall not he?
- 9 He only form'd the eye: and then shall he not sharply see?
- 10 He that the Nations doth correct,
shall he not chastise you;
He knowledge unto man doth teach,
and shall himself not know?
- 11 Man's thoughts to be but vanity;
the LORD doth well discern.
- 12 Best is the man thou chastenest, Lord,
and make'st thy law to learn:
- 13 That thou may'st give him rest from days
of sad adversity,
Until the pit be digg'd for those
that work iniquity.
- 14 For sure the Lord will not cast off
those that his people be; Neither his own inheritance
quit and forsake will he.
- 15 But judgment unto righteousness
shall yet return again,
And all shall follow after it
that are right-hearted men.
- 16 Who will rise up for me, against
those that do wickedly?
- Who will stand up for me 'gainst those
that work iniquity?
- 17 Unless the Lord had been my help,
when I was sore oppress'd, Almost my soul had in the house
of silence been at rest.
- 18 When I had uttered this word;
my foot doth slip away;
Thy mercy held me up, O Lord,

PSALM XCV.

- thy goodness did me stay.
 19 Amidst the multitude of thoughts,
 which in my heart do fight;
 My soul, lest it be overcharg'd,
 thy comforts do delight.
 20 Shall of iniquity the throne
 have fellowship with thee,
 Which mischief cunningly contriv'd,
 both by a late decree?
 21 Against the righteous souls they forgo,
 they guiltless blood condemn;
 22 But of my refuge God's the Rock,
 and my defence from them.
 23 On them their own iniquity,
 the Lord shall bring and lay.
 And cut them off in their own sin,
 our Lord God shall them slay.

PSALM XCV.

- O Come, let us sing to the Lord:
 come, let us every one;
 A joyful noise make to the Rock
 of our salvation.
 2 Let us before his presence come with praise and thankful voice;
 Let us sing Psalms to him with grace,
 and make a joyful noise.
 3 For God a great God, and great King above all Gods he is.
 4 Depths of the earth are in his hand,
 the strength of hills is his.
 5 To him the spacious sea belongs,
 for he the same did make;
 The deep land also from his hands,
 his foam at first did take.
 6 O come, and let us worship him,
 let us bow down in hail.
 And on our knees before the Lord,
 our Maker, let us fall.
 7 For he's our God, the people too
 of his own pasture are.
 And of his hand the sheep to day
 if he his voice will hear,
 8 Then harden not your hearts, as in

PSALM XCVR

the probation?

As in the desert, on the day of the temptation.

9 When me pour fathers tempt'd and pigh'd
and did my working see:

10 E'n for the space of forty years,
this race hath grieved me:

I said, this people errs in heart,
my wayes they do not know;

11 To whom I swore in wrath, that to my rest they should not go.

PSALM XCVI.

O Sing a new Song to the LORD;
sing all the earth to God:

2 To God sing, bless his Name, shew forth his saving health abroad.

3 Among the Heathen Nations
his glory do declare:

And unto all the people shew
his wonders that wondrous are.

4 For great is the Lord, and greatly he is to be magnify'd:

Yea, worthy to be fear'd is he,
above all Gods beside.

5 For all the Gods are idols dumb,
which blinded Nations fear:

But our GOD is the Lord, by whom the heavens created were.

6 Great honour is before his face,
and Majesty divine.

Strength is within his holy place,
and there doth beauty shine.

7 Oo pou ascribe unto the LORD,
of people every tribe:

Glory do pou unto the LORD,
and mighty pow'r ascribe.

8 Give ye the glory to the LORD,
that to his Name is due:

Come ye into his courts, and bring an offering with you.

9 In beauty of his Holiness,
O Oo the Lord adore.

Likewise let all the earth throughout.

PSALM XCVI.

Remble his face before,

- 10 Among the Heathen say; God reigns:
the world shall not fall;
Before from morning: he shall judge
the people righteously.
- 11 Let heav'n be glad before the Lord,
and let the earth rejoice:
Let seas and all that is therein,
cry out and make a noise.
- 12 Let fields rejoice and every thing
that springeth of the earth:
Then woods and every tree shall sing with gladness and with mirth
- 13 Before the Lord; because he comes,
to judge the earth: comes he:
He'll judge the world with righteousness,
the people faithfully.

PSALM XCVII.

- GOD reigneth, let the earth be glad,
and Isles rejoice each one.
- 2 Dark clouds him compass, and in right with judgment dwells his throne.
 - 3 Fire goes before him, and his feet
it burns up round about.
 - 4 His lightnings lightned did the world,
earth saw, and shook throughout.
 - 5 Hills at the presence of the Lord
like wax did melt away;
Eb'n at the presence of the Lord
of all the earth, I say.
 - 6 The heav'n's declare his righteousness,
all men his glory see.
 - 7 All who serve graven Images,
confounded let them be.
- Who do of Idols boast themselves,
let shame upon them fall:
He that are called Gods, see that ye do him worship all.
- 8 Zion did hear, and joyful was,
glad Judah's daughters were;
They much rejoice'd O Lord, because thy judgments do appear.

9 For thou, O LORD, art high above

PSALM XCVIIE.

all things on earth that are:
Whoe alt a her Gods thou art
eralted hee far.

10 Oare i l all pe that lake the LORD,
his Saluts souls keepest he;
And from the hands of micked men,
he seer them safe and free.

11 For all those that be righteous
sown is a ioyful light;

And gladness sown is for all those that are in heart right.

12 Be righteous in the LORD reioyce, troyes your thankfulness,
When ye into your memozy
do call his Holiness

PSALM XCVIII.

O Sing a new song to the LORD,
for monders he hath done:

His right hand and his holp arm,
him victozy hath won.

2 The Lord GOD his salbatton
hath caused to be known:

His iustice in the heathens sight,
he reueng hath shon.

3 He mindful of his grace and truth;
to Israels house hath been:

And the salbatton of our GOD.
all ends of th'earth have seen.

4 Let all the earth unto the Lord
send forth a ioyful noise;

Lift up your voice aloud to him,
sing praises and reioyce.

5 With harp, with harp, and voices of Psalms unto Jehovah sing.

6 With trumpets, coyrets, gladly sound
before the Lord, the King.

7 Let seas, and all their founes roar,
the world, and dwellers there.

8 Let floods clap hands, and let the hills together ioy declare.

9 Before the Lord, because he comes,
to iudge the earth comes he:

He'll iudge the world with righteousness.

PSALM XCIX.

his folk with equitie.

PSALM XCIX.

The Eternal Lord doth reign as King;
let all the people quake;

He sits between the Cherubims,
let th'earth be mov'd and shake.

2 The Lord in Zion great, and high above all people is.

3 Thy great and dreadful Name (for it is holp) let them bless.

4 The Kings strength also judgement lovest,
thou sett'st equitie:

Just judgement thou dost execute
in Jacob righteousness.

5 The Lord our God exalt on his,
and reverently do ye

Before his foot-stool worship him:
the Holp One is he.

6 Moses and Aaron 'mongst his Priests,
Samuel with them that call

Upon his Name; these call'd on God,
and he them answer'd all.

7 Within the pillar of the cloud
he unto them did speak:

The testimonies he them taught and laws they did not break.

8 Thou answer'dst them, O Lord, our God, thou wast a God, that gave

Pardon to them, though on their deeds thou wouldest vengeance have.

9 Do ye exalt the Lord, our God,
and at his holp Hill

Do ye him worship, for the LORD.
our God is holp still.

PSALM C.

All people that on earth do dwell,

Sing to the Lord with cheerful voice.

2 Him serve with mirth, his praise forth tell:
Come ye before him and rejoice.

3 Know that the LORD is God indeed, Without our aid he did us make;

We see his flock, he doth us feed,

And for his sheep he doth us take.

PSALM CI.

4 Enter then his gates with praise, approach with joy his courts unto:
 praise, laud, and bless his Name alwayes
 for it is seemly so to do.
 5 For whp, the Lord our GOD is good,
 his mercie is forever sure:
 his truth at all times firmly stood,
 And shall from age to age endure.

Another of the same.

O All ye lands, unto the LORD,
 make ye a joyful noise.
 2 Serve God with gladness, him before come with a singing voice.
 3 Know ye the LORD that he is GOD:
 not we, but he us made:
 We are his people, and the sheep
 within his pasture fed.
 4 Enter his gates and courts with praise;
 to thank him go ye thither:
 To him express your thankfulness,
 and bless his Name together.
 5 Because the Lord, our God, is good,
 his mercie faileth never;
 And to all generations
 his truth endureth ever.

PSALM CI:

I Mercie will and judgment sing,
 Lord, I will sing to thee.
 2 With wisdom in a perfect way shall my behavioꝝ be.
 O when in kindness unto me,
 wilt thou be pleas'd to come:
 I with a perfect heart will walk
 within my house at home.
 3 I will endure no wicked thing
 before mine eyes to be:
 I hate their work that turn aside,
 it shall not cleave to me.
 4 A stubborn and a forward heart,
 depart quite from me shall:
 A person giv'n to wickedness,
 I will not know at all.
 5 Cut him off that standeth

PSALM CII.

his neighbour vsbitp:

The haughty heart I will not bear,
nor him that looketh me.

6 Upon the fatyful of the land mine eyes shall be, that they May dwell with me. he shall me serue that walkes in perfect way.

7 Who of deceit a moxher is;
in my house shall not dwell:

And in my presence shall he not remain that lies doyn tell.

8 Hea all the in thed of the land
early besitop will I:

All from Gods City to cut off,
that work iniquity.

PSALM CII.

O Lord, unto my pray'r gibe ear;
my cry let come to thee:

2 And in the day of my distress,
hide not thy face from me.

Give ear to me what time I call;
to answer me make haste.

3 For as an hearth my bones are burnt;
my daies like smoke do waste.

4 My heart within me smitten is,
and it is withered.

Like very grass, so that I do
forget to eat my bread,

5 By reason of my growling voice;
my bones cleave to my skin.

6 Like the Pelican in wilderness, forsaken I have been.

I like an owl in desert am,
that nightlyp there do moan;

7 I watch. and like a sparrow am,
on the house top alone.

8 My bitter en'nies all the day
reproaches cast on me.

And belua mad at me with rage against me sworn they be.

9 For myp. I eses eaten have,
like bread in forgoinge beep,

My drink I also mingled have

PSALM CII.

with tears that I did weep.

10 Thy wrath and indignation:
did cause this grief and pain:
For thou hast lift me up on high,
and cast me down again.

11 My hopes are like unto a shade,
which doth declining pass:
And I am drey'd and withered,
ev'n like unto the grass.

12 But thou, O LORD, everlasting art, and thy remembrance shall Continually endure, and be
to generations all.

13 Thou shalt arise and mercy have upon thy Zion yet:
The time to favour her is come,
the time that thou hast set.

14 For in her rubbish, and her stones;
thy servants pleasure take:
Hea they the very dust thereof
do save: for her sake.

15 So shall the Heathen people fear
the LORDs most holy Name:
And all the Kings on earth shall dread
thy glory and thy fame.

16 When Zion by the mighty LORD built up again shall be,
In glory then and majesty,
to men appear shall be.

17 The prayer of the destitute
he surely will regard:
Their prayer will he not despise,
by him it shall be heard.

18 For generations yet to come,
this shall be on record:
So shall the people that shall be created, praise the LORD.

19 O from his Sanctuaries height
he will as now and cast his eye,
And from his glorious throne in heav'n
the LORD the earth and sea

20 That of the mournful prisoners,
the groanings he might hear,

PSALM CII.

To set them free that unto death
by men appointed are.

1. That they in Sion may declare
the Lords most holy Name,
And publish in Jerusalem
the praises of the same.

2. Whenas the people gather shall in troups with one accord;
When Kingdoms shall assembled be to serue the highest LORD.

3. My wanted force and strength he hath abated in the way:
And he my dayes hath shortned:
thus therefore did I say:

4. My God in mid-time of my dayes, take thou me not away:
From age to age, eternally
thy yeares endure and stay.

5. The firm foundation of the earth
of old time thou hast laid:
The heauens also are the work which thine own hands have made.

6. Thou shalt for evermore endure,
but they shall perish all:

Hea, every one of them wax old,
like to a garment shall.

Thou as a vesture shalt them change,
and they shall changed be.

7. But thou the same art, and thy yeares, are to eternitie.

8. The childzen of thy seruants shall continually endure.

And in thy sight, O LORD, their seed
shall be establishd sure.

Another of the same.

LORD, hear my pray'r, and let my cry
have speedy access unto thee.

2. In day of my calamity, hide not thou thy face from me.

Hear when I call to thee; that day

in answer speedily return,

3. My dayes like smoke consume away;

And as a hearth my bones do burn,

PSALM CII.

4 My heart is wounded very sore,
And withered like to grass, doth fade:
I am forgetful grown therefore.
To take and eat my daily bread.
5 By reason of my smart within,
And voice of my most grievous groaning,
My flesh consumed is: my skin
Will parche, doth cleave unto my bones.

6 The Pelican of wilderness,
The owl in desert I do match.
7 And sparrow like companionless,
Upon the houses top I watch.
8 I all day long am made a scorn,
Reproacht by my malicious foes:
The mad men are against me sworn;
The men against me that arose.

9 For I have ashes eaten up,
To me as if they had been bread:
And with my drink I in my cup,
Of bitter tears a mixture made.
10 Because thy wrath was not appeased
And dreadful indignation;
Therefore it was that thou me raised.
And thou again didst cast me down.

11 My dayes are like a shade away,
Which doth declining swiftly pass:
And I am withered away.
Much like unto the fading grass.
12 But thou, O Lord, shalt still endure,
From change and all mutation free:
And to all generations sure,
Shall thy remembrance ever be.

13 Thou shalt arise, and mercie get Thou to mount Sion shalt extend:
Her time for favour which was set,
Behold, is come now to an end.
14 Thy Saints take pleasure in her stones;
Her very dust to them is dear.

15 All heathen lands and kingly thrones
On earth thy glorious Name shall fear,

16 God in his glory shall appear.
When Sion be builded and repaired.

17 He shall regard and lend his ear

PSALM CIII.

Unto the needies humble pzap'rs :

Wh' afflicted pzap'r he will not scorn.

18 All times this shall be in recozd ;

And generations yet undozn

Shall praise and magnifie the LORD.

19 He from his holy Place look'd down
The earth he view'd from heav'n on hy :

20 To hear the pzisoners mourning groan,
And free them that are damn'd to die :

21 That Sion and Yerusalem too
His Name and praise may well recozd,

22 When people and the Kingdoms do Assemble all so praise the Lord.

23 My strength he weakened in the way,
My daies of life he shortned ,

24 My GOD . O take me not away
In mid-time of my daies , I said.

Thy pears througheu' all ages last.

25 O old thou hast established

The earth's foundation firm and fast :

Thy mighty hands the heav'ns have made.

26 They perish shall . as garments do ;

But thou shalt evermore endure :

As vestures thou shalt change them so,

And they shall all be changed sure.

27 But from all changes thou art free ,

Thy endless pears do last for ay.

28 Thy servants and their seed who be

Establish'd, shall befoze thee stay.

PSALM CIII.

O Thou my soul . bless God the Lord ,

and all that in me is

Be stirred up, his holy Name

to magnifie and bless.

2 Bless . O my soul , the Lord thy God , and not forgetful be.

Of all his gracious benefits

he hath bestow'd on thee.

3 Whithine iniquities who doth

most graciousl'p forgive :

Who thy diseases all and pains

doth heal . and thee relieve.

4 Who doth redeem thy life , that thou

PSALM CMI.

- to death may not go down :
 Who thee with loving kindness doth
 and tender mercies crown.
- 5 Who with abundance of good things
 doth satisfie thy mouth :
 So that , ev'n as the Eagles age ,
 renewed is thy youth.
- 6 God righteous judgment executes ,
 for all oppressed ones.
- 7 His way to Moses , he his acts
 made known to Israels sons.
- 8 The LORD our GOD is merciful :
 and he is gracious ;
 Long-suffering and slow to wrath ,
 in mercy plenteous.
- 9 He will not chide continually ,
 nor keep his anger still.
- 10 With us he dealt not as we sinners ,
 nor did requite our ill.
- 11 For as the heaven in its height
 the earth surmounteth far ,
 So great to those that do him fear ,
 his tender mercies are .
- 12 As far as East is distant from the West , so far hath he from us removed , in his love ,
 all our iniquitie .
- 13 Such pity as a father hath unto his children dear , Like pity shows the LORD to such as worship him in fear .
- 14 For he remembers we are dust ,
 and he our frame well knows .
- 15 Frail man , his days are like the grass ,
 as flow'r in field he grows .
- 16 For over it the wind doth pass ,
 and it away is gone :
 And of the place where once it was
 it shall no more be known .
- 17 But unto them that do him fear ,
 Gods mercy never ends ;
 And to their childrens children still his righteousness extends .

PSALM CII.

18 To such as keep his Covenant,
and mindfull are alway

Of his most iust commandments,
that they may them obey.

19 The LORD prepared hath his throne
in heaven firm to stand;

And euerp thing that being hath his Kingdom doth command.

20 Ope his Angels, that excel
in strength, bless ye the Lord;

He who obey what he commands,
and hearken to his word.

21 O bless and magnifie the Lord,
ye glorious hosts of his:

He Ministers, that do fulfill what euer his pleasure is.

22 O bless the Lord, all ye his works
wherewith the world is stor'd:

In his dominions euerp where,
my soul bless thou the LORD,

PSALM CII.

Bless God my soul: O Lord, my God,
thou art exceeding great:

With honoꝝ and with majesty,
thou clothed art in state.

2 With light, as with a robe, thy self thou coverest about:

And, like unto a curtain, thou
the heavens stretchest out.

3 Who of his chambers doth the beams
within the waters lay;

Who doth the clouds his chariot make,
of wings of wind make way.

4 Who flaming fire his ministers,
his Angels sp'rits doth make:

5 Who earths foundations did lay,
that it should never shake.

6 Thou didst it cover with the deep,
as with a garment spread.

The waters stood above the hills,
when thou the word but said.

7 But at the voice of thy rebuke,
they fled, and would not stay:

They

and by the valley ground

Descend, unto that very place
whiche thou for them didst found.

2 Thou hast a bound unto them set,
that they may not passe over,

That they do not return again
the face of earth to cover.

3 He to the valleys seeds the springs
whiche run among the hills:

4 Ther to all beasts of field give drink wild asses drink their fill.

5 By them the fowls of heave'n shall have
their habitation.

Whiche do among the branches sing
with delectation.

6 He from his chambers watereth
the hills, when they are dry'd:

With fruit and increase of thy moths
the earth is satisf'd.

7 For rattel he makes grass to grow,
he makes the herb to spring

 From him the Sun, his certain time

- 20 Thou darkness mak'st, 't'is night, then beasts

 and seek their meat from G O D.
- 22 The Sun doth rise, and bringeth forth

- 23 Man goes to work, his labour he

- 24 How manifold, Lord, are thy works
 in wisdom wonderful ;
 Thou every one of them hast made :
 earth's of thy riches full.
- 25 So is this great and spacious sea,
 wherein things creeping are,
 Which numbered cannot be, and beasts
 both great and small are there.
- 26 There ships go, there thou mak'st to play

 Thine hand thou openest liberally,
 they are filled with good.
- 29 Thou hid'st thy face, they troubled are :
 their breath thou tak'st away ;
 When do they die, and to their dust return again do they.
- 30 Thy quickning Spirit thou sendest forth,
 then they created be :
 And then the earths decayed face,
 renewed is by thee.
- 31 The glory of the mighty Lord,
 continue shall forever :
 The Lord, Jehovah, shall repose
 in all his works together.
- 32 Earth as affrighted, trembleth all
 if he on it but look ;
 And if the mountains he but touch,
 they presently do smoke.

PSALM CV.

33 I will sing to the LORD most high,
so long as I shall live:

And while I being have, I shall
to my GOD praises give.

34 Of him my meditation shall sweet thoughts to me afford;

And as for me, I will rejoyce
in GOD, my only LORD.

35 From earth let sinners be consum'd:
let ill men no more be.

O thou my soul, bless thou the Lord:
praise to the LORD give ye.

PSALM CV.

G Ibe thanks to God, call on his Name,
to men his deeds make known:

2 Sing ye to him, sing Psalms, proclaim his wondrous works each one.

3 See that ye in his holy Name
to glory do accord:

And let the heart of every one rejoyce, that seek the LORD.

4 The Lord Almighty, and his strength,
with steadfast hearts seek ye;

His blessed and his gracious face seek ye continually.

5 Think on the works that he hath done,
which admiration breed;

His wonders, and the judgments all,
which from his mouth proceed.

6 O ye that are of Abrahams race,
his servants well approv'd;

And ye that Jacobs children are,
whom he choos'd for his own;

7 Because he and he only is the mighty LORD our GOD;

And his most righteous judgments are
in all the earth abroad.

8 His Covenant he remembred hath that it may ever stand.

To thousand generations
the word he did command.

9 Which Covenant he firmly made with faithful Abraham.

PSALM CV.

And unto Isaac, by his oath
he did renew the same.

10 And unto Jacob, for a law
he made it firm and sure;

A covenant to Israel,
which ever should endure.

11 He said, I'll give Canaan's land
for heritage to you:

12 While they were strangers there, and few in number very few.

13 While yet they went from land to land,
without a sure abode;

And while, through sundry kingdoms, they did wander far abroad.

14 Yet notwithstanding suffered he,
no man to do them wrong:

Yea, for their sakes, he did reprove
kings, who were great and strong.

15 Thus did he say: Touch ye not those that mine Anointed be;

For do the Prophets any harm,
that do pertain to me.

16 He call'd for famine on the land,
he brake the staff of bread.

17 But yet he sent a man before,
by whom they should be fed.

Even Joseph, whom unnaturally sell for a slave did they;

18 Whose feet with fetters they did hure,
and he in iron a lap;

19 Until the time that his word came to give him liberty.

The word and purpose of the LORD
did him in prison keep.

20 Then sent the King, and did command that he enlarg'd should be:

He that the peoples Butler was,
did send to set him free.

21 A Lord, to rule his family,
he rais'd him as most fit:

To him of all that he possess'd,
he did the charge commit.

22 That he might at his pleasure bind

PSALM CV.

- the Rulers of the land:
 And he might teach his Senators wisdom to understand.
- 21 The people then of Israel
 down into Egypt came:
 And Jacob also journeyed
 within the land of Ham.
- 22 And he did greatly, by his power,
 increase his people there.
 And stronger than their enemies
 they by his blessing were.
- 23 Their heart he turned to envy
 his folk maliciously;
 With those that his own servants were
 to deal in subtilty.
- 24 His servant Moses he did send,
 Aaron his chosen one:
- 25 By these his signs and wonders great in Ham's land were made known.
- 26 Darkness he sent, and made it dark,
 his word they did obey.
- 27 He turn'd their waters into blood,
 and he their fish did slay.
- 28 The Lord in plenty brought forth frogs in chambers of their kings.
- 29 His word all sorts of flies, and lice,
 in all their borders bringeth.
- 30 He hail for rain, and flaming fire
 into their land he sent:
- 31 And he their vines and fig-trees smote,
 trees of their coast he rent.
- 32 He spake and caterpillars came,
 locust did much abound,
- 33 Which in their land all herbs consum'd,
 and all fruits of their ground.
- 34 He smote all first-born in their land,
 chief of their strength each one.
- 35 With gold and silver brought them forth weak in their tribes were none.
- 36 Egypt was glad when forth they went,
 their fear on them did light.
- 37 He spread a cloud for covering,
 and fire to shine by night.

PSALM CVI.

40 They aske, and he brought quails; with bread of heab'n he filled them.

41 He op'ned rocks, floods gush't and ran in deserts, like a stream.

42 For on his holy promise he,
and servant Abraham thought.

43 With joy his people, his elect with gladness forth he brought.

44 And unto them the pleasant lands
he of the heathen gave;

That of the peoples labours they inheritance might have.

45 That they his statutes might observe
according to his word;

And that they might his laws obey:
give praise unto the Lord.

PSALM CVI.

GIVE praise and thanks unto the Lord,
for bountifull is he;

His tender mercie both endure
unto eternitie.

1 Gods mighty works who can express,
or shew forth all his praise?

3 Blessed are they that judgment keep,
and justly do at ways.

4 Remember me, LORD. with that love
which thou to thine dost bear;

With thy salvation, O my GOD,
to visit me, draw near:

5 That I thy choicest good may see,
and in their joy rejoyce;

And may with thine inheritance,
triumph with cheerful voice.

6 We with our fathers stained have,
and of iniquity

Too long we have the workers been;
we have done wickedly.

7 The wonders great which thou, O Lord,
didst work in Egypt land,

Our fathers thought they saw, yet them
they did not understand.

And they thy mercies multitude kept not in memory;

PSALM CVL

- But at the sea, ev'n the red sea,
 p'roboh'o p'm grievously.
 8 Hebertzeless he saved them,
 ev'n fo' his own names sake,
 That so, he might, to be well known,
 his migh: p' pover make.
- 9 When he the red sea did rebuke,
 then dyed up it was;
 Th'ough depths, as th'ough the wilderness:
 he safely made them pass.
- 10 From hands of those that hated them,
 he did his people save:
 And from the enemies cruel hand,
 to them redemption gave.
- 11 The waters overwhelm'd thier foes,
 not one was left alive:
 12 Then thep believ'd his word, and praise
 to him in songs did give.
- 13 But soon did thep his migh: p' works
 fo'get: unthankfull;
 And on his counsel and his will
 did not wait patientl'y.
- 14 But much did lust in wilderness,
 and G D in desert tempt.
 15 He gave them what thep sought, but to their soul he leanness sent.
- 16 And against Moses, in the camp
 their env'y did appear:
 At Aaron thep the saint of G D, envious also were.
- 17 Therefore the earth did open wide,
 and Dathan did devour,
 And all Abiram's compan'y
 did cover in that hour.
- 18 Likewise among their compan'y
 a fire was kindled then,
 And so the hor consuming flame
 burnt up these wicked men.
- 19 Upon the hill of Mozeb, thep
 an idol calf did frame:
 A molten Image thep did make,
 and worshipped the same.
- 20 And thus thep glorr, and their G d,

PSALM CVI.

most bairnly changed they Into the likeness of an ox
that eateth grass of hay.

21 They did forget the mighty GOD,
that had their Saviour been;
By whom so great things brought to pass,
they had in Egypt seen.

22 In Ham's lands he did wondrous works, things terrible did he.
When he his mighty hand and arm
stretcht out at the Red sea.

23 Then said he, We would them destroy,
had not his wrath to lay.
His chosen Moses stood in breach,
that them he should not slay.

24 Hea they despis'd the pleasant land,
believed not his word;

25 But in their tents they murmured, not hearkning to the LORD.

26 Therefore in desert them to slay,
he lifted up his hand:

27 Among Nations to scatter their seed,
and scatter in each land:

28 They unto Baal-Deo; did themselves assort;

The sacrifices of the dead
they did prophane eat.

29 Thus, by their lewd inventions
they did provoke his ire;

And then upon them suddenly
the plague brake in as fire.

30 Then Phineas rose, and justice did,
and so the plague did cease:

31 That to all ages counted was to him for righteousness.

32 And at the waters where they strove,
they did him angry make,

In such sort, that it fared ill
with Moses for their sake.

33 Because they there his spirit meek
provoked bitterly,

So that he uttered with his lips
words unadvisedly.

PSALM CVI.

- 33 For, as the LORD commanded them,
did they the Nations slap ;
34 But with the heathen mingled were ,
and learn'd of them their way.
35 And they their Idols serv'd , which did
a snare unto them turn :
37 Their sons and daughters they to devils
in sacrifice did burn.
38 In their own childrens guiltless blood
their hands they did embzein , Whom to Canaans Idols they
for sacrifices slew.
39 So was the land defil'd with blood ;
they stain'd with their own way ;
And with their own inventions
a whoring they did stray.
40 Against his people kindled was the wrath of GOD therefore ;
Insomuch that he did his own inheritance abhorre.
41 He gave them to the heathens hand ,
their foes did them command.
42 Their enemies them oppress , they were made subject to their hand.
43 He many times delivered ,
but with their counsel so They him provok'd that for their sin ,
they were brought very low.
44 For their affliction he beheld,
when he did hear their cry :
45 And he for them his Covenant
did call to memory :

After his merities multitude
he did repent : And made

- 46 Them to be pity'd of all those who them did captive lead.
47 O LORD, our GOD, us save and gather the heathen from among.
That we thy holy Name may praise
in a triumphall song.
48 Bless be Jehovah, Israel's GOD ,
to all eternitie :
Let all the people say, Amen ;

PSALM CVII.

Praise to the LORD give ye.

PSALM. CVII.

Praise GOD, for he is good ;
his mercies lasting be ,

2 Let God's redeem'd say so, whom he from th'en'mies hand did free ;

3 And gathered them out of the lands ,
from North , South , East and West.

4 They strap'd in deserts pathless way ,
no city found to rest :

5 For thirst and hunger , in them faints their souls . When straits them press .

6 They cry unto the LORD , and he them frees from their distress .

7 Them also in a way to walk ,
that right is he did guide ,

That they might to a City go ,
wherein they might abide .

8 O that men to the LORD would give
praise for his goodness then ;

And for his works of wonders done
unto the sons of men .

9 For he the soul that longing is ,
doth fully satisfie ;

With goodness he the hungry soul
doth fill abundantly .

10 Such as shut up in darkness deep ,
and in death's shade abide ,

Whom strongly hath affliction bound ,
and irons fast have ty'd .

11 Because against the words of GOD
they wrought rebelliously :

And they the counsel did contemn
of him that is most Wp .

12 Their heart he did bring down , with grief
they fell , no help could have .

13 In trouble then they cry'd to GOD ,
he them from straits did save .

14 He out of darkness did them bring ,
and from death's shade them take :

These hands where with they had been bound ;
aunder quite he brake .

15 O that men to the LORD would give

praise

PSALM CVII.

- praise, for his goodness then;
 And for his works of wonder done
 unto the songs of men.
- 16 Because the mighty gates of brass
 in pieces he did tear:
 By him in sunder also cut
 the bars of iron were.
- 17 Fools for their sin and their offence,
 do soze affliction bear, 18 All kind of meat their soul abhors, they to death's gates djan near.
- 19 In grief they cry to GOD, he saves
 them from their miseries;
 20 He sends his word, they heale, and them
 from their destruction free.
- 21 O that men to the LORD would give
 praise for his goodness then,
 And for his works of wonder done
 unto the songs of men.
- 22 And let them sacrifice to him
 offerings of thankfulness:
 And let them shew abroad his works
 in songs of iopfulness
- 23 Who go to sea in ships, and in great waters treading he:
 24 Within the deep these men God's works,
 and his great wonders see.
- 25 For he commands, and forth in haste
 the stormy tempest flies,
 Which makes the sea with rowling waves
 aloft to swell and rise.
- 26 They mount to heav'n, then to depths
 they do go down again.
 Their soul doth faint, and melt away
 with trouble and with pain.
- 27 They reel and stagger like one drunk:
 at their wits end they be;
 28 Then they to GOD in trouble cry,
 who them from straits do free.
- 29 The storm is chang'd into a calm,
 at his command and will;
 So that the waves which rag'd before now quiet are and still

PSALM CVII.

- 30 Then are they glad, because at rest
and quiet now they be;
So to the haven he them brings,
which they desir'd to see.
- 31 O that men to the LORD would give
praise for his goodness then,
And for his works of wonder done
unto the sons of men.
- 32 Among the people gathered;
let them exalt his Name;
Among assembled Elders spread his most renowned fame.
- 33 He to dry lands turns water springs,
and floods to wilderness.
- 34 For sins of those that dwell therein
fat land to barrenness.
- 35 The burnt and parched wilderness
to water-pools he brings;
The ground that was dry'd up before
he turns to water springs.
- 36 And there, for dwelling he a place
doth to the hungry give:
That they a Cup may prepare conmoudously to live.
- 37 There sow they fields and vineyards plant
to yield fruits of increase.
- 38 His blessing makes them multiply,
lets not their crafts decrease.
- 39 Again they are diminished,
and very low brought down.
Through sorrow, and affliction,
and great oppression.
- 40 He up on Pillars pours contempt,
and causeth them to slip,
And wander in a wilderness;
wherein there is no way.
- 41 Yet setteth he the poor on high
from all his miseries:
And he, much like unto a flock,
doth make him families.
- 42 They that are righteous shall rejoice;
when they the same shall see:
And as ashamed, stop her mouth

PSALM CVIII.

shall all iniquitie.

- 41 Who is so wise and will these things
observe, and them record;
Ev'n they shall understand the love
and kindness of the LORD.

PSALM CVIII.

- My heart is fir. Lord: I will sing,
and with my glory praise.
2 Awake up psalter and harp,
my self I'll early raise.
3 I'll praise thee 'mong the people, Lord,
'mong Nations sing with I.
4 For above heav'n thy mercies great,
thy truth doth reach the sky.
5 Be thou above the heaven's, LORD,
exalted gloriously:
Thy glory all the earth above,
be lifted up on high.
6 That those who thy beloved are;
delibered may be,
O do thou save with thy right hand,
and answer give to me.
7 O GOD in his holiness hath said,
herein I will take pleasure
Schemem I will divide, and forth
will Succoth's valley measure.
8 Gilead I claim as mine by right,
Manasseh mine shall be.
Ephraim is of my head the strength;
Judah gives laws for me.
9 Moab's my washing pot, my shoe
I'll over Edom throw;
Over the land of Palestine,
I will in triumph go.
10 O who is he will bring me to the City fortified;
O who is he that to the land
of Edom will me guide.
11 O GOD, thou who had'st cast us off,
this thing wilt thou not do?
And wilt not thou, ev'n thou, O GOD,
forth with our armies go?
12 O thou from trouble give us help,

PSALM CIX.

for helpless is man's aid.

- 13 Through GOD we shall do ballantly,
our foes he shall down tread.

PSALM CIX.

O Thou the GOD of all my praise,
do thou not hold thy peace:

- 2 For mouths of wicked men do speak
against me; do not cease:

The mouths of vile deceitful men against me opened be;

And with a false and lying tongue,
they have accused me.

- 3 They did beset me round about
with words of hateful spight:
And, though to them no cause I gave,
against me they did fight.

- 4 They for my love became my foes,
but I me set to pray:

- 5 Evil for good, hatred for love,
to me they did repay.

- 6 Set thou the wicked over him,
and upon his right hand,
Gibe thou his greatest enemy,
ev'n satan leave to stand.

- 7 And when by thee he shall be judg'd,
let him condemned be:

And let his prayer be turn'd to sin;
when he shall call on thee.

- 8 Few be his days, and in his room,
his charge another take:

- 9 His children let be fatherless,
his wife a widow make.

- 10 His children let be vagabonds,
and beg continually:

And from their places desolate
seek bread for their supply.

- 11 Let ravenous extortioners
catch all he hath away:

Of all for which he labored hath,
let strangers make a prey.

- 12 Let there be none to pity him,
let there be none at all

That on his children fatherless

PSALM CIX.

Will let his mercie fall.

- 13 Let his posterity from earth cut off for ever be
And in the following age their name
be blotted out by thee.
- 14 Let GOD his father's wickedness
still to remembrance call ;
And never let his mother's sin
be blotted out at all.
- 15 But let them all before the LORD
appear continually,
That he may wholly from the earth
cut off their memory.
- 16 Because he mercie minded not ,
but persecuted still
The poor and needy , that he might
the broken-hearted kill.
- 17 As he in cursing pleasure took ,
so let it to him fall :
As he delighted not to bless ,
so bless him not at all.
- 18 As cursing he like clothes put on ,
into his bowels so Like water , and into his bones
like oil down let it go.
- 19 Like to that garment let it be ;
whitch doth himself array ,
And for a girdle wherewith he is girt about alway.
- 20 From God let this be their reward
that en'mies are to me ;
And their reward , that speak against
my soul maliciouslie,
- 21 But do thou for thine own Name's sake
O GOD the LORD , for me :
Sith good and sweet thy mercie is ,
from trouble set me free.
- 22 For I am poor and indigent ,
afflicted soze am I ;
My heart within me also is wounded exceedingly.
- 23 I pass like a declining shade ,
am like the locust tost ,

PSALM CX.

24 My knees through fasting weakened are my flesh hath fatness lost.

25 I also am a vile reproach unto them made to be;

And they that did upon me look
did spake their teards at me.

26 O do thou help and succor me,
who art my God and Lord:

And for thy tender mercies sake,
safely to me afford.

27 What thereof they may know, that this is thy Almighty hand:

And that thou, Lord, hast done the same,
they may well understand.

28 Although they curse with spite, yet Lord,
bless thou with loving voice:

Let them asham'd be when they rise,
thy servant let rejoice.

29 Let thou mine adversaries all with shame be cloathed o'er;

And let their own confusion
them as a mantle cover.

30 But as for me I with my mouth will greatly praise the LORD;

And I among the multitude
his praises will re-ord.

31 For he shall stand at his right hand
who is in poverty,

To save him from all those that would condemn his soul to die.

PSALM CX.

The Lord did say unto my LORD,
Sit thou at my right hand,

Until I make thy foes a fool,
whereon thy feet may stand.

2 The LORD shall out of Zion send
the rod of thy great power:

In mid'st of all thine enemies,
be thou the governour.

3 A willing people, in thy day
of pow'r shall come to thee:

In help beauties from mozn's womb;
thy pourty like dew shall be.

PSALM CXI.

4 The LORD himself hath made an oath,
and will repent him never;
Of the order of Melchisedek,
thou art a Priest forever.

5 The glorious and mighty LORD;
that sits at thy right hand.
Shall in his day of wrath, strikethrough things that do him withstand

6 He shall among the heathen judge;
he shall with bodies dead
The plates fill on many lands;
he wound shall ever head.

7 The brook that runneth in the way,
with drink shall him supply;
And for this cause, in triumph he shall lift his head on high.

PSALM CXI.

Praise ye the Lord: with my whole heart
I will God's praise declare,
Where the Assemblies of the just and Congregations are.

1 The whole works of the LORD our God
are great above all measure; Sought out they are of every one,
that do therein take pleasure.

2 His work most honourable is,
most glorious and pure:
And his untainted righteousness
forever doth endure.

3 His works most wonderful he hath made to be thought upon:
The LORD is gracious, and he is full of compassion.

4 He giveth meat unto all those that truly do him fear;
And evermore his Covenant
he in his mind will bear.

5 He did the power of his works
unto his people shew,
When he the heathens heritage
upon them did bestow.

6 His hands works are truth and right;
all his commands are sure;

PSALM CXII.

- 8 And done in truth and uprightness,
they evermore endure.
9 He sent redemption to his folk,
his Covenant for a
He did command: help his Name,
and reverend is alway.
10 Wisdom's beginning is God's fear;
good understanding they have all, that his commands fulfill:
his praise endures for aye.

PSALM CXII.

- Praise ye the Lord. The men is blest that fears the LORD aright;
He who in his Commandments doth greatly take delight.
2 His seed and offspring powerful shall be the earth upon:
Of upright men blessed shall be the generation.
3 Riches and wealth shall ever be within his house in store:
And his unspotted righteousness
endures for evermore.
4 Unto the upright light doth rise,
though he in darkness be:
Compassionate and merciful,
and righteous is he.
5 A good man doth his favour shew,
and doth to others lend:
He with discretion his affairs
will guide unto the end.
6 Surely there is not any thing that ever shall him move.
The righteous man's memorial shall everlasting prove.
7 When he shall evil tidings hear,
he shall not be afraid:
His heart is firm, his confidence
upon the LORD is stay'd.
8 His heart is firmly stablished, afraid he shall not be,
An ill upon his enemies
he his desire shall see.

PSALM CXIII.

9 He hath disperst, giv'n to the pooz, his righteousness shall be to ages all: with honour shall his horn be raised hie, 10 The wicked shall it see, and fret,
his teeth gnash, melt away:
What wicked men do most desire,
shall utterly decay.

PSALM CXIII.

Praise God, ye servants of the LORD,
O praise, the Lord's Name praise;
1 Praise blessed be the Name of God,
from this time forth alwayes,
2 From rising Sun, to where it sets,
God's Name is to be prais'd,
3 Above all Nations God is high,
'bove heav'n his glory rais'd.
4 Unto the Lord, our God, that dwells
on high, who can compare?
5 Himself that humbleth things to see in heaven and earth that are.
6 He from the dust doth raise the pooz,
that very low did ly;
And from the dung-hill lifts the man
opprest with poverty, 7 That he may highly him advance,
and with the Princes set:
With those that of his people are the chief; ev'n Princes great.
8 The barren women house to keep he maketh, and to be
Of sons a mother full of joy;
Praise to the LORD give ye

PSALM CXIV.

When Israel out of Egypt went,
and did his dwelling change:
When Jacob's house went out from those that were of language strange:
1 He Judah did his Sanctuary,
his Kingdom Israel make:
2 The sea it saw, and quickly fled,
Jordan was driven back.
3 Like rams the mountains, and like lambs

the

PSALM CXV.

- the hills skipt to and fro
 5 O sea, wpp' fleast thou? Jordan back;
 wpp' wast thou dyben so?
 6 We mountains great, wherefoze was it that we did skip like rams?
 And wherefoze was it, little hills,
 that we did leap like lambs?
 7 O at the p'sence of the LORD;
 earth tremble thou for fear,
 While as the p'sence of the GOD of Jacob doth appear.
 8 Who from the hard and stony rock
 did standing water bring:
 And by his pow'r did turn the flint
 into a water spring.

PSALM CXV.

- NOT unto us, LORD, not to us;
 but do thou glory take Unto thy Name, ev'n for thy truth,
 and for thy mercies sake.
 1 O wherefoze should the heathen say,
 where is their GOD now gone?
 2 But our GOD in the heav'ns is,
 what pleas'd him he hath done.
 4 Their idols silver are and gold,
 worke of mens hands they be:
 5 Mouths have they, but they do not speak;
 and eyes, but do not see.
 6 Ears have they, but they do not hear;
 noses, but savour not:
 7 Hands, feet, but handle not, nor walk,
 nor speak they through their throat.
 8 Like them their makers are, and all on them their trust that build.
 9 O Isra'l, trust thou in the LORD;
 he is their help and shield.
 10 O Aaron's house, trust in the LORD,
 their help and shield is he.
 11 We that fear GOD, trust in the LORD,
 their help and shield hee'll be.
 12 The Lord of us hath mindful been,
 and he will bless us still:
 We will the house of Israel bless,

PSALM CXVI.

blesse Aaron's house he will.

13 Both small and great that fear the Lord,
he will them surely blesse.

14 The Lord will pou, pou and your seed,
as more and more increase

15 O blessed are ye of the LORD, who made the earth and heaven.

16 The heav'n, ev'n heav'ns are God's, but he earth to men's songs hath given.

17 The dead, nor who to silence go,
God's praise do not rejoyce.

18 But henceforth we forever will blesse God. Praise ye the Lord.

PSALM CXVI.

1 I love the LORD, because my voice
and prayers he did hear.

2 While I live, will call on him,
who bow'd to me his ear.

3 Of death the cords, and sorrows did about me compass round:

The pains of hell took hold on me,
I grief and trouble found.

6 Upon the Name of God the Lord,
then did I call, and say.

Deliver thou my soul. O Lord,
I do thee humble pray.

5 O God merciful and righteous is, pity, gracious is our LORD.

6 O God saves the weak: I was brought low,
he did me up afford.

7 O thou my soul, do thou return
unto thy quiet rest:

For largely, lo, the Lord to thee
his bounty hath express'd.

8 For my distressed soul from death
deliver'd was by thee;

Thou didst my mourning eyes from tears
my feet from falling free.

9 I in the land of those that live will walk the LORD before.

10 I did believe, therefore I spake;
I was afflicted sore.

11 I said, when I was in my haste,

PSALM CXVII.

that all men liars be.

12 What shall I render to the LORD,
for all his gifts to me?

13 I'll of salvation take the cup,
on God's Name will I call.

14 I'll pay my vows now to the Lord,
before his people all.

15 Dear in God's sight is his Saints death;
thy servant, Lord, am I.

16 Thy servant sure, thine hand-maid's son,
my hands thou didst unp.

17 Thank-offerings I to thee will give,
and on God's Name will call;

18 I'll pay my vow now to the Lord,
before his people all.

19 Within the courts of God's own house,
within the midst of thee,

O city of Jerusalem

Praise to the Lord give ye.

PSALM CXVII

O Give ye praise unto the LORD,
all Nations that be.

Likewise ye people all, accord
his Name to magnifie

2 For great to us-much eber are his loving-kindnesses;

His truth endures for evermore:
the Lord O do ye bless.

PSALM CXVIII.

O Praise the LORD, for he is good,
his mercy lasteth ever.

2 Let those of Israel now say;
his mercy faileth never

3 Now let the house of Aaron say,
his mercy lasteth ever.

4 Let those that fear the Lord now say,
his mercy faileth never.

5 I in distress call'd on the Lord
the Lord did answer me;

He in a large place did me set,
from trouble made me free.

6 The mighty Lord is on my side,
I will not be afraid:

PSALM CXVIII.

For any thing that man can do,
I shall not be dismayed.

7 The Lord doth take my part with them
that help to succour me;

Therefore on those that do me hate
I my desire shall see.

8 Better it is to trust in God,
than trust in man's defence:

9 Better to trust in God, than make Princes our confidence.

10 The Nations, joining all in one,
did compass me about;

But in the Lord's most holy Name
I shall them all root out.

11 They compass me about, I say;
they compass me about:

But in the Lord's most holy Name
I shall them all root out.

12 Like Bees they compass me about:
like unto thorns that flame.

They quenched are: for them shall I destroy in God's own Name:

13 Thou sore hast thrust, that I might fall,
but my Lord helped me.

14 God my salvation is become:
my strength and song is he.

15 In dwellings of the righteous, is heard the melody

Of joy and health: The Lord's right hand
doth ever hallant.

16 The right hand of the mighty Lord
exalted is on high:

The right hand of the mighty Lord
doth ever hallant.

17 I shall not die, but live and shall
the works of God discover.

18 The Lord hath me chastised sore
but not to death awh'le over.

19 O set ye open unto me
the gates of righteousness;

Then will I enter into them,
And I the Lord will bless.

20 This is the gate of God, by it

PSALM CXIX.

the just shall enter in.

1 Thee will I praise, for thou me heard'st,
and hast my safety bin.

2 That stone is made head corner-stone,
which builders did despise:

3 This is the doing of the Lord,
and wondrous in our eyes.

4 This is the day God made; in it
wee'll joy triumphantly.

5 Save now, I pray thee, Lord, I pray,
send now prosperitie.

6 Blessed is he in God's great Name,
that cometh us to save:

7 We from the house which to the Lord pertains, you blessed have.

8 God is the Lord, who unto us
hath made light to arise;

9 Bind ye unto the Altars horns
with cords the sacrifice.

10 Thou art my God, Thee thee exalt;
my God. I will thee praise.

11 Give thanks to God, for he is good;
his mercy lasts a'ways.

PSALM XCIX.

ALEPH The 1 Part.

Blessed are they that undefil'd,
and straight are in the way:

2 Who in the Lord's most holy law
do walk, and do not stray.

3 Blessed are they who to observe his statutes are inclin'd;

4 And who do seek the living God
with their whole heart and mind.

5 Such in his ways do walk, and they do not iniquity:

6 Thou hast commanded us to keep thy precepts carefully.

7 That thy statutes to observe,
thou wouldest my ways direct:

8 Then shall I not be sham'd, when I thy precepts all respect.

9 Then with integrity of heart thee will I praise and bless,

When

PSA I M C X I X.

When I the judgments all have learn'd of thy pure righteousness.

That I will keep thy statutes all,
firmly resolv'd have I :

Do not then, most gracious GOD ;
forsake me utterly.

B E T H. The 2. Part.

By what means shall a young man learn,
his way to purifie ?

If he according to thy word
iterero attentive be.

Unfainely thee have I sought
with all my soul and heart :

Let me not from the right path
of thy commands depart.

Thy word I in my heart have hid,
that I offend not thee.

O LORD, thou ever blessed art ;
thy statutes teach thou me.

The judgments of thy mouth each one,
my lips declared have ;

More joy thy testimonies map than riches all, me gave.

I will thy holy precepts make,
my meditation ;

And carefully I'll have respect unto thy ways each one.

Upon thy statutes my delight shall constantly be set :

Ere by thy grace I never will thy holy word forget.

G I M E L. The 3. Part.

With me thy servant, in thy grace,
deal bountifullly, Lord :

That by thy favor I may live,
and duely keep thy word.

Open mine eyes, that of thy law
the wonders I may see.

I am a stranger on this earth,
hide not thy law from me.

My soul within me breaketh, and doth much fainting still endure :

Through longing that it hath all times

PSALM CXIX.

unto thy judgments pure.

- 21 Thou hast rebuk'd the cursed proud,
who from thy precepts smerbe.
22 Hypocrisie and shame remove from me;
for I thy lawes obserbe.
23 Against me Princes spake with spite while they in counsel sate:
But I thy seruant, did upon thy statutes meditate.
24 My comfort, and my hearts delight,
thy testimonies be;
And they in all my doubts and fears are counsellors to me.

DALETH. The 4. Part.

- 25 My soul to dust cleaves: quicken me,
according to thy word.
26 My wayes I shew'd, and me thou leard'st;
teach me thy statutes Lord.
27 The map of thy Commandements
make me aright to know:
So all thy works, that wondrous are;
I shall to others shew.
28 My soul both melt, and bzap amap,
for heaviness and grief:
To me, according to thy word,
give strength, and send relief.
29 From me the wicked way of lies let far removed be:
And graciously thy help I saw
do thou grant unto me.

- 30 I chosen have the perfect way
of truth and verity.
Thy judgments that most righteous are,
before me laid have I.

- 31 I to thy testimonies cleave;
shame do not on me cast.
32 I'll run thy precepts way, when thou
my heart enlarged hast.

HE. The 5. Part.

- 33 Teach me, O Lord, the perfect way
of thy precepts divine:
And to observe it to the end
I shall my heart incline.

PSALM CXIX.

- 31 Give understanding unto me,
so keep thy law shall I:
Hea, ev'n with my whole heart I shall observe it carefully,
- 35 In thy laws path make me to go,
for I delight therein.
- 36 My heart unto thy testimonies,
and not to greed incline.
- 37 Turn thou away my sight and eyes
from blewing vanitie:
And in thy good and holy way
be pleas'd to quicken me.
- 38 Confirm to me thy gracious word,
which I did gladly hear:
Ev'n to thy servant, LORD, who is devoted to thy fear.
- 39 Turn thou away my fear'd reproach;
for good thy judgments be.
- 40 Lo, for thy precepts I have long'd:
in thy truth quicken me.
- V A U. The 6. Part.
- 41 Let thy sweet mercies also come,
and visit me, O LORD;
Ev'n thy benign salvation,
according to thy word.
- 42 So shall I have wherewith I may give him an answer just,
Who spitefully reproacheth me;
for in thy word I trust.
- 43 The word of truth out of my mouth
take thou not utterly:
For on thy judgments righteous,
my hope doth still rely.
- 44 So shall I keep for evermore
thy law continually.
- 45 And say that I thy precepts seek,
I'll walk at liberty,
- 46 I'll speak thy word to kings, and I
with shame shall not be mov'd:
- 47 And will delight my self always in thy laws which I lov'd.
- 48 To thy commandments which I lov'd
my hands lift up I will:

PSALM CXIX.

And I will also meditate upon thy statutes still.

ZA I N. The 7. Part.

49 Remember, Lord, thy gracious word,
thou to thy servant spake,
Which for a ground of my sure hope thou caused'st me to take.

50 This word of thine my comfort is,
in mine affliction:

For in my straits I am rebib'd,
by this thy word alone.

51 The men whose hearts with pride are stuff'd,
did greatly me deride:

Yet from thy straight commandments,
I have not turn'd aside.

52 Thy judgments righteous, O Lord, wrought thou of old forth gave,

I did remember, and my self
by them comforted have.

53 Gossip took hold on me, because ill men thy law forsooke.

54 I in my house of pilgrimage
thy laws my songs do make,

55 Thy law by night, Lord, I did mind,
and I have kept thy law.

56 And this I had, because thy word
I kept, and stood in awe.

C H E T H. The 8. Part.

57 Thou my sure position art alone,
which I did choose, O LORD:

I have resolv'd and said, that I would keep thy holy word.

58 With my whole heart I did increase thy face and favour see;

According to thy gracious word,
be merciful to me.

59 I thought upon my former ways,
and did my life well try;

And to thy testimonies pure
my feet then turned I.

60 I did not slip, nor linger long,
as those that floatful are;

But hastily thy laws to keep.

PSALM CXIX.

myself I did prepare.

61 Bands of ill men me rob'd; yet I thy precepts did not slight:

62 I'll rise at midnight thee to praise,
ev'n for thy judgments right.

63 I am companion to all those,
who fear and thee obey.

64 O Lord, thy mercy fills the earth:
teach me thy laws, I pray.

T E T H. The 9. Part.

65 Well hast thou with thy servant dealt,
as thou didst promise give.

66 Good judgment me, and knowledge teach;
for I thy word believe.

67 Ere I afflicted was, I strag'd;
but now I keep thy word.

68 Both good thou art, and good thou dost:
teach me thy statutes LORD.

69 The men that are puffed up with pride,
against thee for'd a lie:

But thy commandments observe,
with my whole heart will I.

70 Their hearts through worldly ease and wealth
as far as grease they be:

But in thy holy law I took delight continually.

71 It hath been very good for me, that I afflicted was:

That I might well instructed be,
and learn thy holy laws.

72 The word that cometh from thy mouth,
is better unto me.

Than many thousands, and great sums of gold and silver be.

J O D. The 10. Part.

73 Thou mad'st and fashion'd me: thy laws
to know give wisdom, LORD:

74 So to who thee fear, shall joy to see me trusting in thy word.

75 That very right thy judgments are,
I know, and do confess;

And that thou hast afflicted me
in truth and faithfulness.

PSALM CXIX.

76 O let thy kindness mercifully,
I pray thee, comfort me;
As to thy servant faithfully
was promised by thee.

77 And let thy tender mercies come to me, that I may live; Because thy holy laws to me
sweet delectation give.

78 LORD, let the proud ashamed be;
For they without a cause,
Which me perbersly deal; but I will muse upon thy laws.

79 Let such as fear thee and have known thy statutes, turn to me.

80 My heart let in thy laws be sound, that shan't I never be.

C A R M. The 11. Part.

81 My soul for thy salvation fain's;
yet I thy word believe.

82 Mine eyes fail for thy word: I say,
when wilt thou comfort give?

83 For like a bottle I'm become,
that in the smoke is set,

I'm black and parcht with grief, yet I thy statutes not forget.

84 How many are thy, servants days;
when wilt thou execute

Just judgment on these wicked men that do me persecute?

85 The proud have digged pits for me
which is against thy law

86 Thy words all faithful are: help me, pursu'd without a cause.

87 They so consum'd me, that on earth
my life thy grace did leave:

Thy precepts yet forsook I not,
but chose to them I clabe.

88 After thy loving-kindness; LORD;
me quicken, and preserve:

The testimony of thy mouth
so shall I still observe.

L A M E D. The 12. Part.

89 Thy word forever is, O LORD,

PSALM CXIX.

In heaven settled fast:

90 Unto all generations,
thy faithfulness dory last.

The earth thou hast established;
and it abides by thee:

91 This day they stand as thou ordain'd for all thy servants be.

92 Unless in thy most perfect law,
my soul delights had found,
I should have perished, whenas
my troubles did abound.

93 Thy precepts I will nev'r forget:
thy quickning to me brought.

94 LORD, I am thine: O save thou me;
thy precepts I have sought.

95 For me the wicked have laid wait,
me seeking to destroy;

But thy testimonies true
consider will with joy.

96 An end of all perfection
here have I seen O LORD:

But as for thy commandment,
it is exceeding broad.

M E M. The 13. Part.

97 O how love I thy law! it is my study all the day.

98 It makes me wiser than my foes;
for it dory with me stay.

99 Than all my teachers, now I have more understanding far,

Because my meditation
thy testimonies are.

100 In understanding I extol
those that are ancients;

For I endeavored to keep all thy Commandments.

101 My feet from each ill way I shaid;
that I may keep thy word.

102 I from thy judgments have not swerv'd;
for thou hast taught me, LORD.

103 How sweet unto my taste, O LORD,
are all thy words of truth;

Yea, I do find them sweeter far,

PSALM CXIX.

than honey to my mouth,

104 I through thy precepts that are pure,
do understanding get;

I therefore ever map that's false,
with all my heart do hate.

NUN. The 14. Part.

105 Thy word is to my feet a lamp;
and to my path a light.

106 I sworn have, and I will perform,
to keep thy judgments right.

107 I am with soze affliction
ev'n over-whelm'd O Lord:

In mercy raise, and quicken me,
according to thy word.

108 The free will-offerings of my mouth
accept I thee beseech;

And unto me, thy servant, Lord,
thy judgments dearly teach.

109 Though still my soul be in my hand,
thy lawes I'll not forget.

110 Terr'd not from them though for me
the wicked snares did set.

111 I of thy testimonies have above all things made choice,

To be my heritage for ever;
for then my heart enjoye.

112 I carefully inclined have my heart still to attend.

That I thy statutes map perform
alway unto the end.

SAMECH. The 15. Part.

113 I hate the thoughts of vanity,
but lone thy law do I.

114 My shield and hiding place thou art;
I on thy word rely.

115 All ye that evil doers are,
from me depart away;

For the Commandments of my God,
I purpose to obey.

116 According to thy faithful word;
uphold and stablish me;

That I may live, and of my hope aspaied never be.

PSALM CXIX.

117 Word thou me up, so shall I be in peace and safety still:
And to thy statutes have respect continually I will.

118 Thou tread'st down all that lobe to strap;
false their deceit both probe:

119 Let men like dross away thou purst,
therefore thy law I love.

120 For fear of thee, my very flesh
both tremble, all dismayd.

And of thy righteous judgments, Lord,
my soul is much afraid.

AIN. The 16. Part:

121 To all men I have judgment done,
performing justice right:

Then let me not be left unto my fierce oppressors might.

122 For good unto thy servant, LORD, thy servants surely be.

From the oppression of the proud,
do thou deliver me.

123 My eyes do fail with looking long for thy salvation:

The word of thy pure righteousness,
while I do wait upon.

124 In mercy with thy servant deal,
thy laws me teach and show.

125 I am thy servant; wisdom give,
that I thy laws may know.

126 It's time thou work, Lord, for they have made bold thy law divine:

127 Therefore thy precepts more I love,
than gold: yea gold most fine.

128 Concerning all things thy commands
all right I judge therefore;

And every false and wicked way
I perfectly abhor.

PE. The 17. Part.

129 Thy statutes, LORD, are wonderful;
my soul them keeps with care:

130 The entrance of thy words gives light;
in them mine eyes are,

131 And many I have wide opened,

PSALM CXIX.

and pain'd earnestly,
While after thy Commandments
I long'd exceedingly.

132 Look on me, LORD, and merciful
do thou unto me prove:

As thou art wont to do to those thy Name who true love.

133 O let my footsteps in thy word aright still ordered be:

Let no iniquity obtain
dominion over me.

134 From mans oppression save thou me,
so keep thy laws I will.

135 Thy face make on thy servant shine, teach me thy statutes still.

136 Rivers of waters from mine eyes did run down when I saw

How wicked men run on in sin,
and do not keep thy law.

T S A D D I. The 18. Part.

137 O LORD thou art most righteous,
thy judgments are upright.

138 Thy testimonies thou command'st
most faithful are and right.

139 My zeal have e'n consumed me,
because mine enemies

Thy holy words forgotten have,
and do thy laws despise.

140 Thy word's most pure, therefore on it thy servants love is set.

141 Small and despis'd I am, yet I thy precepts nor forget.

142 Thy righteousness is righteousness
which ever doth endure:

Thy holy law, LORD, also is the very truth, most pure.

143 Trouble and anguish have me found,
and taken hold on me:

Yet in my trouble my delight
thy just Commandments be.

144 Eternal righteousness is in thy testimonies all:

LORD, to me understanding give;

and

PSALM CXIX.

and eber libe I shall.

K O P H. The 19. Part.

145 With my whole heart I cry'd, LORD hear;
I will thy word obey.

146 I cry'd to thee, save me, and I will keep thy laws alway.

147 I of the morning did prevent the dawning and did cry:
For all mine expectation
did on thy word rely.

148 Mine eyes did timously prevent the watches of the night;
That in thy word with careful mind,
them meditate I might.

149 After thy loving-kindness, hear
my voice, that calls on thee:

According to thy judgment, LORD,
revive and quicken me.

150 Who follow mischief, they draw nigh;
they from thy laws are far.

151 But thou art near, Lord: most firm truth
all thy Commandments are.

152 As for thy testimonies all,
of old thus have I cry'd,

That thou hast surely founded them,
forever to abide.

R E S H. The 20. Part.

153 Consider mine affliction,
in safety do me set:

Deliver me, O Lord, for I
thy law do not forget.

154 After thy word revive thou me:
save me, and plead my cause.

155 Salvation is from sinners far,
for they seek not thy laws.

156 O LORD, both great and manifold thy tender mercies be:

According to thy judgments just,
revive and quicken me.

157 My persecutors many are,
and foes which do combine:

Yet from thy testimonies pure,
my heart doth not decline.

PSALM CXIX.

158 I saw transgressors, and was grieved;
for they keep not thy word.

159 See how I love thy law, as thou art kind me quicken Lord.

160 From the beginning all thy word hath been most true and sure:

Thy righteous judgments euerp one foreuermore endure.

SCHEM. The 21. Part.

161 Princes have persecuted me,
although no cause they saw:

But still of thy most holy word
my heart doth stand in awe.

162 I at thy word rejoice as one of spoil that finds great store.

163 Thy law I love, but lying all
I hate and do abhor.

164 Seven times a day it is my care,
to give due praise to thee;

Because of all thy judgments, LORD,
which righteous euer be.

165 Great peace have they who love thy law, offence they shall have none.

166 I hope'd for thy salvation, LORD,
and thy commands have done.

167 My soul thy testimonies pure,
observed carefully:

On them my heart is set, and them
I love exceedingly.

168 Thy testimonies and thy laws,
I kept, with special care:

For all my works and ways each one before thee open are.

TAL. The 22. Part.

169 O let my earnest prayer and cry
come near before thee, LORD;

Give understanding unto me,
according to thy word.

170 Let my request before thee come:
after thy word me free.

171 My lips shall utter praise, when thou hast taught thy laws to me.

172 My tongue of thy most blessed word shall

PSALM CXX.

shall speak, and it confess.

Because all thy Commandements are perfect righteousness.

173 Let thy strong hand make help to me:
thy mercies are my choice,

174 I long for thy salvation,
and in thy law rejoyce.

175 O let my soul lve, and it shall give praises unto thee:

And thy judgments gracious
be helpful un'to me

176 I like a lost sheep went astray;
thy servant seek, and find:

For thy commands I suffered not to slip out of my mind.

PSALM CXX.

1 My distress to GOD I cry'd,
and he gave ear to me.

2 From lying lips and guileful tongue,
O Lord, my soul set free.

3 What shall be giv'n thee? or what shall be done to thee false tongue;

4 As in burning coals of Juniper.
Sharp arrows of the strong.

5 Wo's me that I in Meseth am a sojourner so long:

That I in tabernacles dwell,
to heeder that belong.

6 My soul with him that hateth peace,
hath long a dweller been.

7 I am for peace: but when I speak,
for battle they are keen.

PSALM CXXI.

1 To the hills will lift mine eyes,
from whence doth come mine aid.

2 My safety cometh from the Lord, who heav'n and earth hath made.

3 Thy foot hee'l not let slide, nor will be slumber that thee keeps:

4 Behold, he that keeps Israel,
he slumbers not nor sleeps,

5 The Lord thee keeps; the Lord thy shade
on thy right hand doth stay:

PSALM CXXII.

- 6 The Moon by night thee shall not smite,
nor yet the Sun by day.
7 The LORD shall keep thy soul, he shall preserve thee from all ill.
8 Therefore thy going out and in,
the LORD keep forever will.

PSALM CXXII.

- 1 Joy'd when to the house of GOD,
Go up, they said to me,
2 Jerusalem, within the gates,
our feet shall standing be.
3 Jerusalem as a City is,
compactly built together:
4 Unto that place the Tribes go up;
the Tribes of God go thither;
To Israels testimony, there
to Gods Name thanks to pay.
5 For thrones of judgment, ev'n the thrones
of Davids house there stay.
6 Pray that Jerusalem may have peace and felicity:
Let them that love thee and thy peace
have still prosperity.
7 Therefore I wish that peace may still within thy walls remain:
And ever may thy Palaces prosperity retain.
8 Now for my friends and brethrens sake,
peace be in thee I'll say:
9 And for the house of God, our Lord,
I'll seek thy good alway.

PSALM CXXIII.

- O Thou that dwellest in the heav'ns,
I lift mine eyes to thee
1 Behold as servants eyes do look their Masters hand to see:
As hand-maids eyes her Mistriss hand,
so do our eyes attend Upon the LORD, our GOD, until,
to us he mercy send.
3 O LORD, be gracious to us, unto us gracious be:
Because replenisht with contempt

PSALM CXXIV.

exceedingly are we.

Our soul is fill'd with frozn of those that at their ease abide;
And with the insolent contempt
of those that swell in pride.

PSALM CXXIV

Had not the LORD been on our side,
may Israel now say

Had not the LORD been our side,
when men rose up to slay:

They had us swallowed quick whenas
their wrath gainst us did flame:

Waters had cov'ered us: our soul
had sunk beneath the stream.

Then had the waters, swelling high,
over our soul made map:

Bless be the LORD, who to their teeth
us gave not for a prey.

Our souls escaped as a bird
out of the fowler's snare;

The snare asunder broken is,
and we escaped are.

Our sure and all-sufficient help
is in Jehovah's Name:

His Name who did the heaven create,
and who the earth did frame,

Another of the same.

Now Israel

may say, and that trump

If that the LORD
had not our cause maintain'd

If that the LORD
had not our right sustain'd,

When cruel men against us furiously

rose up in wrath,

to make of us their prey:

Then certainly
they had devour'd us all.

And swallowed quick
for ought that we could deem;

Such was their rage
as we might well esteem,

And

PSALM CXXV.

- 4 And as fierre floods
before them all things down;
So had they brought
our soul to death quite down.
 - 5 The raging streams,
with their proud swelling waves,
Had then our soul
ob'r-welmed in the deep.
 - 6 But blest be GOD
who both us safely keep,
And have not given us a libbing prey Unto their teeth
and bloody cruelty.
 - 7 E'en as a bird
out of the fowler's snare Escapes away,
so is our soul set free;
Broke are their nets,
and thus escaped we.
 - 8 Therefore our help
is in the Lords great Name;
Who hear'n and earig
by his great pow'r his frame.
- PSALM CXXV.
- They in the LORD that firmly trust,
shall be like Zion hill,
Which at no time can be remob'd,
but standeth ever still.
- 1 As round about Jerusalem
the mountains stand a way:
The LORD his folk doth compass so,
from henceforth and so ap.
 - 2 For if mens rod upon the lot of iust men shall not ly, Left righteous men stretch forth their hands unto iniquity
 - 4 Do thou to all those that do good,
thy goodness, LORD, impart;
And do thou good to those that are upright within their heart.
 - 5 But as for such that turn aside
after their crooked way,

PSALM CXXVII.

God shall lead forth with wicked men :
on Israel peare shall stay.

PSALM CXXVI.

When Sions bondage God turn'd back
as men that dream'd were we :
Then fill'd with laughter was our mouth ,
our tongue with melodie.

Ther 'mong the heathen said : The Lord great things for them hath wrought.
The Lord hath done great things for us ,
whence for us is brought.

As streams of water in the South,
our bondage , LORD , recall :
Who sow in 'ears : a reaping time
of joy enjoy they shall.

That man who bearing precious seed ,
in going forth both mourn ;
He doubtless bringing back his sheaves rejoicing shall return.

PSALM CXXVII.

Except the LORD do build the house ,
the builders lose their pain :

Except the LORD be the Cup keeper ,
the watchmen watch in vain.

It's vain for you to rise betimes ,
or late from rest to keep ;

To feed on sorrows bread : so gives
he his beloved sleep.

To children are God's heritage ,
the wombs fruit his reward.

The sons of youth as arrows are for strong mens hands prepar'd.

Happy is the man that hath his quiver fill'd with those ;

They unashamed, in the gate
shall speak unto their foes.

PSALM CXXVIII.

Best is each one that fears the LORD ;
and walketh in his ways :

For of thy labor thou shalt eat ,
and happy be at times.

Thy wife shall as a fruitful vine ,
by thy house sides be found ;

PSALM CXXIX.

Thy childzen like to olive plants,
about thy table round.

- 4 Behold, the man that fears the LORD
thus blessed shall he be.
- 5 The LORD shall out of Zion give his blessing unto thee.
- Thou shalt Jerusalems good behold,
whilst thou on earth dost dwell,
- 6 Thou shalt thy childzens childzen see,
and peace on Israel.

PSALM CXXIX.

- O If did they vex me from my youth
may Israel now declare;
- 2 O If did they vex me from my youth,
yet not victorious were.
 - 3 The plowers plow'd upon my back,
they sown their furrows deep:
 - 4 The righteous LORD did cut the roots of the ungodly crew.
 - 5 Let Sions haters all be turn'd back with confusion.
 - 6 As grass on houses tops be they,
which fade ere it be grown:
 - 7 Whereof enough to fill his hand
the mower cannot find:
How can the man his bosom fill,
whose work is sheaves to bind.
 - 8 Neither say they who do go by,
God's blessing on you rest;
We, in the Name of God, the Lord,
do wish you to be blest.

PSALM CXXX.

- LORD, from the depths to thee I cry'd;
my voice, Lord, do thou hear,
- 2 Hark to my supplications voice,
give an attentive ear.
 - 3 Lord, who shall stand, if thou, O Lord
shouldest mark iniquity?
 - 4 But yet with thee forgiveness is,
that fear'd thou mayest be.
 - 5 I wait for GOD, my soul both wait;
my hope is in his word.
 - 6 More than they that for morning watch

PSALM CXXI.

My soul waits for the Lord:
I say, more than they that do watch
the morning light to see.

Let Israel hope in the Lord,
for with him mercies be.

And plentiful redemption
is ever found with him,
And from all his iniquities,
he Israel shall redeem:

PSALM CXXII.

My heart not haughtie is, O LORD,
mine eyes not lofty be.

For do I deal in matters great,
or things for me too high.

I surely have my self behav'd
with quiet spirit and mild,

As child of mother wean'd: my soul
is like a weaned child,

Upon the LORD let all the hope of Israel rest;

Ev'n from the time that present is unto eternity.

PSALM CXXIII.

David: and his afflictions all,

LORD, do thou think upon:

How unto God he swore, and vow'd to Jacobs mighty One.

I will not come within my house
nor rest in bed at all:

Nor shall mine eyes take any sleep,
nor eye lids slumber shall.

Till for the LORD a place I find,
where he may make abode:

A place of habitation
for Jacobs mighty God.

Lo, at the place of Ephzatah,
of it we understood:

And we did find it in the fields,
and City of the wood.

We'll go into his tabernacles,
and at his foot-stool bow.

Arise, O LORD, unto the rest,
th' Ark of thy strength, and thou:

PSALM CXXXIII.

- 9 Let the Priests be clothed, LORD,
with truth and righteousness:
And let all those that are thy Saints,
shout loud for joyfulnes.
- 10 For thine own servant Davids sake,
do not deny thy grace;
For of thine own anointed One turn thou away the face.
- 11 The LORD in truth to David swore,
he will not turn from it,
I of thy bounties fruit will make upon thy throne to sit.
- 12 Thy Covenant, if thy sons will keep,
and laws to them made known,
Their children then shall also sit forever on thy throne.
- 13 For God of Zion hath made choice,
there he desires to dwell.
- 14 This is my rest here still I'll stay,
for I do like it well.
- 15 Her food I'll greatly bless, her poore
with bread will satisfie;
- 16 Her Priests I'll cloth with health, her Saints shalt shout forth joyfull.
- 17 And there will I make Davids house
to bud forth pleasant:
- For him that mine Anointed is,
a lamp ordained have I.
- 18 As with a garment I will cloth with shame his enemies all:
But yet the Crown that he doth wear upon him flourish shall.

PSALM CXXXIII.

- Behold how good a thing it is,
and how becoming well,
Together such as brethren are,
in unity to dwell.
- 1 Like precious ointment on the head,
that down the beard did flow
On Aaron's beard, and to the skirts did of his garments go.
- 2 As Hermons be, the dew that doth
on Zion hills descend:

PSALM CXXXIV.

For there the blessing GO commands life that shall never end.

PSALM CXXXIV.

BEhold, bless ye the LORD, all ye that his attendants are :

Ev'n you that in Gods Temple be,
and praise him nightly there.

1 Pour hands within Gods holy Place
lift up and praise his Name.

2 From Zion hill the Lord thee bless,
that heaven and earth did frame.

PSALM CXXXV.

Praise ye the LORD: the Lords Name praises
his servants, praise ye God,

2 Who stand in Gods house, in the courts of our God make abode.

3 Praise ye the Lord: for he is good,
unto him praises sing :

Sing praises to his Name, because it is a pleasant thing.

4 For Jacob to himself the Lord
did choose, of his good pleasures;

And he hath chosen Israel
for his peculiar treasure.

5 Because I know assuredly
the Lord is very great ;

And that our Lord above all Gods,
in glory hath his seat,

6 What thing so ever pleas'd the Lord,
that in the heaven did he.

And in the earth, the seas, and all the places deep that be.

7 We from the ends of earth doth make the vapors to ascend :

With rain he lightnings makes; and wind
doth from his treasure send,

8 Egypts first-born from man to beast who smote. Strange tokens he

On Pharaoh, and his servants sent ;
Egypt in midst of thee,

10 He smote great nations, slew great kings,
A hon o' Seshon King,

PSALM CXXXVI.

- 1 And Og of Basan, and to nought
did Canaans Kingdoms bring,
2 And for a wealthy heritage.
their pleasant land he gave,
An heritage which Israel
his chosen folk should have.
3 Thy Name, O Lord, shall still endure, and thy memorial
With honoꝝ shall continued be
to generations all.
4 For why the righteous God will judge
his people righteously:
Concerning those that do him serue,
himself repent will he.
5 The Idols of the Nations,
of silver are and gold;
And by the hands of men is made their fashion and mold.
6 Mouths have they, but they do not speak:
eyes, but they do not see:
7 Ears have they, but hear not; and in their mouths no breathing be.
8 Their makers are like them, so are all that on them rely.
9 O Israels house, bless God: bless God,
O Aarons familie,
10 O bless the Lord, of Levis house,
ye who his servants are:
And bless the holy Name of God,
all ye the Lord that fear.
11 And blessed be the Lord our God,
from Sions holy hill.
Who dwelleth at Jerusalem;
the Lord, O praise ye still.

PSALM CXXXVI.

- G The thanks to God, for good is he;
for mercy hath he ever.
2 Thanks to the God of Gods give ye;
for his grace faileth never.
3 Thanks give the Lord of Lords unto;
for mercy hath he ever.
4 Who only wonders great can do,

PSALM CXXXVI.

for his grace faileth never.

- 4 Who by his wisdom made heav'n his
for mercy he hath ever.
- 6 Who stretcht the earth above the sea;
for his grace faileth never.
- 7 To him that made the great light shine
for mercy he hath ever.
- 8 The Sun to rule till day decline
for his grace faileth never.
- 9 The Moon and stars to rule by night;
for mercy hath he ever.
- 10 Who Egypt's first-born kill'd outright
for his grace faileth never.
- 11 And Israel brought from Egypt land;
for mercy hath he ever.
- 12 With stretcht out arm. and with strong hands;
for his grace faileth never.
- 13 By whom the Red-sea parted mass,
for mercy hath he ever.
- 14 And through its midst made Israel pass
for his grace faileth never.
- 15 But Pharaoh and his host did drown;
for mercy hath he ever.
- 16 Who through the desert led his own;
for his grace faileth never.
- 17 To him great kings who overthrew;
for he hath mercy ever.
- 18 Hea. famous kings in barrel flew;
(for his grace faileth never.)
- 19 E'en Sion king of th' Amozites;
for he hath mercy ever.
- 20 And Og the king of Bashanites,
for his grace faileth never.
- 21 Their land in heritage to have.
(for mercy he hath ever.)
- 22 His servant Israel right he gave;
for his grace faileth never.
- 23 In our low state who on us thought;
for he hath mercy ever.
- 24 And from our foes our freedom wrought
for his grace faileth never.
- 25 Who doth all flesh with food relieve,

PSALM CXXXVI.

for he hath mercy euer.

26 Thanks to the God of heauen giue;
for his grace faileth neuer.

Another of the same,

Praise God, for he is kind,

His mercies last for ay,

2 Give thanks with heart and mind,

To God of Gods alway:

For certainly,

His mercies dure,

Most firm and sure,

Eternally.

3 The Lord of Lords praise ye,

Whose mercies still endure,

4 Great wonders only he

Doth work by his great power.

For certainly, etc.

5 Which God Omnipotent,

By might and wisdom hie,

The heav'n and firmament

Did frame, as we may see:

For certainly, etc.

6 To him who did out-stretch

This earth so great and wide,

Above the waters reach,

Making it to abide.

For certainly, etc.

7 Great lights he made to be,

For his grace lasteth ay.

8 Such as the Sun we see,

To rule the light some day:

For certainly etc.

9 Also the Moon so clear,

Which shineth in our sight,

The stars that do appear.

To guide the darksome night.

For certainly, etc.

10 To him that Egypt smote,

Who did his message scorn,

And in his anger hot.

Did kill all their first-born:

For certainly, etc.

PSALM CXXOVI.

- 11 Thence Israel out he brought,
For his grace lasteth ever.
12 With a strong hand he wrought,
And stretch-out arm deliver.
For certainly, etc.

- The sea he cut in two;
13 For his grace lasteth still:
14 And through its midst to go
Made his own Israel:
For certainly, etc.

- But overwhelmed and lost 15 Was proud King Pharaoh;
With all his mighty host,
And chariots there also,
For certainly, &c.

- To him who pow'r fulfill 16 His chosen people led,
E'en through the desert dyp.
And in that place them fed:
For certainly, &c.

- To him great Kings who smote,
For his grace hath no bound.
18 Who stem and spared not Kings famous and renown'd:
For certainly, &c.

- Sihon th' Amorites King:
For his grace lasteth ever:
19 Og also who did reign
The land of Bashan over:
For certainly, &c.

- Their land he for he gave;
For his grace faileth never:
21 That Israel might it have
In heritage forever:
For certainly, &c.

- Who hath remembered
His in our low estate:
24 And us delivered
From foes who did us hate:
For certainly, &c.

- Who to all flesh gives food:
For his grace faileth never.

PSALM CXXXVII:

1 Give thanks to God most good,
The God of heaven for ever
For certainly, etc.

PSALM CXXXVII.

Babels streams we sate, and wept,
when Zion we thought on.

2 In midst thereof we hang'd our harps
the willow trees upon.

3 For there a song required they who did us captive bring:

Our spoilers call'd for mirth, and said,
a song of Zion sing.

4 O how the Lords song shall we sing
within a forraign land:

5 If thee, Jerusalem, I forget,
skill part from my right hand,

6 My tongue to my mouths roof let cleave,
if I do thee forget.

Jerusalem, and thee above
my chief joy do not set.

7 Remember Edoms childzen, Lord,
who in Jerusalems day,

Ev'n unto its foundation,
raze, raze it quite, did say.

8 O daughter thou of Babylon;
near is destruction;

Blest shall he be that thee reward,
as thou to us hast done,

9 Nea happy surely shall he be,
thy tender little ones

Who shall lap hold upon, and them shall dash against the stones.

PSALM CXXXVIII.

Thee will I praise with all my heart;
I will sing praise to thee.

2 Before the Gods: And worship will toward thy Sanctuary:

I'll praise thy Name, ev'n for thy truth;
and kindness of thy love;

For thou thy word hast magnifi'd
all thy great Name above.

Thou didst me answer in the day

when

PSALM CXXXIX

When I to thee did cry;
And thou my fainting soul with strength
didst strengthen inwardly.

4 All things upon the earth that are,
shall give thee praise, O Lord.
Whenas they from thy mouth shall hear thy true and faithful word.

5 Yea, in the righteous wapes of God,
with gladness they shall sing;
For great's the glory of the Lord,
who doth forever reign.

6 Though God be high, yet he respects
all those that lowly be;
Whereas the proud and lofty ones afar off knoweth he.

7 Though I in midst of trouble walk,
I life from thee shall have:
Gainst my foes wrath thou'lt stretch thine hands,
thy right hand shall me save.

8 Sure is that which concerneth me,
the Lord will perfect make:
Lord, fill thy mercy lasts: Do not thyne own hands works forsake.

PSALM CXXXIX.

O Lord thou hast me search'd and known;
thou know'st my sitting down,

2 And rising up, yea all my thoughts afar to thee are known.

3 My foot-steps and my lying down
thou compassedst always;

Thou also most entirely art
acquaint with all my wapes.

4 For in my tongue, before I speak,
not any word can be,

But altogether, lo, O Lord,
it is well known to thee.

5 Behind, before, thou hast beset,
and laid on me thy hand.

6 Such knowledge is too strange for me:
too high to understand.

7 From thy sp'rit whither shall I go?
or from thy presence fly?

PSALM CXXKII.

- 8 Ascend I heaue'n, to thou art there;
there if in hell I lay.
- 9 Take I the morning wings, and dwell
in utmost parts of sea:
- 10 Euen there, Lord, shall thy hand me lead,
thy right hand hold shall me.
- 11 If I do say that darkness shall
me cover from thy light,
Then surely shall the very night
about me be as light.
- 12 Nea darkness hideth not from thee,
but night doth shine as day:
To thee the darkness and the light
are both alike alway:
- 13 For thou possessedst hast my reins,
and thou hast covered me.
When I was in my mothers womb inclosed was by thee.
- 14 Once will I praise, for fearfull
and strangely made I am:
Thy works are marvellous, and right well
my soul doth know the same.
- 15 Thy substance was not hid from thee,
when art in secret I Was made, and in earths lowest parts
was brought most curiously.
- 16 Thine eyes my substance did behold,
yet being imperfect;
And in the volume of thy book,
my members all were writ.
- Which after in continuance were fashion'd ebery one.
Whenas they yet all shapeless were;
and of them there was none.
- 17 How precious also are thy thoughts,
O gracious God, to me?
And in their sum how passing great,
and numberless they be?
- 18 If I should count them, then the sand
they moze in number be?
What time soeuer I awake,
I ever am with thee.

PSALM CXL.

19 Thou, Lord, wilt sure the wicked slay,
hence from the bloody men:

20 Thy foes against thee lewdly speak,
and take thy Name in vain.

21 Do not I hate all those. O Lord, that hatred bear to thee?

With those that up against thee rise,
can I but grieved be?

22 With perfect hatred them I hate,
my foes I them do hold.

23 Search me O God, and know my heart;
try me, my thoughts unfold.

24 And see if any wicked way
there be at all in me;

And in thine everlasting way
to me a leader be.

PSALM CXL.

L O; d, from the ill and from a man
give me deliverance;

And do thou safe preserve me from
the man of violence,

2 Who in their heart mischievous things
are meditating ever;

And they for war assembled are continually together.

3 Much like unto a serpents tongue;
their tongues they sharp do make:

And underneath their lips there lies the poison of a snake.

4 Lord keep me from the wicked's hands;
from violent men me save;

Who utterly to overthrow
my goings purposed have.

5 The proud for me a snare have hid,
and razes, yea they a net

Have by the way side for me spread,
they gins for me have set.

6 I said unto the Lord, thou art
my God: unto the cry

Of all my supplications.

Lord do thine ear apply.

7 O God the Lord, who art the strength

I

PSALM CXL

- of my salvation ;
 Trobering in the day of war
 my head thou hast put on.
 8 Unto the wicked man, O Lord,
 his wishes do not grant :
 Nor further thou his ill devise,
 lest they themselves should baune.
 9 As for the head and chief of those about that compass me Ev'n by the mischief of their lips
 let thou them covered be.
 10 Let burning coals upon them fall
 them thorn in fiery flame,
 And in deep pits, that they no more may rise out of the same.
 11 Let not an evil speaker be on earth established :
 Mischief shall hunt the violent man
 till he be ruined.
 12 I know God will th' afflicted's cause
 maintain, and poor mens right.
 13 Surely the just shall praise thy Name,
 th' upright dwell in thy sight.

PSALM CXLI

- 1 O LORD, I unto thee do cry,
 do thou make haste to me ;
 And give an ear unto my voice,
 when I cry unto thee.
 2 As incense let my prayer be directed in thine eyes ;
 And the up-lifting of my hands,
 as th' evening sacrifice.
 3 Set, Lord, a watch before my mouth,
 keep of my lips the dooz.
 4 My heart incline thou not unto
 the ill I should abhor,
 So praise wicked mouths with men
 that work iniquity :
 And with their delicates, my taste
 let me not satisfy.
 5 Let him that righteous is me foster,
 to shew a kindness be.

PSALM CXLII

Let him reprove, I shall it count
a precious oyl to me:
Such smiting shall not break my head:
for yet the time shall fall,
When I in their calamities to God pray for them shall.

6 Whenas their Judges down shall be in strong places cast,
Then shall they hear my words, for they shall sweet be to their taste.

7 About the graves devouring mouth
our bones are scattered round.
As wood, which men do cut and reave,
lies scattered on the ground.

8 What unto thee, O God the Lord, mine eyes uplifted be:

My soul do not leave destitute,
my trust is set on thee.

9 Lord, keep me safely from the snare,
which they for me prepare;

And from the subtil gins of them that wicked workers are.

10 Let workers of iniquitie
into their own nets fall,

Whilst I do by thine help escape
the danger of them all.

PSALM CXLII.

I With my voice cry'd to the LORD,
with it made my request:

2 Pour'd out to him my plaint, to him
my trouble I express.

3 When in me was overwhelm'd my spirit
then well thou knew'st my way:

Where I did walk, a snare for me
they privily did lay.

4 I look'd on my right hand, and bless'd but none to know me were:

All refuge failed me, no man
did for my soul take care.

5 I cry'd to thee, I said: Thou art
my refuge, Lord, alone,

And in the land of those that live

PSALM CXLII.

thou art my portion.

- 6 Because I am brought very low,
attend unto my cry:
From my persecuters save,
who stronger are than I.
7 From prison bring my soul, that I thy Name may glorifie:
The just shall compass me, when thou with me deal'st bounteouslie.

PSALM CXLIII.

- LORD, hear my pray'r, attend my sute.
and in thy faithfulness
Gibe thou an answer unto me,
and in thy righteousness.
1 Thy servant also bring thou not in judgment to be try'd:
Because no living man can be in thy sight justifi'd
2 For th' enemy hath pursu'd my soul,
my life to ground down tread:
In darkness he hath made me dwell;
as who have long been dead.
3 My spy'e is therefore overwhelm'd
in me perplexedly;
Within me is my very heart
amazed with sorrowly.
4 I call to mind the days of old,
to meditate I use
On all thy works: upon the deeds,
I, of thy hands do muse.
5 My hand to thee I stretch: my soul
thirsts, as dry land, for thee.
6 O Lord, to hear, my spirit calls.
Hide not thy face from me:
Lest like to them I do become,
that go down to the dust.
7 Or makest me thy kindness hear,
for in thee do I trust.
Teach me the way that I should walk:
I lift my soul to thee.
8 Lord, free me from my foes, I flee,
to thee to rober me.

PSALM CXLIII.

10. Because thou art my God, to do thy will do me instruct:

Thy sp'rit is good, me to the land
of uprightness conduct.

11. Revive and quicken me. O Lord,
even for thine own Name's sake:

And do thou, for thy righteousness,
my soul from trouble take.

12. And of thy mercy slap my foes:
let all destroyed be,

That do afflict my soul; for I a servant am to thee.

Another of the same.

O. hear my prayer, O Lord,
and unto my desire.

To both thine ear accord,

I humbly thee requite;

And in thy faithfulness,

Unto me answer make,

And in thy righteousness

Upon me pity take,

2. In judgment enter not
With me thy servant poor:

For why, this well I wot,

No sinner can endure

The sight of thee, O Lord:

If thou his deers shalt see:

We dare make none abode

Himself to justify.

3. Behold, the cruel foe
The persecutor with spite,

My soul to overthrow:

Hea he my life down quite

Unto the ground hath sown,

And made me dwell full long

In darkness, as foggar,

As men dead long ago.

4. Therefore my sp'rit much vext,
O'erwhelm'd is me with pain:

My heart right sore perplext,

And desolate hath bin.

5. Yet I do call to mind,

PSALM CXLIII.

What ancient days record:
Thy works of everp kind
I think upon, O LORD.

6 Lo, I do stretch my hands
To thee my help alone.
For thou well understandst
All my complaint and moan,
My thirsting soul desires,
And longeth after thee,
As thirstie ground requires,
With rain refresh to be.

7 LORD, let my pray'r prevaile,
To answer it make speed;
For lo, my sp'rit doth fail:
Hide not thy face in need;
Lest I be like to those
That do in darkness sit,
Or him that downward goes
Unto the dreadful pit.

8 Because I trust in thee,
O LORD, cause me to hear
Thy loving-kindness free,
When morning doth appear:
Cause me to know the way
Wherein my path should be:
For whp, my soul on hie,
I do lift up to thee.

9 From my fierce enemy
In safety do me guide:
Because I flie to thee.
LORD, that thou map'st me hide

10 My GOD alone art thou,
Teach me thy righteousness:
Thy sp'rit's good, lead me to The land of uprightness.

11 O LORD, for thy Name's sake
Be pleas'd to quicken me:
And for thy truth forth take
My soul from miserie.

12 And of thy grace destroy
My foes, and put to shame
All who my soul annoy.

PSALM CXLIV.

For I thy servant am.

PSALM CXLIV.

O Blessed ever be the LORD,

who is my strength and might :
Who doth instruct my hands to war,
my fingers teach to fight.

2 My goodness, fortress, my high tow'r,
deliverer, and shield :

In whom I trust : who under me
my people makes to field.

3 LORD, what is man, that thou of him
dost so much knowledge take ;

4 Son of man, that thou of him
so great account dost make ;

5 Man is like vanitie : his days
as shadowe pass away.

6 Lord, both thy heav'n, come down, touch them :
the hills and smoke shall they.

7 Cast forth thy lightnings, scatter them ;
thine arrows shoot, them rout.

8 Thine hand send from above, me save ;
from great death deliver me out :

9 And from the hand of children strange,
whose mouth speaketh vanity :

10 And their right hand is a right hand
that works deceitfully.

11 A new song I to thee will sing,
Lord on a Psalterie :

12 On a ten-string'd instrument,
will praises sing to thee.

13 O Lord, he it is that unto kings salvation doth send,

14 Who his own servant David doth from hurtful sword defend.

15 O free me from strange childrens hands ;
whose mouth speaketh vanity ;

16 And their right hand a right hand is,
that works deceitfully.

17 That as the plants our song may be,
in youth grown up that are ;

18 Our daughters like to corner stones,
carv'd like a Palace fair.

PSALM CXLV.

- 31 That to affoord all kind of stoze,
our garners map be fill'd:
That our sheep thousands, in our streets,
ten thousands they map yield.
14 That strong our oxen be for work,
that no in-breaking be,
Nor going out; and that our streets
map from complaining be free.
15 Those people blessed are, who be in such a case as this:
Hea; blessed all those people are,
whose GOD Jehovah is.

PSALM CXLV.

- 1 Hee thee extol, my GOD, O King,
I'll bless thy Name alwayes:
2 Thee will I bless each day, and will thy Name forever praise.
3 Great is the Lord, much to be praised;
his greatness search exceeds:
4 Rare unto rare shall praise thy works,
and shew thy mighty deeds.
5 I of thy glorious Majesty,
the honoz will reioyd:
I'll speak of all thy mighty works,
which wondrous are, O LORD.
6 When of thine acts thy might shall shew;
thine acts that dreadful are:
And I thy glory to aduante,
thy greatness will declare.
7 The mem'ry of thy goodness great,
they largely shall express:
With songs of praise they shall extol
thy perfect righteousness.
8 For LORD is very gracious,
in his compassions slow:
In mercy he is very great,
and is to anger slow.
9 The Lord Jehovah, unto all his goodness doth declare:
And o'er all his other works
his tender mercies are.
10 Thee all thy works shall praise, O Lord:

and

PSALM CXLV.

and thee thy Saviour shall bless.

11 Thy shall thy Kingdom's glory show thy power by speech express.

12 To make the sons of men to know
his acts done mightilie;

And of his Kingdom thy excellent and glorious majesty.

13 Thy Kingdom shall forever stand,
thy reign through ages all.

14 God raise up all that are bow'd down,
upholdeth all that fall.

15 The eyes of all things wait on thee,

the giver of all good;

And thou in time convenient
bestow'st on them their food.

16 Thy hand thou open'st liberally, and of thy bounty gives

Enough to satisfy the need of every thing that lives.

17 The Lord is just in all his ways, help in his works all.

18 God's near to all that call on him,
in truth that on him call.

19 He will accomplish the desire of those that do him fear;

He also will deliver them
and he their cry will hear.

20 The Lord preserves all who him love,
that thought can them annoy!

But he all those that trust are,
will utterly destroy.

21 Thy mouth the praises of the LORD,
to publish thou shalt never:

Let all flesh bless his holy Name forever and forever.

Another of the same.

O LORD that art my GOD and King,
Thee will I magnifie and praise:

I will thee bless, and gladly sing

Unto thy holy Name alwayes,

Each day I rise I will thee bless,

And praise thy Name time without end.

PSALM CXLV.

3 Much to be prais'd, and great God is,
His greatness none can comprehend.

4 Great shall thy works praise unto rate
The mightie acts shewn done by thee,

5 I will speak of thy glorious grace,
And honour of thy Majestie.

Thy wondrous works I will recorde;

6 By men thy might shall be extoll'd
Of all thy dreadfull acts, O LORD,
And I thy greatness will unfold.

7 Thy utter shall abundantly
The memory of thy goodness great;
And shall sing praises cheerfullie.

Wilt thou thy righteousness relate.

8 The LORD our God is gracious, Compassionate is he also;
In mercy he is plenteous,
But unto wrath and anger slow.

9 Good unto all men is the Lord:
O'er all his works his mercy is.

10 Thy works all praise to thee afford:
Thy Saints, O Lord, thy Name shall bless.

11 The glory of thy Kingdom shewn
Shall thee, and of thy power tell.

12 That so mens sons his deeds may know
His Kingdom's grace that doth extel.

13 Thy Kingdom hath none end at all,
It doth through ages all remain.

14 The LORD upholdeth all that fall;
The cast down raiseth up again.

15 The eyes of all things, Lord, attend,
And on thee wait that here do live;
And thou in season due dost send Sufficient food them to relieve.

16 Hea, thou thine hand dost open wide:
And every thing dost satisfie,
That lives and doth on earth abide,
Of thy great liberalitie.

17 The LORD is just in his wayes all,
And help in his works each one.

18 Hee's near to all that on him call,
Who call in truth on him alone.

PSALM CXLVI.

9 GOD will the iust's desire fulfil of such as do him fear and dread,
their cry regard and hear he will,
and save them in the time of need.

10 The LORD preserves all more and less,
that bear to him a loving heart:
he smothereth all of wickedness,
his crop will he, and clean subvert.

11 Therefore my mouth and lips I'll frame to speak the praises of the LORD,
to magnifie his holy Name:
for ever let all flesh accord.

PSALM CXLVI.

Praise God, the Lord praise, O my soul;
I'll praise God whilst I live:

1 While I have being, to my GOD,
in songs I'll praises give.

Trust not in Princes nor mens son,
in whom there is no stay.

His breath departs to's earth he turns;
that day his thoughts decay.

O happy is that man and blest,
whom Jacob's GOD both aid;

Whose hope upon the LORD both rest:
and on his GOD is staid.

Who made the earth and heavens high,
who made the swelling deep,

And all that is within the same,
who truth doth ever keep.

Who righteous judgments executes,
for those oppress that be:

Who to the hungry giveth food:

GOD sets the prisoners free.

1 The Lord doth give the blind their sight;
the bowed down doth raise:

The LORD doth dearly love all those that walk in upright ways.

9 The strangers shield, the widows stay,
the orphans help is he.

But per by him the wicked's way
turn'd up-side down shall be.

10 The Lord shall reign for evermore:

PSALM CXLVII.

thy God. O Zion, he reigns to all generations.

Praise to the LORD give ye.

PSALM CXLVII.

Praise ye the LORD; for it is good praise to our God to sing;

For it is pleasant: and to praise
it is a comely thing.

1. God doth build up Jerusalem:
and he it is alone,

That the dispers'd of Israel
doth gather into one,

3. Those that are broken in their hearts, and grieved in their minds,
He healeth, and their painful wounds
he tenderly up binds.

4. He counts the number of the stars,
he names them every one.

5. Great is our Lord, and of great power:
his wisdom search can none.

6. The Lord lifts up the meek, and casts the wicked to the ground.

7. Sing to the Lord, and give him thanks,
on harp his praises sound:

8. Who covereth the heaven with clouds who for the earth below

Prepareth rain, who maketh grass
upon the mountains grow.

9. He gives the beast his food, he feeds
the ravens young that cry.

10. His pleasure not in horses strength,
nor in man's legs doth lie:

11. But in all those that do him fear,
the LORD doth pleasure take:

In those that to his mercy do
by hope themselves betake.

12. The LORD praise, O Jerusalem:
Zion thy God confess:

13. For thy gates bars he maketh strong,
thy sons in thee doth bless.

14. He in thy borders maketh peace, with fine wheat filleth thee.

PSALM CXLVIII.

He sendeth forth his command on earth,
his wordes run speedilie.

Hoar-frost like ashes scattereth he:
like wooll he snow doth giue:

Like mozses casteth forth his ire:
who in his cold can liue?

He sendeth forth his mighty word,
and melteth them again;

the winds he makes to blow, and then the waters flow again.

The doctrine of his holy word,

to Jacob he doth shew:

his statutes and his judgments, he gives Israel to know.

To any Nation never he such favour did afford:

for they his judgments have not known:

O do ye praise the LORD.

PSALM CXLVIII.

Praise God. From heavens praise the Lord;
in heights praise to him be.

All ye his Angels, praise ye him:

his hosts all, praise him ye:

O praise ye him both Sun and Moon,
praise him all stars of light.

Ye heav'ns of heav'ns him praise, and floods,
above the heavens height.

Let all the Creatures praise the Name of our almighty LORD.

For he commaunded, and they were created by his word.

He also for all times to come,
hath them establisht sure:

He hath appointed them a law,
which ever shall endure.

Praise ye Jehovah from the earth,
dragons and cherie deep:

Fire, hail, snow, vapor, flaming wind,

All hills and mountains, fruitful trees,
and all ye Cedars ble.

PSALM CXLVIII.

and all ye birds that flye,

11 Kings of the earth, all Nations,
Princes, earth's Iudges ail.

12 Both yong men, yea and maidens too, old men, and childzen small.

13 Let them GOD's Name praise, for his Name
alone is extellent:

His glozp reacheth far aboue
the earth and firmament.

14 His peoples hozn the praise of all his Saints exalteih be:

Ch'n Israel's seed - a people near to him. The Lord praise ye.

Another of the same.

The LORD of heab'n confesse,
On high his glories raise.

2 Thou let all Angels say:

Him all his ormes praise.

3 Singler, fit.

Sun Moon and Stars:

4 He higher Spheres,

And cloudp Skp.

5 From GOD your beings are,
Him ther'for famous make:

You all created were,

When be the woꝝ but spake,

6 And from that place,

Where first you be

By his decree

You cannot pass.

7 Praise GOD from earth below.

He dragons, and ye deeps.

8 Fire, hell, clouds, wind, and snobs,

1 Whom in command he keeps.

9 Praise ye his Name,

Hills great and small,

Trees low and tall,

10 Beasts wild and tame.

All things that creep or flye,

11 He Kings, ye vulgar throng;

All Princes mean or hp.

12 Both men and virgins yong

PSALM XLVIII.

Ev'n young and old.

13 Exalt his Name;

For much his fame

Should be extoll'd.

Let GOD's Name be praise'd

Above both earth and sky:

For be his Saints both rais'd,

Set their hope on him.

Ev'n those that be

Of Isra'l race,

Hear to his grace.

The LORD praise ye.

PSALM CXLIX.

Praise ye the LORD unto him sing

A new Song, and his praise

In the Assembly of his Saints

In sweet Psalms do ye raise.

Let Israel in his Maker joy,

and to him praises sing:

Let all that Zion's children are,

be joyful in their King.

O let them unto his great Name

give praises in the dance:

Let them with timbrel and with harp

in songs his praise advance.

For GOD doth pleasure take in those that his own people be,

And he with his salvation

the meek will beautifie

And in his glory excellent,

let all his Saints rejoice:

Let them to him upon their beds,

aloud lift up their voice.

Let in their mouth aloft be rais'd

the high praise of the LORD;

And let them have in their right hand

a sharp two-edged sword.

To execute the vengeance due

upon the heathen all;

And make deserved punishment

upon the people fall.

And ev'n with chains, as prisoners, bind

these

PSALM CL.

their Kings that them command:
Hea, and with iron fetters strong,
the Nobles of their land.

9 On them the judgement to perform,
found written in his boord,

This honour is to all his Saints.

• O do ye praise the LORD.

PSALM CL.
